

Letter To Graduating Senior

Subject- Letter to graduating seniors.

Dear [Mention the name of the recipient],

Wow. You're receiving your diploma! It seems significant, doesn't it? Anticlimactic, too. It is thrilling. Bittersweet, but also. It feels upbeat but has also at times, seemed depressing. You are formally unprecedented and life goes on graduating class.

We rejoice over you. We share your sorrow. With you, we eagerly anticipate the future. We fear for you. We are aware of your absence. Although you might not yet be aware of it, we also know that you have won something priceless.

We want you to know that this year has the potential to be both. Hard and fantastic. Stunning and disappointing. Life is never just one thing, it is a sacred amalgam of the lovely and the tragic. It's the definitive guide to living, and yours just so happened to include a pandemic on a worldwide scale! How will it now assist you?

Given that you were a baby just a short while ago, it's difficult for us to comprehend that you have graduated. Afterward, a kindergartener. And a student in middle school. Likewise, freshmen. You were achieving milestones that were within our reach, such as your first words, steps, friendships, failures, and successes. And all of a sudden, you're stretching farther than we can catch you. We are the spectators watching you perform on the trapeze as you fly through the air.

So, congrats on your graduation! It's been a remarkable year. But this year has been yours. Take it now and fly.

Join the Celebration. Project Graduation S. K. Skinner, 1987 Join the Celebration ,1987 Blessed Are Those Who Mourn Eros Shaw, Mark Larrimore and Michael Clifton, 2022-11-24 Eros opens up how the Good News of Jesus Christ contains amongst its many many implications the possibility of openness and truth telling about love between people of the same sex These are part of the one same communication of grace and mercy coming towards us from God The friends and colleagues who Eros has brought together here show us something of what it looks like to have found yourself forced by love to stand your ground and how the wolf deflates when it is faced with such faith James Alison Theologian priest and author In this book another revolution is underway in gay Christians Describing faith in the light of their sinful sexuality is part of the transformative revolution of the gospel itself As you read this book I hope you will see what I mean by hearing what these writers say Regardless of your own sexual preference if your faith is not deepened by seeing how their faith became more authentic as a result of their existential and social ordeals please read them again Laurence Freeman OSB Director World Community for Christian Meditation In this book you will find stories which reflect the great variety of gay Catholics experiences stories of hurt but also of healing stories of hiding but also of courage to speak the truth stories of conflict between personal experience and official teaching and attempts to bridge that gap I pray that this book will have a wide readership and that all who read it will grow in courage to speak their own truth and to help the Church develop its ministry in this important area Mgr Keith Barltrop Diocese of Westminster chaplain to LGBT people This is a profoundly important book which gives voice to Chinese LGBTQI Catholics living inside and outside of China These testimonies are hugely insightful into the heartfelt desires and hopes and anguishes of Chinese men and women The struggle of coming out of the closet to live an open and authentic life as a gay person is an ongoing battle Their stories which we can all identify with to some degree makes for compulsive reading I cannot recommended this work by Eros highly enough Ruby Almeida Co chair Global Network of Rainbow Catholics The stories in this book may challenge people to look at themselves and their faith in new ways While that may be difficult it is a good thing and should be looked on as a gift from God It is through these sharing of stories that our Church and our faith develop May these stories help to bring light to our Church and to our world Francis DeBernardo Executive director New Ways Ministry Now What, Grad? Chris Palmer, 2018-08-16 Many soon to be graduates are worried about their future They stress about whether they ll find a job if it will be fulfilling whether they will earn enough to pay off their student loans and whether they will fail and disappoint their families Young people need to learn many things that colleges don t teach including how to behave professionally how to collaborate how to be life long learners and how to be resourceful resilient and ethical This book will teach students the things they need to succeed in the real world such as how to organize a job search how to ace job interviews how to manage time effectively how to manage and reduce stress how to be an effective leader how to run a meeting well how to survive a bad performance review how to become a powerful speaker how to network and many other skills that are the keys to success and fulfillment New topics in this 2nd edition include the habits of successful people eliminating bad habits dealing with criticism email etiquette making a good first impression the importance of gratitude how to listen job hunting mistakes managing conflict how to overcome obstacles the importance of professionalism punctuality and thank you letters creating a powerful online presence how to crowdfund necessary life skills and sample cover letters Getting Into Graduate School Gregory J.
