THE RUGBY LEAGUE GAME
The Rugby League game is a contact sport, played between two teams of thirteen players. The game is known for its physical nature and the high level of competition. It is a game of strategy and skill, requiring players to be both strong and agile. The game is played on a rectangular field, with the goalposts at each end. The objective is to score more points than the opposition by kicking the ball into the goalposts or by carrying the ball into the try area and grounding it. The game is known for its fast-paced action and the high level of physical contact between players.
