How to Write Sales Letters That Sell Drayton Bird, 2002 The right piece of direct mail can produce excellent response rates and have an extraordinary effect on business. But why do some sales letters achieve spectacular results whilst others are instantly consigned to the bin? This book reveals the secrets of creating successful sales letters. Every major gift is planned, and every planned gift is major. This book is written with the premise that if you know how to identify, evaluate, cultivate, and finally ask for the gift, it does not matter if it is a major gift or a will. Clergy and others need help learning how to make the ask before their major gifts have been allocated to other nonprofits and schools, so willing and prepared to ask for them. LaFond recounts I remember sitting with a beloved dying parishioner who turned to me in her last three hours and quietly said, 'I wish I had remembered the church in my will.' I asked why she had not, and she said sweetly, 'They never asked, and everyone else did, and so thoroughly.' Clergy and lay leaders are terrified of asking for major and planned gifts while parishes need them, and donors need to give them. Clergy are not taught in seminary how to do this essential work of ministry.
