

Graduation Speech – Class of 2015
Saint Xavier High School - May 17, 2015

Graduates:

Welcome to this Day and to the meaning behind the dignity of this ceremony as you join the ranks of Saint Xavier's alumni.

You have been school leaders at an historical time as we concluded the celebration of the school's 150th Anniversary. Reflect for a moment on that history, on those who have gone before you, developing the philosophy, programs and facilities and paving the way for the opportunities you have had and the experiences we have shared. Soon it will be your responsibility to ensure a St. X experience for other students and that such opportunities are there and even better for them.

Then reflect one more time on our theme for the year: Together, we dream, we believe and we achieve. Those who walked the halls, took the classes and were part of the teams and activities before you continued to dream, developing a vision for what St. X has become and achieving in ways that propelled our school forward. And all along the way, they believed faithfully that God would walk with them and provide even more opportunities to learn, know, love and serve.

You have continued the traditions, stretched the vision and walked together in faith in all that we have asked you to do.

Coalition David

Laws,2016-03-22 When David Cameron and Nick Clegg stepped out into the rose garden at No 10 to launch the first coalition government since the Second World War it was amid a sea of uncertainty Some doubted whether the coalition could survive

a full term or even a full year Five years later this bold departure for British politics had weathered storms spending cuts and military strikes rows referendums and riots In this compelling insider account David Laws lays bare the inner workings of the coalition government from its birth in 2010 to its demise in 2015 As one of the chief Lib Dem negotiators Laws had a front row seat from the very beginning of the parliament Holding key posts in the heart of government he was there for the triumphs the tantrums and the tactical manoeuvrings Now he brings this experience to bear revealing how crucial decisions were made uncovering the often explosive divisions between and within the coalition parties and candidly exploring the personalities and positions of the leading players on both sides of the government Honest insightful and at times shocking Coalition shines a powerful light on perhaps the most fascinating political partnership of modern times Canonical
