IUTAM Symposium on Turbulent Mixing and Combustion Andrew Pollard, Sebastien Candel, 2013-03-14 The goals of the Symposium were to draw together researchers in turbulence and combustion so as to highlight advances and challenge the boundaries to our understanding of turbulent mixing and combustion from both experimental and simulation perspectives to facilitate cross fertilization between leaders in these two fields These goals were noted to be important given that turbulence itself is viewed as the last great problem in classical physics and the addition of chemical reaction amplifies the difficulties enormously The papers that have been included here reflect the richness of our subject Turbulence is rich and complex in its own right And its inner structure hidden in the morass of scales large and small can dominate transport Earlier IUTAM Symposia have considered this field Eddy Structure Identification in Free Turbulent Flows Bonnet and Glauser eds 1992 and Simulation and Identification of Organized Structures in Flows Sorensen Hopfinger and Aubry eds 1997 The combustion community is well served by its specialized events most notable is the bi annual International Combustion Symposium held under the auspices of the Combustion Institute Mixing is often considered somewhere in between these two This broad landscape was addressed in this Symposium in a somewhat temporal linear fashion of increasing complexity The lectures considered the many challenges posed by adding one element to the base formed by others turbulence and turbulent mixing in the absence of combustion through to turbulent mixing dominated by chemistry and combustion

Citizenship in Antiquity Jakub Filonik, Christine Plastow, Rachel Zelnick-Abramovitz, 2023-06-30 Citizenship in Antiquity brings together scholars working on the multifaceted and changing dimensions of citizenship in the ancient Mediterranean from the second millennium BCE to the first millennium CE, adopting a multidisciplinary and comparative perspective. The chapters in this volume cover numerous periods and regions from the Ancient Near East through the Greek and Hellenistic worlds and pre-Roman North Africa to the Roman Empire and its continuations and with excursions to modernity. The contributors to this book adopt various contemporary theories demonstrating the manifold meanings and ways of defining the concept and practices of citizenship and belonging in ancient societies and in turn of non-citizenship and non-belonging. Whether citizenship was defined by territorial belonging or blood descent by privileged or exclusive access to resources or participation in communal decision making or by a sense of group belonging, such identifications were also open to discursive redefinitions and manipulation. Citizenship and belonging as well as non-citizenship and non-belonging had many shades and degrees: citizenship could be bought or faked or even removed. By casting light on different areas of the Mediterranean over the course of antiquity the volume seeks to explore this multi layered notion of citizenship and contribute to an ongoing and relevant discourse Citizenship in Antiquity offers a wide ranging comprehensive collection suitable for students and scholars of citizenship politics and society in the ancient Mediterranean world as well as those working on citizenship throughout history interested in taking a comparative approach Chapters 47 and 48 of this book are freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons
