Negotiating Conviviality L.

Hay, 2014-06-13 This book is an ethnographic study of a group of migrants in Cape Town from Malawi Zimbabwe and South Africa It seeks to understand how migrants overcome structural exclusion by forming and maintaining convivial relationships through the Bay Community Church and how this is facilitated by Information and Communication Technologies ICTs The book argues that ICTs are implicated in the negotiation of conviviality ICTs allow for a negotiation of intimacy and distance although their functions may facilitate more contact than is desired or further distance those already separated physically

This book interrogates the strict division between insiders and outsiders and highlights that migrants are able to sustain multiple networks and relationships linking their home and host countries Despite increasingly strict border control and animosity from host communities migrants are able to overcome imposed identities such as outsider They do so by using ICTs such as cell phones and Facebook to emphasise their Christian identity which is one of the main factors for inclusion in church based networks Membership with a mixed denominational church such as the Bay further challenges the notion that migrants stick to themselves Inclusive communities such as the Bay and everyday desires for conviviality evoke the need to reconsider policies too narrowly articulated around the dichotomisation of foreigners and nationals home and away us and them The Baptist ,1920 Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith,1914 Explore Kristina Lizardy-Hajbi,Matthew Floding,2022-08-31 This volume helps ministerial leadership students engage the tools of discernment while introducing the various roles that seminarians may pursue including pastors varieties of chaplaincy clinical pastoral educators academics and nonprofit leaders It is an ideal resource for seminarians particularly during theological field education Affective Trajectories Hansjörg Dilger,Astrid Bochow,Marian Burchardt,Matthew Wilhelm-Solomon,2020-02-28 The contributors to Affective Trajectories examine the mutual and highly complex entwinements between religion and affect in urban Africa in the early twenty first century tracing the myriad ways religious ideas practices and materialities interact with affect to configure life in urban African spaces
