JEAN-PIERRE RICHARD.* Jean-Pierre Richard,1967 Le paysage romantique et l'expérience du sublime Yvon Le Scanff,2007 Analyse de la poétique du paysage chez les romantiques de leur conception du sublime dans la nature et du paysage sublime Des paysages de Baudelaire et Nerval Laura Vanel-Coytte,2008 The Oxford Handbook of European Romanticism Paul Hamilton,2016 The Oxford Handbook of European Romanticism focuses on the period beginning with the French Revolution and extending to the uprisings of 1848 across Europe It brings together leading scholars in the field to examine the intellectual literary philosophical and political elements of European Romanticism The volume begins with a series of chapters examining key texts written by major writers in languages including French German Italian Spanish Russian Hungarian Greek and Polish amongst others Then follows a second section based on the naturally interdisciplinary quality of Romanticism encapsulated by the different discourses with which writers of the time set up an internal comparative dynamic These chapters highlight the sense a discourse gives of being written knowledgeably against other pretenders to completeness or comprehensiveness of understanding and the Enlightenment encyclopaedic project Discourses typically push their individual claims to resume European culture collaborating and trying to assimilate each other in the process The main examples featuring here are history geography drama theology language geography philosophy political theory the sciences and the media Each chapter offers original and individual interpretation of individual aspects of an inherently comparative world of individual writers and the discursive idioms to which they are historically subject Together the forty one chapters provide a comprehensive and unique overview of European Romanticism Text, Image, and the Problem with Perfection in Nineteenth-Century France Daniel Sipe,2016-04-01 In the decades after the French Revolution philosophers artists and social scientists set out to chart and build a way to a new world and their speculative blueprints circulated like banknotes in a parallel economy of ideas Examining representations of ideal societies in nineteenth century French culture Daniel Sipe argues that the dream image of the literary or art historical utopia does not disappear but rather is profoundly altered by its proximity to the social utopianism of the day Sipe focuses on this persistent afterlife in utopias ranging from François René de Chateaubriand's Amerindian utopia in Atala 1801 to the utopian spoof of J J Grandville's illustrated novel Un autre monde 1844 He proposes a new reading of Étienne Cabet's seminal utopian novel Voyage en Icarie 1840 and offers an original perspective on the gendered utopias of technological inspiration that authors such as Charles Barbara and Auguste Villiers de l'Isle Adam penned in the second half of the century In addition Sipe considers utopias or important readings of the century's rampant utopianism in among others Victor Hugo Alfred de Vigny Théophile Gautier Charles Baudelaire and Gustave Courbet His book provides the historical context for comprehending the significance and implications of this
