American Homo Jeffrey Escoffier, 2018-10-02 A sweeping account of the way lesbian gay and bisexual people have challenged and changed society In this provocative book Jeffrey Escoffier tracks LGBT movements across the contested terrain of American political life where they have endured the historical tension between the homoeroticism coursing through American culture and the virulent periodic outbreaks of homophobic populism Escoffier explores how every new success enables a new disciplinary and normalizing form of domination only the active exercise of democratic rights and participation in radical coalitions allows LGBT people to sustain the benefits of community and the freedom of sexual perversity

Centralizing the Cult Julia Rhyder, 2019-10-16 Back cover In this work Julia Rhyder examines the Holiness legislation in Leviticus 17 26 and cultic centralization in the Persian period Rather than presuming centralization as an established norm Leviticus 17 26 forge a distinctive understanding of centralization around a central sanctuary standardized ritual processes and a hegemonic priesthood

Media Literacy is Elementary Jeff Share, 2009 This book provides a practical and theoretical look at how media education can make learning and teaching more meaningful and transformative It explores the theoretical underpinnings of critical media literacy and analyzes a case study involving an elementary school that received a federal grant to integrate media literacy and the arts into the curriculum The ideas and experiences of working teachers are analyzed through a critical media literacy framework that provides realistic challenges and hopeful examples and suggestions The book is a valuable addition to any education course or teacher preparation program that wants to promote twenty first century literacy skills social justice civic participation media education or critical technology use Communications classes will find it useful as it explores and applies key concepts of cultural studies and media education

Childbearing and the Changing Nature of Parenthood Rosalina Pisco Costa, Sampson Lee Blair, 2019-11-25 Around the globe the very conceptualization of family is associated with the relationship between a parent and a child The birth of a child represents both the end of one experience and the beginning of another

The Act of Musical Composition Dave Collins, 2016-04-01 The study of musical composition has been marked by a didactic technique based approach focusing on the understanding of musical language and grammar harmony counterpoint orchestration and arrangement or on generic and stylistic categories In the field of the psychology of music the study of musical composition even in the twenty first century remains a poor cousin to the literature which relates to musical perception music performance musical preferences musical memory and so on Our understanding of the compositional process has in the main been informed by anecdotal after the event accounts or post hoc analyses of composition The Act of Musical Composition Studies in the Creative Process presents the first coherent exploration around this unique aspect of human creative activity The central threads or key themes compositional process creative thinking and problem solving are integrated by the combination of theoretical understandings of creativity with innovative empirical work

Food, Power, and Agency Jürgen Martschukat, Bryant Simon, 2017-04-06 Grounded in the work of Roland Barthes Bruno Latour Pierre Bourdieu and Michel Foucault this exciting book uses food as a lens to examine agency and the political economic social and cultural power which underlies every choice of food and every act of eating The book is divided into three parts National Characters Anthropological Situations Health with each of the eight chapters exploring the power of food as well as the power relationships reflected and refracted through food Featuring contributions from historians sociologists anthropologists and cultural studies scholars from around the world the book offers case studies of a diverse range from German cuisine and ethnicity in San Francisco after the Gold Rush through Italian cuisine in Japan to ultragreasy bureks and teenage fast food consumption in Slovenia By directly engaging with questions of agency and power the book pushes the field of food studies in new directions An important read for students and researchers in food studies food history anthropology of food and sociology of food

The Paternalism of Partnership Maria Eriksson Baaz, 2005-03-04 Publisher Description

Alone Before God Pamela Voekel, 2002-08-30 Posits an underlying religious impetus for modernity in Mexico claiming that the Catholic Church nursed a reform movement that ultimately effected many of the same changes as the Protestant Reformation

Speculative Taxidermy Giovanni Aloï, 2018-01-23 Taxidermy once the province of natural history and dedicated to the pursuit of lifelike realism has recently resurfaced in the world of contemporary art culture and interior design In Speculative Taxidermy Giovanni Aloï offers a comprehensive mapping of the discourses and practices that have enabled the emergence of taxidermy in contemporary art Drawing on the speculative turn in philosophy and recovering past alternative histories of art and materiality from a biopolitical perspective Aloï theorizes speculative taxidermy a powerful interface that unlocks new ethical and political opportunities in human animal relationships and speaks to how animal representation conveys the urgency of addressing climate change capitalist exploitation and mass extinction A resolutely

nonanthropocentric take on the materiality of one of the most controversial mediums in art this approach relentlessly questions past and present ideas of human separation from the animal kingdom It situates taxidermy as a powerful interface between humans and animals rooted in a shared ontological and physical vulnerability Carefully considering a select number of key examples including the work of Nandipha Mntambo Maria Papadimitriou Mark Dion Berlinde De Bruyckere Roni Horn Oleg Kulik Steve Bishop Sn bj rnsd ttir Wilson and Cole Swanson Speculative Taxidermy contextualizes the resilient presence of animal skin in the gallery space as a productive opportunity to rethink ethical and political stances in human animal relationships Disability in Eastern Europe and the Former Soviet Union Michael Rasell,Elena

Iarskaia-Smirnova,2013-11-26 There are over thirty million disabled people in Russia and Eastern Europe yet their voices are rarely heard in scholarly studies of life and well being in the region This book brings together new research by internationally recognised local and non native scholars in a range of countries in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union It covers historically the origins of legacies that continue to affect well being and policy in the region today Discussions of disability in culture and society highlight the broader conditions in which disabled people must build their identities and well being whilst in depth biographical profiles outline what living with disabilities in the region is like Chapters on policy interventions including international influences examine recent reforms and the difficulties of implementing inclusive community based care The book will be of interest both to regional specialists for whom well being equality and human rights are crucial concerns and to scholars of disability and social policy internationally Europeanization and European Integration R.

Coman,T. Kostera,L. Tomini,2014-09-17 After two decades of research into the impact of the EU on domestic politics and policies this book explores the relationship between Europeanization and EU integration It argues that Europeanization should be considered as a stage in the development of EU integration as well as questioning the notion of incremental Europeanization Shades of Hiawatha Alan Trachtenberg,2005-10-19 A book of elegance depth breadth nuance and subtlety W Richard West Jr Founding Director of the National Museum of the American Indian The Washington Post A century ago U S policy aimed to sever the tribal allegiances of Native Americans limit their ancient liberties and coercively prepare them for citizenship At the same time millions of new immigrants sought their freedom by means of that same citizenship Alan Trachtenberg argues that the two developments were inevitably juxtaposed Indians and immigrants together preoccupied the public imagination and together changed the idea of what it meant to be American In Shades of Hiawatha Trachtenberg eloquently suggests that we must re create America s tribal creation story in new ways if we are to reaffirm its beckoning promise of universal liberty Of Matters Modern Debraj Bhattacharya,2008 A collection of essays that probe the experience of modernity in South Asia through narratives of specific issues and or contexts pushing the argument that South Asia s experience of modernity has to be understood in connection with a global experience and not in isolation The essays also critically engage with various concepts that inform debates on modernity Book Jacket En el Corazón de la

Libertad Drucilla Cornell, 2001-04 La exigencia feminista de igualdad formal ha hecho posible la incorporación de la mujer a profesiones masculinas y también ha significado para muchas mujeres el sacrificio del amor y de la vida familiar El amor y el sexo son cuestiones personales pero las sociedades modernas imponen a sus ciudadanos un concepto de sexualidad buena o mala como forma de vida obligada negándoles la libertad de personalizar quienes son sexualmente El feminismo que defiende la autora coloca en el corazón de su programa político la reconciliación de la libertad sexual con la libertad política
