Physics Briefs, 1979

Not Zero Ross Clark, 2023-02-02 Bravely challenging

the Establishment consensus forensically argued Mail on Sunday The British government has embarked on an ambitious and legally binding climate change target reduce the country s greenhouse gas emissions to Net Zero by 2050 The Net Zero policy was subject to almost no parliamentary or public scrutiny and is universally approved by our political class But what will its consequences be Ross Clark argues that it is a terrible mistake an impractical hostage to fortune which will have massive downsides Achieving the target is predicated on the rapid development of technologies that are either non existent highly speculative or untested Clark shows that efforts to achieve the target will inevitably result in a huge hit to living standards which will clobber the poorest hardest and gift a massive geopolitical advantage to hostile superpowers such as China and Russia The unrealistic and rigid timetable it imposes could also result in our committing to technologies which turn out to be ineffective all while distracting ourselves from the far more important objective of adaptation This hard hitting polemic provides a timely critique of a potentially devastating political consensus which could hobble Britain s economy cost billions and not even be effective

Ebook: Physical Science Tillery,2016-04-16 Ebook Physical Science Global Climate Change David Kitchen,2016-09-16 The science of climate change is a complex subject that balances the physical record and scientific fact with politics policy and ethics and is of particular importance to the geosciences This thoughtfully crafted new text and accompanying media encourage non science majors to practice critical thinking analysis and discourse about climate change themes Taking a cross disciplinary approach acclaimed educator and researcher David Kitchen examines not only the physical science but the social economic political energy and environmental issues surrounding climate change His goal to turn knowledge into action equipping students with the knowledge and critical skills to make informed decisions separate facts from fiction and participate in the public debate
