Physical Science Grade10 June Common Paper 2014

Jayne D. Greenberg, Judy L. LoBianco

Physical Science Grade10 June Common Paper 2014:

Primary Science Education in East Asia Yew-Jin Lee, Jason Tan, 2018-09-26 This edited volume is a state of the art comparison of primary science education across six East Asian regions namely the People's Republic of China Republic of Korea Republic of China Hong Kong SAR Japan and Singapore While news of educational policies classroom teaching assessment and other educational innovations here often surface in the international media this book brings together for the first time relevant information regarding educational systems and strategies in primary science in East Asia Above all it is a readable yet comprehensive survey readers would have an accurate sense of what has been accomplished what has not worked so well and what remains to be done Invited experts in comparative education research and or science education also provide commentary by discussing common themes across the six regions These types of critical synoptic reviews add much value by enabling readers to understand broad commonalities and help synthesize what must surely be a bewildering amount of very interesting albeit confusing body of facts issues and policies Education in East Asia holds many lessons both positive and negative to offer to the rest of the world to which this volume is a timely contribution to the literature

Multimodal Narratives in Research and Teaching Practices Lopes, J. Bernardino, Viegas, Maria Clara, Pinto, José Alexandre, 2019-02-01 While already validated by the scientific community multimodal narratives have the potential for a broader application especially for improved teaching practices from a professional or a theoretical point of view Applying multimodal narratives within professional development courses creates a focus on the teaching practices rather than the content itself Multimodal Narratives in Research and Teaching Practices provides educator and researcher perspectives on the use of multimodal narratives as a tool to reflect and improve teaching practices Covering such topics as professional development online learning and teacher education this publication is designed for educators academicians administrators and researchers
