Mr. Jack Kahling
Honor Flight Quad Cities

Dear Mr. Kahling,

Just a brief note to thank you for your service to our country. I was only very young at the end of the Vietnam War, and didn't appreciate until much later the failure on the part of our country to appropriately thank and honor those who put their lives on the line in our name.

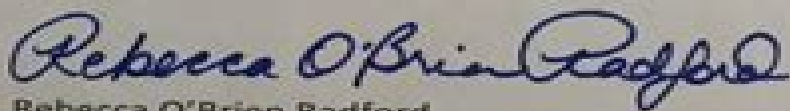

In fact, one of my most vivid memories was in 1986, when Chicago finally held a welcome home parade for Vietnam Veterans. Do you remember it? Did you attend? As I said, I didn't appreciate or understand why, in '86, we were having a welcome home parade for a war that had ended a lifetime ago (when you're 15...).

My mother told me we had to go. Whatever plans we had were cancelled and we got ourselves to the parade route. Typically not one for being loud or demonstrative in public ("proper" is her middle name) she stood on something (was she really climbing up a lamp post?!) and shouted, "Thank you! Thank you!" over and over to the Vets, for the entire parade. By the end of the day, she was hoarse. I was in awe of the scene: Veterans in camouflage, on crutches, in wheelchairs; people marching with photos of their beloved lost; the crowd shouting, waving and crying through showers of ticker tape.

This was no St. Patrick's Day Parade. This was more: I hope for you and the other Vets, it was evidence of the respect and gratitude you deserve for your sacrifice. For me, it forged the lens through which I view and have come to understand the Vietnam War's vets: Duty, Sacrifice, Respect, Appreciation, Honor. I hope your experience today with the Honor Flight is a continuation of that day; just one of the many thanks you are due for your contribution to our country.

Give a hug to that beautiful Pi Phi next to you.

Sincerely yours,

Rebecca O'Brien Radford

Lansky,2013-05-13 Despite the burgeoning literature on the role of the father in child development and on fathering as a developmental stage surprisingly little has been written about the psychiatrically impaired father In Fathers Who Fail Melvin Lansky remedies this glaring lacuna in the literature Drawing on contemporary psychoanalysis family systems theory and the sociology of conflict he delineates the spectrum of psychopathological predicaments that undermine the ability of the father to be a father Out of his sensitive integration of the intrapsychic and intrafamilial contexts of paternal failure emerges a richly textured portrait of psychiatrically impaired fathers of fathers who fail Lansky s probing discussion of narcissistic equilibrium in the family system enables him to chart the natural history common to the symptomatic impulsive actions of impaired fathers He then considers specific manifestations of paternal dysfunction within this shared framework of heightened familial conflict and the failure of intrafamilial defenses to common shame Domestic violence suicide the intensification of trauma posttraumatic nightmares catastrophic reactions in organic brain syndrome and the murder of a spouse are among the major symptoms that he explores In each instance Lansky carefully sketches the progression of vulnerability and turbulence from the father s personality to the family system and thence to the symptomatic eruption in question In his concluding chapter he comments tellingly on the unconscious obstacles on the part of both patients and therapists to treating impaired fathers The obstacles cut across different clinical modalities underscoring the need for multimodal responses to fathers who fail Mother of the Company Philip M. embarkation to discharge the letters and stories in Mother of the Company Sgt Percy M Smith s World War II Reflections also provide an intimate window conveying his feelings for his wife though tempered in expression as well as subject to censorship The letters add depth to the story of this soldier and they expand the narrative to capture more of the experience of all veterans who felt at risk and needed comfort during and after the war But these letters provide readers with another less expected view into the heart and mind of this member of the World War II generation In contrast with military training masculine expectations and the prejudices of white America at that time the longer later memories of wartime and occupation contain strong instances of comforting and caring that sometimes turn the gender experience of war and male camaraderie on its head In the end if we ask what constitutes a good soldier a good survival and a worthy life the answer for Sgt Percy Smith as suggested by his letters might encompass the greater value of life giving and life fostering instincts as a part of healing the damage left behind by the life taking experience of war Congressional Record United States.
