A significant segment of Common Wealth Literature is from Australia. Australian literature has vision, epic magnitude, inward explorations, outward recesses, outward explorations, spontaneous traditions of human mind and spirit. The Australian writer's obsession with land makes it conscious of the minute. Patrick White, Nobel laureate, "uses conventional chronological novel form and chooses to express his mystical vision through the developing reverberation of his character's progress". His base of operation is basically religious. "He reveals knowledge of mystical and esoteric texts, combining spiritual experience and spiritual vision".

The mystical vision echoes the totally different geography of Australia. Australian land is a burned out desert, inimical to modern man. The few novels of Patrick white, "Voss" (1957) and "Riders in the Chariot" (1961), have religious vision and romantic

Patrick White's Fiction Carolyn Bliss, 1986-08-18 This study examines all eleven novels of Patrick White the great Australian writer and Nobel Prize winner It begins from the observation that major characters in his novels undergo a necessary redemptive or facilitating failure This failure paradoxically enables their success within the context of what White has called the overreaching grandeur which circumscribes human existence Evolution of this theme is traced through forty years of White s fiction from his first novel Happy Valley 1939 to his most recent work The Twyborn Affair 1979 Comprehensive in its scope this book is informed by a thorough knowledge of White s poetry plays short stories and autobiography as well as his novels It is also unique in stressing that White s world view derives from a distinctly Australian experience It thus links him to a country in which he is deeply rooted and to a heritage he continued to affirm

Reading Corporeality in Patrick White's Fiction Bridget Grogan, 2019-03-25 In Reading Corporeality in Patrick White's Fiction An Abject Dictatorship of the Flesh Bridget Grogan combines theoretical explication textual comparison and close reading to argue that corporeality is central to Patrick White s fiction shaping the characterization style narrative trajectories and implicit philosophy of his novels and short stories Critics have often identified a radical disgust at play in White's writing claiming that it arises from a defining dualism that posits the purity of the disembodied spirit in relation to the pollution of the material world Grogan argues convincingly however that White's fiction is far more complex in its approach to the body Modeling ways in which Kristevan theory may be applied to modern fiction her close attention to White's recurring interest in physicality and abjection draws attention to his complex questioning of metaphysics and subjectivity thereby providing a fresh and compelling reading of this important world author

Otherness in the Novels of Patrick White Alma Budurlean,2009 The central argument of the thesis the representation and reception of otherness is followed throughout White's novels with the support of a complex critical instrumentarium made up of postcolonial theory reader response theory cultural critical frameworks alterity theory and narratology Otherness in its manifold representations is a main component of Patrick White's fiction It functions on several levels and this requires a deeper entanglement on the part of the reader The different levels previously referred to are embodied in the various Others who people White's novels ethnic Others as members of the Australian multicultural society and the Aborigines as colonial Others as well as gender Others who also play an important role in White's fictional world Reading Patrick White is an exercise in tolerance endurance and acceptance of alternatives But the efforts of the reader do not remain unrewarded In his endeavour to change what it meant to imagine Australia the writer broke down the barriers of what it meant to imagine otherness
