

Personal Autobiography

My name is Amanda L. Winter. I was born on 17 March, 1983 in Lexington, Kentucky, where I lived until the time I went to college in another state. I'm the fourth child and the only girl in a family of five. My father, Mr. Paul Winter is a retired physician and he currently runs a drug store within the city.

My mother, Mrs. Beverly Winter was a registered nurse working for various medical institutions across the state, until she decided to retire in 2010. Nowadays, she helps dad run the drug store. I went to school in Dixie School and Paul Laurence, where I completed my elementary and high school education respectively. Then, I went to Kansas University, where I did my under graduate degree in Journalism.

Growing up around four brothers was not easy, considering the fact that I am a girl. With all the masculinity in the house, there was a lot of competition and rivalry. I had to be tough as my brothers or I would have been toppled by their naturally aggressive nature. Not that we were a dysfunctional family, it was just normal sibling rivalry and it turned to be of benefit to me.

Since I was the youngest and a girl, I was bound to be at the bottom of the totem pole in everything. So, I had to be equally tough to fight for whatever was rightfully mine. As a result, I turned out to be a tomboy and also built a reputation as a no-nonsense girl. Furthermore, I had older brothers to protect me in case of a dispute.

I believe I adopted both my parents' brilliant brains, because I was always the best students academically. However, my abilities were not limited to the classroom alone. I also excelled in sports. In high school, I was arguably the best female sportsperson in outdoor games, especially in athletics and volleyball.

I have many accolades to my name, however the one that stands out was in my second year in high school. Representing our school in short races, I went to the state competition where I emerged third overall. I was not fortunate enough to win it, but it was an eye opener for me to strive for greatness in life. Fortunate for me, I won the best sportsperson award that year at our school's award giving ceremony.

While I was forging a name for myself in the academic and sports circles, my social life was in a really bad state. My tomboy look was making it hard for me to coexist well with either of the sexes. The girls were scared of my tough persona, while the boys felt intimidated by my confidence and competitive nature.

My wardrobe was full of my brothers' clothes that they had outgrown. All the girlish clothes my mother bought for me, I had them piled in the closet and completely forgot about them. When we went to the stores to buy clothes, I would be with my brothers at the boys' section. This disheartened my mother and she tried to advise me out of it, but I was just too adamant. Eventually, she accepted the way I was.

However, something happened in my life that sent me reeling back to the foundations of my femininity. It happened during my senior year in high school. It was the prom week and everyone was geared towards

Medieval Women and the Law Noël James Menuge, 2003 Legal records illuminate womens use of legal processes with regard to the making of wills the age of consent rights concerning marriage and children women as traders etc Determined and largely successful effort to read behind and alongside legal discourses to discover women s voices and women s feelings It adds usefully to the wider debate on women s role in medieval society

ENGLISH HISTORICAL REVIEW What is really new here is the ways in which the authors approach the history of the law they use some decidedly non legal texts to examine legal history they bring together historical and literary sources and they debunk the view that medieval laws had little to say about women or that medieval women had little legal agency

ALBION The legal position of the late medieval woman has been much neglected and it is this gap which the essays collected here seek to fill They explore the ways in which women of all ages and stations during the late middle ages c 1300 c 1500 could legally shift for themselves and how and where they did so Particular topics discussed include the making of wills the age of consent rights concerning marriage care custody and guardianship with particular emphasis on the rights of a mother attempting to gain custody of her own children within the court system women as traders women as criminals prostitution the rights of battered women within the courts the procedures women had to go through to gain legal redress and access rape and women within guilds
