Scope Magazine March 2015:

Toxic Chemicals in America Kelly A. Tzoumis, 2020-12-02 This one stop resource is ideal for understanding the extent to which toxic chemicals are used in U S industry and agriculture impacting public health and the environment through everything from industrial solvents to children s toys Every year about 4 billion pounds of toxic chemicals are generated and released by U S industries Do these chemicals pose a potential health threat to American families including vulnerable groups like children and the elderly Is their manufacture and use adequately regulated to protect both human and environmental health Is the Chemical Safety for the 21st Century Act signed in June 2016 by President Barack Obama with bipartisan support truly the first major overhaul of toxic chemical regulation in 40 years to put human health first as its supporters asserted Or is it a fatally flawed bill that does the bidding of industry by undermining strong state environmental and public health laws as some detractors claim This two volume set addresses all of those questions Moreover it presents and examines arguments marshaled by business interests community leaders scientists activists and lawmakers alike It thus provides users with the information they need to accurately assess the impacts pro and con that industrial chemicals are having in shaping the world in which we work eat drink breathe and play Focus On: 100 Most Popular Nonlinear Narrative Films Wikipedia contributors, Lone Star Steeples Pixie Christensen, 2016-06-14 In Lone Star Steeples Historic Places of Worship in Texas Carl J Christensen Jr and Pixie Christensen present sixty five captivating and historically significant structures in exquisite watercolor illustrations accompanied by brief summaries and convenient handcrafted maps Ranging from stately edifices of brick and stone located in urban centers to more humble wood frame chapels in rural surroundings the houses of faith shown in these pages have one important trait in common They have all served as centers of cultural identity spiritual comfort and public service to the communities in which they arose In their introduction the Christensens write The journey behind Lone Star Steeples crisscrossed the state along back roads farm roads and state highways In these journeys and in the stories that were told certain patterns began to emerge the pride of the people in building their churches debt free the perseverance of the people who endured their beloved church being destroyed by natural disaster once twice or even three times the people s recognition of the church as their cultural foundation their moral foundation their social center As the Christensens demonstrate Texas is home to a remarkable diversity of people and their places of worship reflect and celebrate that diversity Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture John Powers, 2023 The Bolex camera 16mm reversal film stocks commercial film laboratories and low budget optical printers were the small gauge media technologies that provided the infrastructure for experimental filmmaking at the height of its cultural impact Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture examines how the avant garde embraced these material resources and invested them with meanings and values adjacent to those of semiprofessional film culture By reasserting the physicality of the body in making time lapse and kinesthetic sequences with the Bolex filmmakers conversed with other art forms and integrated broader spheres of humanistic and scientific inquiry into their artistic process Drawing from the photographic qualities of stocks such as Tri X and Kodachrome they discovered pliant metaphors that allowed them to connect their artistic practice to metaphysics spiritualism and Hollywood excess By framing film labs as mystical or adversarial they cultivated an oppositionality that valorized control over the artistic process And by using the optical printer as a tool for excavating latent meaning out of found footage they posited the reworking of images as fundamental to the exploration of personal and cultural identity Providing a wealth of new detail about the making of canonized avant garde classics by such luminaries as Carolee Schneemann Jack Smith and Stan Brakhage as well as rediscovering works from overlooked artists such as Chick Strand Amy Halpern and Gunvor Nelson Technology and the Making of Experimental Film Culture uses technology as a lens for examining the process of making where ideas come from how they are put into practice and how arguments about those ideas foster cultural and artistic commitments and communities

The Sublimity of Document Scott MacDonald, 2019-07-01 The Sublimity of Document Cinema as Diorama is a collection of in depth substantive interviews with moving image artists working avant doc that is making films that explore the territory between documentary and experimental cinema The book uses the early history of the museum habitat diorama of animal life specifically the Hall of African Mammals at the American Museum of Natural History as a way of rethinking both early and modern cinema document and especially those recent filmmakers and films that are devoted to providing viewers with panoramic documentations of places and events that otherwise they might never have opportunities to experience in person This international collection of 27 interviews follows on MacDonald s earlier Avant Doc Intersections of Documentary and Avant Garde Cinema Oxford 2015 The interviews organized panoramically within the collection are dense with information and insight and readable by specialists and non specialists alike In most instances these are the most in depth and expansive sometimes the first interviews with these filmmakers Together these interviews offer an engaging panorama of the recent history and geography of cinema devoted to documenting the world around us as well as an in depth look at the challenges and accomplishments of filmmakers willing to go anywhere on the planet or on the internet to document what they believe we need to see MacDonald s general introduction provides an overall context for the collection which includes interviews with Ron Fricke Gustav Deutsch Laura Poitras Fred Wiseman Nikolaus Geyrhalter Bill Morrison Brett Story Abbas Kiarostami Lois Pati o Dominic Gagnon Erin Espelie Yance Ford Janet Biggs Carlos Adriano Craig Johnson Ben Russell Betzy Bromberg James Benning Maxim Pozdorovkin along with several veterans of Harvard s Sensory Ethnography Lab and with the executive directors of the distributor Documentary Educational Resources which has served the field of independent documentary for nearly fifty years each interview is introduced with MacDonald s overview of the interviewee s life and work The book includes filmographies and selected bibliographies for all the filmmakers

A narrative driven exploration of policing and the punishment of disadvantage in Chicago and a new vision for repairing urban neighborhoods For people of color who live in segregated urban neighborhoods surviving crime and violence is a generational reality As violence in cities like New York and Los Angeles has fallen in recent years in many Chicago communities it has continued at alarming rates Meanwhile residents of these same communities have endured decades of some of the highest rates of arrest incarceration and police abuse in the nation The War on Neighborhoods argues that these trends are connected Crime in Chicago as in many other US cities has been fueled by a broken approach to public safety in disadvantaged neighborhoods For nearly forty years public leaders have attempted to create peace through punishment misinvesting billions of dollars toward the suppression of crime largely into a small subset of neighborhoods on the city s West and South Sides Meanwhile these neighborhoods have struggled to sustain investments into basic needs such as jobs housing education and mental healthcare When the main investment in a community is policing and incarceration rather than human and community development that amounts to a war on neighborhoods which ultimately furthers poverty and disadvantage Longtime Chicago scholars Ryan Lugalía Hollon and Daniel Cooper tell the story of one of those communities a neighborhood on Chicago s West Side that is emblematic of many majority black neighborhoods in US cities Sharing both rigorous data and powerful stories the authors explain why punishment will never create peace and why we must rethink the ways that public dollars are invested into making places safe The War on Neighborhoods makes the case for a revolutionary reformation of our public safety model that focuses on shoring up neighborhood institutions and addressing the effects of trauma and poverty The authors call for a profound transformation in how we think about investing in urban communities away from the perverse misinvestment of policing and incarceration and toward a model that invests in human and community development
