The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary Thomas W Benson, Brian J Snee, 2008-05-23 The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary explores the most visible and volatile element in the 2004 presidential campaign the partisan documentary film This collection of original critical essays by leading scholars and critics including Shawn J and Trevor Parry Giles Jennifer L Borda and Martin J Medhurst analyzes a selection of political documentaries that appeared during the 2004 election season The editors examine the new political documentary with the tools of rhetorical criticism combining close textual analysis with a consideration of the historical context and the production and reception of the films The essays address the distinctive rhetoric of the new political documentary with the films typically having been shot with relatively low budgets in video and using interviews and stock footage rather than observation of uncontrolled behavior The quality was often good enough and interest was sufficiently intense that the films were shown in theaters and on television which provided legitimacy and visibility before they were released soon afterwards on DVD and VHS and marketed on the Internet The volume reviews such films as Michael Moore s Fahrenheit 9 11 two refutations of Moore s film Fahrenheit 9 11 and Celsius 41 11 Unprecedented The 2000 Presidential Election and George W Bush Faith in the White House films that experimented with a variety of angles and rhetorics from a mix of comic disparagement and earnest confrontation to various emulations of traditional news and documentary voices The Rhetoric of the New Political Documentary represents the continued transformation of American political discourse in a partisan and contentious time and showcases the independent voices and the political power brokers that struggled to find new ways to debate the status quo and employ surrogate independents to create a counterrhetoric Cornell Studies in English ,1925 Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence A Is for Anaktuvuk Naomi Gaede-Penner, 2013 The elders of the last roving bands of Nunamiuts and the only inland Eskimos in Alaska were determined to provide education within their settlement rather than send their children to boarding school The obstacles were daunting no school building no teacherage no roads to transport building supplies no airstrip no wood for fuel except willows no public services besides a post office and few English speaking adults and children When Anna Bortel flew with a bush pilot doctor to Anaktuvuk Pass do an educational assessment they begged her to return and teach As told in A is for Alaska Teacher to the Territory Anna knew the daily living requirements would be steep much more so than those of teaching She deliberated She prayed She accepted the challenge A year later Ernest Gruening U S Senator from Alaska described the dilemma Alaskan educators faced and the determination of the Native people to obtain an education He held up Anna Bortel as the ideal teacher one able to comprehend their problem one kind and sympathetic and above all one able to adjust to all conditions that might face her Read how Anna Bortel carved a place in Alaska history and taught children that A is for Anaktuvuk Alaska while the Anaktuvuk people taught her how to live in their world Consuming Environments Mike Budd, Steve Craig, Clayton M. Steinman, 1999 This is an exploration of how much TV people watch why they watch too much and what they see The authors argue that while people may have good reasons for watching television they seem to be unaware that such habits might be harmful to their environmental health The book examines how advertising and media companies have shaped the commercial content of most television tracing industry motives and operations and their increasing concentration in fewer hands A Curriculum for English, 1963 The Transnational Media Corporation Richard A. Gershon, 2013-10-18 The combination of international privatization trends coupled with advancements in computer and communication technology have transformed the conduct of international business The result has been a consolidation of players in all aspects of business including banking aviation insurance and mass media This book discusses one such player the Transnational Media Corporation TNMC Long remembered as a time of rapid growth and expansion for international business the decades of the 80s and 90s were a period characterized by major mergers and acquisitions Good examples of this include Time Inc s 1989 merger with Warner Communication for 11.2 billion and Walt Disney s 1996 purchase of Cap Cities ABC for 19.5 billion According to the late Steven Ross former co chief executive officer of Time Warner In order to succeed in business today you must be in all the major markets of the world TNMCs have indeed become salient features of today s global economic landscape This volume asks the most basic of questions What makes a global corporation global And to what extent do TNMCs affect the marketplace of ideas This book then is intended for the business professional or student who is interested in understanding the business and operations of transnational media Part I examines the regulatory and economic reasons prompting the formation of a TNMC It seeks to explain why such companies engage in direct foreign investment and further considers how transnational operations affect the development of new media products in terms of cost quality and availability The TNMC is unique among global corporations given the fact that its primary business is the creation of information and entertainment products This book also examines the highly complex relationship between TNMCs and the host nations in which they operate It further considers such specific issues as cultural trespass transborder data flow and the effects of transnational media on the marketplace of ideas Part II of this volume provides a series of case study analyses of five leading TNMCs including Time Warner Inc Sony Inc Bertelsmann AG the Walt Disney Company and News Corporation Ltd Specific attention is given to the history business philosophy and economic performance of each of these companies The Psychobiology of Consciousness Richard Davidson,2012-12-06 CONSCIOUSNESS AND THE BRAIN SELF REGULATION PARADOX The relationship of consciousness to biology has intrigued mankind throughout recorded history However little progress has been made not only in understanding these issues but also in raising fundamental questions central to the problem As Davidson and Davidson note in their introduction William James suggested almost a century ago in his Principles of Psychology that the brain was the organ of mind and behavior James went so far as to suggest that the remainder of the Principles was but a footnote to this central thesis This volume brings together diverse biobehavioral scientists who are addressing the various aspects of the mind/body/behavior issue Although some of the authors have previously published together in other volumes by and large the particular combination of authors and topics selected by the editors makes this volume unique and timely Unlike the Consciousness and Self Regulation series Schwartz Shapiro 1976 1978 also published by Plenum this volume is devoted entirely to a psychobiological approach to consciousness Although readers will differ in their interest in specific chapters the well rounded investigator who is concerned with the psychobiology of consciousness will want to become intimately acquainted with all the views presented in this volume As noted by the individual contributors the topic of this volume stimulates fundamental questions which on the surface may appear trivial yet on further reflection turn out to have deep significance Scott Foresman Literature and Integrated Studies ,1997 Springfield, Illinois, Course of Study with Suggestive Method for the Primary Grades Springfield (Ill.).
