The Bible Christian magazine, a continuation of the Arminian magazine Bible Christians, 1877 Faith Finding a Voice Cardinal Vincent Nichols, 2018-04-05 In Faith Finding a Voice Cardinal Vincent Nichols invites us to join him in an exploration of the presence of God in our lives How might we attune our ears to listen with greater attention to the voice of God through Scripture the teachings of the Church divine worship and the exercise of Caritas How might the gift of faith be realised in our lives in order that an authentic voice might be heard through our words and actions The reader is encouraged to reflect upon the mystery of the Triune God revealed to humanity and seen uniquely in Jesus Christ Drawing primarily upon the altarpiece The Nativity with Saints by Pietro Orioli Cardinal Vincent shows how by following the way and ministry of Jesus we are drawn into union with the divine now and for all eternity Through this vision the Cardinal advocates the necessity of theological and religious literacy for the common good of society This engagement encourages us to nourish the seeds of hope and to strive to build a more peaceful world through inter faith dialogue Such dialogue is enhanced the Cardinal believes through the baptised faithful understanding their role as missionary disciples Pope Francis Evangelii Gaudium 120 The ministries of the Church are portrayed as an interlocking framework in which the unity of the faithful may glorify God and serve humanity through the voice of evangelization The Lord's Voice Cries to the City C. Matthew McMahon, 2017-10-26 This book is about hearing the Word of God preached boldly plainly and faithfully It is particularly aimed at the Christian sitting in the pew who is required by God to hear the Word of God preached with spiritual profit to their soul However many pastors today would also do well to hear the contents of these chapters since their performance allows or not the ability for the Christian to accomplish the intended ends when they hear the Word preached If they are negligent in preaching the hearer can never do his commanded duty One might think that a book about preaching concerns hermeneutics or exegesis or more especially homiletics and not particularly directed towards the Christian This work however is neither about hermeneutics or homiletics per se It is primarily directed at the Christian hearer though much will be said about the minister and his pulpit ability Many good books have dealt with being called to the ministry or being faithful in study for preaching or for aid in sermon preparation Though this work may touch on all these things and much more it is really directed at what Christians ought to expect when the minister stands up to preach in the pulpit If the minister is not fulfilling his office as it should be intended what is the final result What should the congregation see hear and expect in this regard biblically speaking Reader what do you expect

The Rule of Faith Ephraim Radner, George Sumner, 1998-06-15 This collection of essays presented at the 1997 Scholarly Engagement with Anglican Doctrine SEAD Conference counters some of today's New Testament scholarship particularly that of the Jesus Seminar Asserting that only canon and creed can render knowledge of God two generations of scholars speak for a retrieval of more traditional modes of interpretation by and for today's church The Rule of Faith features three keynote addresses by eminent New Testament scholar the Rev Dr Brevard S Childs Sterling Professor of Divinity at Yale University one of the most notable Biblical theologians in contemporary American Christianity It also contains works by several younger scholars many of whom studied with Dr Childs and represent an emerging generation of orthodox Christian leadership for the Episcopal Church including Ephraim Radner George Sumner Kathryn Greene McCreight Stephen Holmgren R R Reno Christopher Seitz Kendall Harmon William Witt and Chris Brown Their writings give voice to scholarly engagement with the creedal Christian faith in the Episcopal Church

From Survival to Vocation Wayne L. Menking, 2023-02-02 The powers of death are closer than we thought Their perils appear in the forms of increased gun violence racism economic disparity and global warming to name but a few Faced with these threats Christians in this self absorbed culture tend to use their faith as a kind of palliative comfort that protects them from the truths of what these powers are doing to us as a human community and the sufferings they are inflicting on others particularly the poor and the disenfranchised Moreover it is used to shield them from responding to the gospel's call to leave survival for vocation Using Luther's theology of the cross and the instruction he imparts in his Large Catechism this book asserts that in the face of the sufferings in which we are situated the gospel news of Jesus's resurrection is a call to stand in its hope and power to resist these devastations and the dehumanization exploitation and domination they inflict The hope of God's life giving creativity in the face of the powers of death is given witness when Christians leave survival modes of existence to be in their baptismal vocation of loving neighbors as themselves

Authority to Heal Randy Clark, 2017-01-17 The Supernatural Quest to Restore Your Lost Birthright The Bible is filled with divine healing From cover to cover Scripture reveals many miraculous healings where the sick terminally ill and even the dead are restored to wholeness So how did healing something natural for Jesus and the early church become

Worship by Faith Alone Zac Hicks, 2023-02-28 What does gospel centered worship look like for today's church Scholar worship leader and songwriter Zac Hicks contends that this idea can be found in Thomas Cranmer's theology of worship which was shaped by the Protestant principle of justification by faith alone and reflected in his 1552 edition of the Book of Common Prayer
