Save Your Stuff in the Workplace Scott M. Haskins, 2013-04-01 In 1994, in response to the Northridge Earthquake in the Los Angeles area, Scott Haskins was asked to write a pamphlet entitled How To Respond After An Earthquake. 500,000 units were distributed to the public through the Human Resource department of The Bank of America Corporation. Following this event, he was asked to write Save Your Stuff in the Workplace because there was and is no other information available to the corporate and government world. Save Your Stuff fills the need for public outreach and education on the subject of Emergency Preparedness and Disaster Response. There is no other resource available to provide this information and education in an entrepreneurial way. The presentation of the educational information is unique in that it translates the professional conservation preservationese into plain public English.

The Polished Woman Angie Massengill, I hope that my book The Polished Woman will help you get organized and make your life easier. As I want this book to help guide my children and my grandchildren for generations to come. Life can be very difficult, especially if you're a wife, mother, and work a full-time job. We wear many hats. Think about it: we are wives, mothers, caregivers, teachers, coaches, housekeepers, gardeners, nurses, etc. We have a lot to do, sometimes with little or no help at all. The ideas in my book The Polished Woman are ideas that I have incorporated into my daily routine. I am always trying to find inexpensive ways to make life easier for me. One big key in getting organized is a routine and sticking to it. People ask me all the time how I do it; it's my routine. You have to get organized first. I want to know where everything is in my home. If my husband calls me, I want to be able to tell him where to find whatever it is that he is looking for. If everything is in order, he can do so without turning the whole house upside down. I
