Gert-Jan Boon, 2020-01-30 This edited volume is based on the European Law Institute's ELI project Rescue of Business in Insolvency Law The project ran from 2013 to 2017 under the auspices of the ELI and was conducted by Bob Wessels and Stephan Madaus who were assisted by Gert Jan Boon The study sought to design elements of a legal framework that will enable the further development of coherent and functional rules for business rescue in Europe This includes certain statutory procedures that could better enable parties to negotiate solutions where a business becomes financially distressed Such a framework also includes rules to determine in which procedures and under which conditions an enforceable solution can be imposed upon creditors and other stakeholders despite their lack of consent The project had a broad scope and extended to consider frameworks that can be used by non financial businesses out of court and in a pre insolvency context Part I of this book the ELI Instrument as approved by the ELI Council and General Assembly features 115 recommendations on a wide variety of themes affected by the rescue of financially distressed businesses such as the legal rules for professions and courts treatment and ranking of creditors claims contract corporate and labour law as well as laws relating to transaction avoidance Part II consists of national reports that sketch the legal landscape in 13 States and of an Inventory Report on International Recommendations from Standard Setting Organisations both of which provided insight for the drafting of the Instrument This volume is designed to assist those involved in a process of law reform and those setting standards for soft law in the business rescue context

Market Expansion and Social Dumping in Europe Magdalena Bernaciak, 2015-06-05 The term social dumping regularly appears in public debates and in policymaking circles However due to its ambiguity it is used in a manner that is convenient for individual discourse participants thus opening the door for misconceptions and ill grounded accusations This book systematically examines social dumping in the context of the European integration process It defines social dumping as the practice undertaken by self interested market participants of undermining or evading existing social regulations with the aim of gaining a competitive advantage It also shows how the two major EU integration projects the creation of the Internal Market and EU enlargement to the east and to the south have provided market actors with new incentives and opportunities to contest existing social constraints The empirical chapters examine social dumping practices accompanying labour migration employee posting and cross border investment distribution In addition they outline the process of formation of social standards and trace initiatives at EU and national levels that contribute to the spread of social dumping in Europe This book will be of interest to scholars and students of employment relations EU studies international political economy globalisation studies welfare studies social policy and migration studies Big Data's Big Potential in Developing Economies Nir Kshetri,2016-10-25 Big Data has the power to change all aspects of agriculture environmental protection and healthcare especially in developing countries by allowing new levels of analysis and tailoring of impacts How big data will impact will benefit smallholder farmers relative to global multinationals The book considers how big data can changing the way lenders assess creditworthiness of potential borrowers Data privacy and security issues are important issues The key ideas concepts and theories presented are explored illustrated and contrasted through in depth case studies of developing world based big data companies and deployment and utilization big data in agriculture environmental protection and healthcare Daily Graphic Kingsley Inkoom,2014-09-03 Student's Handbook on Indirect Taxes Madhukar N Hiregange, Vishal Jain A and Roopa Nayak, Full Syllabus Coverage of Service Tax Central Excise Customs VAT and CST Use of simple language with a clear examination focus Recent Amendments made by Finance Act 2014 highlighted Recent Circulars Notifications and Case Laws Examples and Solved Illustrations for Crystallization of Concepts Use of Tables and Flowcharts for Easy Understanding of Concepts Student friendly Presentation for Effective Learning Chapter Overview at the beginning of each Chapter Self Examination Questions at the end of each Chapter Short Revision Notes for Quick Revision at the end of each Chapter Knowledge Capture in Financial Regulation Eva Becker,2016-04-12 Eva Becker assesses the US financial crisis as a crisis of regulatory data information and knowledge Based on the Financial Crisis Inquiry Commission s interviews as well her own interviews and drawing on Capture Theory and recent reformulations thereof she develops knowledge capture as a theoretic framework to assess financial regulation under conditions of 21st century complexity The Regulation of Financial Planning in Australia Angelique Nadia Sweetman McInnes,2019-08-20 This book investigates the legitimacy of the current Australian Financial Services Licensee Authorised Representative AFSL AR licensing model as specified in the Commonwealth Corporations Act 2001 The book rectifies the deficiency in scholarly attention to this matter by developing a new conceptualised framework for the financial planning discipline It takes into account theories in agency legislation legitimacy and the independent individual regulatory regimes in other professions thereafter integrating this framework with the financial planning theory to examine the legitimacy or what was found to be the illegitimacy of licensing advisers via multiple third party conflicted commercially oriented licensees This book makes a very useful reference to understanding financial planning licencing model in Australia OECD Reviews of Innovation

Policy: Netherlands 2014 OECD,2014-09-16 This book provides a comprehensive assessment of the innovation system of the Netherlands focusing on the role of government and including concrete recommendations on how to improve policies that affect innovation and R D performance Family-Run Universities in Japan Jeremy Breaden,Roger Goodman,2020-07-03

Globally private universities enrol one in three of all higher education students In Japan which has the second largest higher education system in the world in terms of overall expenditure almost 80% of all university students attend private institutions According to some estimates up to 40% of these institutions are family businesses in the sense that members of a single family have substantive ownership or control over their operation This book offers a detailed historical sociological and ethnographic analysis of this important but largely under studied category of private universities as family business It examines how such universities in Japan have negotiated a period of major demographic decline since the 1990s their experiments in restructuring and reform the diverse experiences of those who worked and studied within them and above all their unexpected resilience It argues that this resilience derives from a number of inbuilt strengths of family business which are often overlooked in conventional descriptions of higher education systems and in predictions regarding the capacity of universities to cope with dramatic changes in their operating environment This book offers a new perspective on recent changes in the Japanese higher education sector and contributes to an emerging literature on private higher education and family business across the world New Uses of Bourdieu in Film and Media Studies Guy Austin,2016-07-01 Through his influential work on cultural capital and social mobility the French sociologist Pierre Bourdieu has provided critical insights into the complex interactions of power class and culture in the modern era Ubiquitous though Bourdieu s theories are however they have only intermittently been used to study some of the most important forms of cultural production today cinema and new media With topics ranging from film festivals and photography to constantly evolving mobile technologies this collection demonstrates the enormous relevance that Bourdieu s key concepts hold for the field of media studies deploying them as powerful tools of analysis and forging new avenues of inquiry in the process Specialised Translation

M. Rogers,2015-05-26 This book shifts the common perception of specialised or LSP translation as necessarily banal and straightforward towards a more realistic understanding of it as a complex and multilayered phenomenon which belies its standard negative binary definition as non literary Federal Register ,2012-11 26 Years Chapterwise Solved

Barker,Iris H.-Y. Chiu,2017-12-29 Shareholder engagement with publicly listed companies is often seen as a key means to monitor corporate malpractices In this book the authors examine the corporate governance roles of key institutional investors in UK corporate equity including pension funds insurance companies collective investment funds hedge and private equity funds and sovereign wealth funds They argue that institutions corporate governance roles are an instrument ultimately shaped by private interests and market forces as well as law and regulatory obligations and that policy makers should not readily make assumptions regarding their effectiveness or their alignment with public interest or social good Climate Adaptation Investment and the Community Reinvestment Act Jesse M. Keenan ,Elizabeth Mattiuzzi,2019-06-17 Climate change is already causing disruption to regional economic activity Low to moderate income populations are highly vulnerable to these impacts in part because they often have fewer resources to adapt The stability and prosperity of local economies in the face of climate change depends on how well the public private and civic sectors can come together to respond to the shocks and stresses of climate change Collaborative efforts to fund climate adaptation not only reduce the burden on highly vulnerable populations but they also offer the opportunity for co benefits within a broader portfolio of community development ambitions This report introduces the field of climate adaptation finance and explains its connection to the Community Reinvestment Act CRA within the context of the disaster provisions guiding pre and post disaster investments In a demonstration of need the report provides evidence of the spatial concentration of disaster declarations in areas with CRA eligible populations Existing innovative and hypothetical investments are highlighted within a broader context for stimulating greater pre disaster planning and investment Community development practitioners investors and policymakers will find this report useful for sparking new ideas about how to develop partnerships and funding streams for CRA eligible activities in both eligible communities and areas within a federal disaster declaration that will reduce the vulnerability and increase the adaptive capacity of communities to the impacts of climate change Personal Genomes: Accessing, Sharing, and Interpretation Manuel Corpas,Stephan Beck,Gustavo Glusman,Mahsa Shabani,2021-08-02
