Contemporary Human Rights Irfaan Jaffer, 2021-09-07 Traditional Islamic Ethics The Concept of Virtue and its Implications for Human Rights concentrates on the subject of Islam and modernity and Islam and human rights a topic that has become popular and relevant with the rise of globalization and the interest in Islamic extremism and human rights This book distinguishes itself by operating within the framework of the traditional school of thought or Islamic Traditionalism In doing so it draws on Islam s 1400 year old spiritual and intellectual tradition and its understanding of ethics and virtue along with truth justice freedom and equality This book argues that Islam s pre modern approach is indispensable in creating an organic and integral human rights model for Muslims The first section argues that the current understanding and implementation of international human rights needs to be more flexible and inclusive if it truly aims to be universal in scope this is because The Universal Declaration and its offshoots are still underpinned by secular liberal principles and therefore are at odds with other cultural traditions To this end this section critically explores popular human rights histories and contemporary ethical theories that attempt to justify human rights The second section of this book provides a general

overview on the subject of Islam and Human Rights After explaining some of the main problems this section examines various solutions offered by Muslim academics and scholars focusing on four different types of Muslim responses to modernity and human rights liberal progressive traditional and fundamentalist It concludes that there are spaces of convergence between modern liberal ethics and traditional Islamic virtue ethics while maintaining that there are also fundamental differences and that these differences should be welcomed by human rights theorists and advocates The book s intended audience is primarily post graduate students and professional academics in the fields of Human Rights Ethical Philosophy and Islamic Studies modern Islamic thought Sufism Islamic theology Islamic Philosophy and Traditionalism It will also appeal to anyone interested in the subject of Islam and modernity in general and Islam and human rights in particular Anton Boisen Sean J. This book introduces students to the so called classics of the field from the 19th and 20th centuries whilst challenging readers to apply a critical lens Instead of representing scholars and their works as virtually timeless each contributor provides sufficient background on the classic work in question so that readers not only understand its novelty and place in its own time but are able to arrive at a critical understanding of whether its approach to studying religion continues to be useful to them today Scholars discussed include Muller Durkheim Freud and Eliade Fieldnotes in the Critical Study of Religion Revisiting Classical Theorists therefore offers a novel way into writing both a history and ethnography of the discipline helping readers to see how it has changed and inviting them to consider what if anything endures and thereby unites these diverse authors into a common field Introducing Religion Daniel L. Pals,2009

Introducing Religion presents the key writings of 11 theorists that explain the phenomenon of religion its origin historical growth and world wide variations without relying on the authority of the Bible or the articles of dogma Religions and Sports: The Basics Terry D.
