Sedjo,2018-02-06 This title was first published in 2003 The Economics of Forestry is a specialized subset of resource economics addressing a specific natural resource the forest which is usually a relatively long time period Hence forest economics has characteristics similar to nonrenewable resources but also has those of a renewable resource in some cases approaching those of agriculture This volume comprises some of the most significant journal essays in forest economics and forest policy The International Library of Environmental Economics and Policy explores the influence of economics on the development of environmental and natural resource policy In a series of twenty five volumes the most significant journal essays in key areas of contemporary environmental and resource policy are collected Scholars who are recognized for their expertise and contribution to the literature in the various research areas serve as volume editors and write essays that provides the context for the collection Volumes in the series reflect three broad strands of economic research including 1 Natural and Environmental Resources 2 Policy Instruments and Institutions and 3 Methodology The editors in their introduction to each volume provide a state of the art overview of the topic and explain the influence and relevance of the collected papers on the development of policy This reference series provides access to the economic literature that has shaped contemporary perspectives on land use analysis and policy Suffering and Despair United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Operations and Human Rights,2001 Social Torture Chris Dolan,2009 As Director of the Refugee Law Project at the University of Makerere Kampala Uganda Dolan offers a behind the scenes cross disciplinary study of one of Africa s longest running and most intractable conflicts This book shows how alongside the activities of the Lord s Resistance Army government decisions and actions on the ground consolidated by humanitarian interventions and silences played a central role in creating a massive yet only very belatedly recognized humanitarian crisis Not only individuals but society as a whole came to exhibit symptoms typical of torture and the perpetrator victim dichotomy became blurred It is such phenomena and the complex of social political economic and cultural dynamics which underpin them which the author describes as social torture Building on political economy social anthropology discourse analysis international relations and psychoanalytic approaches to violence this book offers an important analytical instrument for all those seeking entry points through which to address entrenched conflicts whether from a conflict resolution post conflict recovery or transitional justice perspective

Museum of Nonhumanity Laura Gustafsson, Terike Haapoja, 2019 Museum of Nonhumanity is the catalogue for a full size touring museum that presents the history of the distinction between humans and animals and the way that this artificial boundary has been used to oppress human and nonhuman beings over long historical periods Throughout history declaring a group to be nonhuman or subhuman has been an effective tool for justifying slavery oppression medical experimentation genocide and other forms of violence against those deemed other Conversely differentiating humans from other species has paved the way for the abuse of natural resources and other animals Museum of Nonhumanity approaches animalization as a nexus that connects xenophobia sexism racism transphobia and the abuse of nature and other animals The touring museum hosts lecture programs in which local civil rights and animal rights organizations academics artists and activists propose paths to a more inclusive society through intersectional approaches The museum also hosts a pop up book shop and a vegan caf As a temporary utopian institution Museum of Nonhumanity stands as a monument to the call to make animalization history comprehensive guide to apical periodontitis in root filled teeth that covers not only all aspects of diagnosis and management but also epidemiology etiology consequences clinical decision making and prognosis There is a particular focus on the available surgical and nonsurgical methods of retreatment designed to restore healthy periapical conditions Alternatives to retreatment are also explored including a conservative approach involving monitoring of the diseased tooth without intervention and the option of extraction and replacement with an implant or a fixed prosthesis The goal of root canal treatment is to save the natural tooth even when tissue breakdown has resulted in pathological conditions of the pulp and periradicular tissue However population studies reveal that complete healing is often absent in root filled teeth and apical periodontitis is frequently observed in conjunction with root fillings of poor technical quality Under these circumstances questions arise as to how the apical periodontitis is impacting on the patient and how the condition should be tackled Readers will find this well illustrated book to be of great value in directing clinical practice The Timberman, 1929

Political Reform In Francophone Africa John F Clark, 2018-02-07 Most African states experienced only a few fleeting years of democratic rule after independence before succumbing to authoritarianism During the 1970s and 1980s Africans and Westerners alike came to view dictatorship to be as much a part of the region's social landscape as its grinding poverty Yet the end of the Cold War and the sharpening of the economic crisis at the end of the 1980s have breathed new life into campaigns for democracy in Africa shaking the foundations of many long standing autocracies In some cases dramatic transitions took place though the fate of the new democracies is far from certain This volume explores the origins and evolution of political reform movements in several states of francophone Africa The authors first make the case for the distinctiveness of francophone Africa based on the influences of colonial history language and France's contemporary role in Africa then survey the challenges of reform including the problems of transition from authoritarianism and consolidation of democratic regimes Case studies of thirteen former French and Belgian colonies follow organized by level of reform achieved peaceful regime change incremental reforms repressed reform efforts and reform in the midst of war REASONING YCT EXPERT TEAM, RRB 2021 REASONING CHAPTER WISE SOLVED PAPERS Formal Peace and Informal War Zoë Marriage, 2013-05-02 Northern interventions into African countries at war are dominated by security concerns bolstered by claims of shared returns and reinforcing processes of development and security As global security and human security became prominent in development policy Congo was wracked by violent rule pillage internal fighting and invasion In 2002 the Global and All Inclusive Peace was promoted by northern donors placing a formal peace on the mass of informalised wars

Formal Peace and Informal War Security and Development in Congo examines how the security interests of the Congolese population have interacted with those of northern donors. It explores Congo's contemporary wars and the peace agreed on in 2002 from a security perspective and challenges the asserted commonality of the liberal interventions made by northern donors. It finds that the peace framed the multiple conflicts in Congo as a civil war and engineered a power sharing agreement between elite belligerents. The book argues that the population were politically and economically excluded from the peace and have been subjected to control and containment when their security rests with power and freedom. De Gaulle's Republic Philip Maynard Williams, Martin Harrison, 1979

Ethnic Politics and State Power in Africa Philip Roessler, 2016-12-15 Why are some African countries trapped in vicious cycles of ethnic exclusion and civil war while others experience relative peace? In this groundbreaking book Philip Roessler addresses this question. Roessler models Africa's weak ethnically divided states as confronting rulers with a coup/civil war trap: sharing power with ethnic rivals is necessary to underwrite societal peace and prevent civil war but increases rivals' capabilities to seize sovereign power in a coup d'état. How rulers respond to this strategic trade-off is shown to be a function of their country's ethnic geography and the distribution of threat capabilities it produces. Moving between in-depth case studies of Sudan and the Democratic Republic of the Congo based on years of field work and statistical analyses of powersharing coups and civil war across sub-Saharan Africa, the book serves as an exemplar of the benefits of mixed methods research for theory building and testing in comparative politics.

Reasoning Solved Papers YCT Expert Team, 2023-24 RRB Reasoning Solved Papers Africa's World War Gerard Prunier, 2008-12-31 The Rwandan genocide sparked a horrific bloodbath that swept across sub-Saharan Africa ultimately leading to the deaths of some four million people. In this extraordinary history of the recent wars in Central Africa Gerard Prunier offers a gripping account of how one grisly episode laid the groundwork for a sweeping and disastrous upheaval. Prunier vividly describes the grisly aftermath of the Rwandan genocide when some two million refugees, a third of Rwanda's population, fled to exile in Zaire in 1996. The new Rwandan regime then crossed into Zaire and attacked the refugees, slaughtering upwards of 400,000 people. The Rwandan forces then turned on Zaire's despotic President Mobutu and, with the help of a number of allied African countries, overthrew him. But as Prunier shows, the collapse of the Mobutu regime and the ascension of the corrupt and erratic Laurent-Désiré Kabila created a power vacuum that drew Rwanda, Uganda, Angola, Zimbabwe, Sudan, and other African nations into an extended and chaotic war. The heart of the book documents how the whole core of the African continent became engulfed in an intractable and bloody conflict. After 1998, a devastating war that only wound down following the assassination of Kabila in 2001, Prunier not only captures all this in his riveting narrative but he also indicts the international community for its utter lack of interest in what was then the largest conflict in the world. Africa's World War is a gripping eyewitness account of the most bloody upheaval of recent times, a book of passionate and unblinking intensity that is our best record to date of one of the great tragedies of the post-Cold War era.
