Howell,2018-03-06 Most people anticipate a success story that describes a character s real life or fictional triumph from rags to riches What if we turn the tables and read about an already lucky character who was practically born with a silver spoon in her mouth looks down upon others who have less than her or who don t meet her standards feels entitled to get what she desires from others and gets away with countless bullying antics at school since her father knows what strings to pull to get her out of trouble Meet Serendipity a k a Serene who needs to be humbled in her world of entitlement to fill the endless void she is trying to fill How will she turn from her vacant and selfish ways if she doesn t have God in her life Does she need to lose everything and go from riches to rags to find her purpose in the life that God intended for her Storytelling Against

Extremism Linda Schlegel,2025-05-23 Counter and alternative narrative CAN campaigns have become a widely used tool in contemporary efforts to prevent and or counter violent extremism P CVE However one element is conspicuously absent from the discourse There is little engagement with CANs as narratives and neither CAN theory nor practice are based on existing research findings on narrative persuasion processes This is a crucial gap in the current CAN approach Not situating CANs within the broader discourse on narrative persuasion and drawing from the insights narrative persuasion studies offer significantly weakens the theoretical foundation practical development storytelling quality and analysis of CAN campaigns This book addresses this research gap and transfers concepts theories and insights from narrative persuasion and storytelling research to the context of P CVE narrative campaigns The author demonstrates that the often criticized CAN approach can be improved significantly by understanding CANs as narrative persuasion campaigns and grounding them in existing research detailing how to tell entertaining and persuasive stories New York Magazine ,1979-10-08 New York
