Del Giorno, 2013-03-14 Is Practical Christianity an oxymoron Should the gifts of the Holy Spirit be limited to the rectory basement on Thursday nights Does one have to be Charismatic to be charismatic Practical Christianity Releasing the Holy Spirit says No no and no It puts forth the proposition that those who are baptized into Christ have been given all the gifts the Spirit has to give in potential to be used when and as needed St Paul makes it clear that the gifts of the Spirit are primarily for the benefit of the community but can they not also be used to assist and guide everyday Christians living everyday lives doing everyday things To that Practical Christianity says Yes In an informal manner Practical Christianity spells out how you can access the gifts that were given to you at baptism If you have already asked for the release of those gifts Practical Christianity can assist you in using them to help and guide you when you attempt to make decisions in the Lord You can also learn how to use the gifts to meet the sometimes seemingly overwhelming challenges of daily life Does joy elude you Does peace slither away all too quickly Do you have difficulty maintaining self control Well then read on Someone Died Now What? a Youth Pastor's Survival Guide Tom Morris, 2010-06-25 So you are a Youth Pastor or Youth Worker and someone dies It could be the grandparent or parent of a youth in your ministry Or it could be a youth in your youth who is killed in a terrible accident or it could be a student in a local high school or middle school How will you respond to help the families the
