recent bouts of globalised Mugabephobia to Robert Mugabe's refusal to be neoimperially penetrated this book juxtaposes economic liberalisation with the mounting liberalisation of African orifices Reading land repossession and economic structural adjustment programmes together with what they call neoimperial structural adjustment of African orifices the authors argue that there has been liberalisation of African orifices in a context where Africans are ironically prevented from repossessing their material resources Juxtaposing recent bouts of Mugabephobia with discourses on homophobia the book asks why empire prefers liberalising African orifices rather than attending to African demands for restitution restoration and reparations Noting that empire opposes African sovereignty autonomy and centralisation of power while paradoxically promoting transnational corporations centralisation of power over African economies the book challenges contemporary discourses about shared sovereignty distributed governance heterarchy heteronomy and onticology Arguing that colonialists similarly denied Africans of their human essence the tome problematises queer sexualities homosexuality ecosexuality cybersexuality and humanoid robotic sexuality all of which complicate supposedly fundamental distinctions between human beings and animals and machines Provocatively questioning queer sexuality and liberalised orifices that serve to divert African attention from the more serious unfinished business of repossessing material resources the book insightfully compares Robert Gabriel Mugabe Thomas Sankara and Julius Kambarage Nyerere who emphasised the imperatives of African autonomy ownership control and sovereignty over natural resources Observing Africans interest in repossessing ownership and control over their resources the book wonders why so much queer international attention is focused on foisting queer sexuality while downplaying more burning issues of resource repossession human dignity equality and equity craved by Africans for whom life is not confined to sexuality With insights for scholars in sociology development studies law politics African studies anthropology transformation decolonisation and decoloniality the book argues that liberal democracy is a fa ade in a world that is actually ruled through criminocracy

Critical Conversations on Knowledge, Curriculum and Epistemic Justice Margaret Blackie, Kathy Lockett, 2024-12-03 This edited collection that celebrates the legacy of Suellen Shay is located in Higher Education Studies and Development in South Africa the country where she lived and worked The book has international reach as the authors engage in contemporary debates around how to think about knowledge in education development work in professional education and more recently around the call to decolonise the curriculum Contributions draw on the social realist tradition in the sociology of education to discuss how curricula are or should be structured in order to make key forms of knowledge accessible to students The collection includes theoretical debates related to the field of higher education studies as well as chapters that analyse curricula and assessment in engineering the health professions tourism and music including the impact on curricula of interdisciplinary collaboration across different types of institution and knowledge This book will be important for scholars wanting to transform how universities and colleges think about curriculum design and practice It was originally published as a special issue of Teaching in Higher Education Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens, Nerina Bosman, 2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics Leadership Strategies for Promoting Social Responsibility in Higher Education Enakshi

Sengupta, Patrick Blessinger, Craig Mahoney, 2020-08-03 This book explores the theoretical underpinnings and interventions of CSR practised by universities across the globe and the role their leadership plays in promoting this It provides international examples from the US Africa Europe and Asia with implications and insights for university leadership staff and students Universities and Epistemic Justice in a Plural World Margaret Meredith, 2024-02-26 This book explains why universities and academics within them must engage with the diversity of knowledges and knowers that exist in the world Through philosophical perspectives theoretical frameworks and practical examples from around the world the book searches for opportunities for renewal and inclusion in universities It explains how higher education can better serve the purposes of social justice by re evaluating the types of knowledge it promotes Going beyond the identification and analysis of injustices in ways of knowing in academia the book offers insights and examples of practices in teaching research and work with the community which aim to move towards justice on an epistemic level It argues that inclusion in the domain of knowledge can lead to the generation of knowledges and understandings that are more robust and better equipped to address the pressing needs of the plural worlds outside the university Contributions are included from authors working in varied disciplinary and cultural contexts in universities who describe and explicate their work towards identifying epistemic injustice and finding spaces to advance knowledge justice in theory and in practice The book will be beneficial to academics and those with an interest in the role of universities in serving the public good Universities as Living Labs for

Sustainable Development Walter Leal Filho, Amanda Lange Salvia, Rudi W. Pretorius, Luciana Londero Brandli, Evangelos Manolas, Fatima Alves, Ulisses Azeiteiro, Judy Rogers, Chris Shiel, Arminda Do Paco, 2019-04-30 This book fills an important gap in the literature and presents contributions from scientists and researchers working in the field of sustainable development who have engaged in dynamic approaches to implementing sustainability in higher education It is widely known that universities are key players in terms of the implementation and further development of sustainability with some having the

potential of acting as living labs in this rapidly growing field Yet there are virtually no publications that explore the living labs concept as it relates to sustainability and in an integrated manner The aims of this book which is an outcome of the 4th World Symposium on Sustainable Development at Universities WSSD U 2018 held in Malaysia in 2018 are as follows i to document the experiences of universities from all around the world in curriculum innovation research activities and practical projects as they relate to sustainable development at the university level ii to disseminate information ideas and experiences acquired in the execution of projects including successful initiatives and good practice iii to introduce and discuss methodological approaches and projects that seek to integrate the topic of sustainable development in the curricula of universities and iv to promote the scalability of existing and future models from universities as living labs for sustainable development The papers are innovative cross cutting and many reflect practice based experiences some of which may be replicable elsewhere Also this book prepared by the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP and the World Sustainable Development Research and Transfer Centre WSD RTC reinforces the role played by universities as living labs for sustainable development

Transforming Universities in South Africa ,2020-08-31 The idea of transformation in higher education underpins all policy documents academic literature and on going debates in South Africa Transforming Universities in South Africa Pathways to Higher Education Reform responds to the pressing need to comprehensively review the post apartheid experience and assess where South Africa s higher education stands across the continent and globally particularly within the country s efforts to overcome decades of socio economic imbalances It addresses the question of whether South Africa s transformation strategy from apartheid to democracy was simply a symbolic new flag raising and new anthem singing exercise reflecting a transition akin to those limited decolonization projects elsewhere in the world or whether something more fundamental was possible and was achieved with political and policy implications for other countries in Africa and globally This volume s ultimate purpose is to provide a basis for imagining new futures in which South Africa higher education in the context of Africa and the global world takes centre stage
