International Innovation Networks and Knowledge Migration Andreas Pyka, Yeşim Kuştepeli, Dominik Hartmann, 2016-07-15 Migration is conceived differently in Europe compared with countries like the US Canada or Australia International Innovation Networks and Knowledge Migration confronts traditional views on migration with modern theories of brain circulation and innovation networks showing that migration leads to mutual benefits for both the home and host countries This new volume brings together several case studies and empirical in depth analyses which are constructed from the strong migration relationship between Turkey and Germany that has existed for more than 50 years Bringing together over 20 international contributors this book highlights that knowledge migration and cultural diversity can strongly stimulate entrepreneurial activities competence acquisition and economic development of countries and regions The authors highlight the considerable scope for improvement of European migration policies in order to be better prepared to successfully process structural changes stemming from an aging society in Europe and an increasing international division of labour This volume is suitable for those who study industrial economics international economics and European economics It is also of interest to those who want to delve deeper into the Turkish German migration nexus Dislocating the Orient Daniel

Foliard, 2017-04-13 While the twentieth century s conflicting visions and exploitation of the Middle East are well documented the origins of the concept of the Middle East itself have been largely ignored With Dislocating the Orient Daniel Foliard tells the story of how the land was brought into being exploring how maps knowledge and blind ignorance all participated in the construction of this imagined region Foliard vividly illustrates how the British first defined the Middle East as a geopolitical and cartographic region in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries through their imperial maps Until then the region had never been clearly distinguished from the East or the Orient In the course of their colonial activities however the British began to conceive of the Middle East as a separate and distinct part of the world with consequences that continue to be felt today As they reimagined boundaries the British produced disputed and finally dramatically transformed the geography of the area both culturally and physically over the course of their colonial era Using a wide variety of primary texts and historical maps to show how the idea of the Middle East came into being Dislocating the Orient will interest historians of the Middle East the British empire cultural geography and cartography Protests as Events Ian R Lamond, Karl Spracklen, 2014-11-05 Can activism be considered a leisure activity Can the Occupy movement local campaigns for change and lone acts of personal resistance be understood as events Within the field of Events Management the content of events is generally analyzed within three categories culture sport or business Such a typology can be helpful as a heuristic for interpretation and analysis within a commercial paradigm However this framework overlooks and depoliticizes a significant variety of events those more accurately construed as protest Protests as Events is the first book to explore activism as a leisure activity and protests as events using a fresh interpretation of event to develop a new critical politics of events and leisure Bringing together a range of cutting edge research from around the world it explores a variety of protests through the lens of events studies and leisure in order to understand how the study of events management might be conceptualized in the protest space How Charts Lie Alberto Cairo, 2019-10-15 A leading data visualization expert explores the negative and positive influences that charts have on our perception of truth Today public conversations are increasingly driven by numbers While charts infographics and diagrams can make us smarter they can also deceive intentionally or unintentionally To be informed citizens we must all be able to decode and use the visual information that politicians journalists and even our employers present us with each day Demystifying an essential new literacy for our data driven world How Charts Lie examines contemporary examples ranging from election result infographics to global GDP maps and box office record charts as well as an updated afterword on the graphics of the COVID 19 pandemic General Studies Paper 1 & 2 IAS Prelims 9 Year-wise Solved Papers (2019 - 11) Disha Experts, 2019-09-02 After Piketty Heather Boushey, J. Bradford DeLong, Marshall Steinbaum, 2017-05-08 Are Thomas Piketty's analyses of inequality on target Where should researchers go from here in exploring the ideas he pushed to the forefront of global conversation In After Piketty a cast of economists and other social scientists tackle these questions in dialogue with Piketty in what is sure to be a much debated book in its own right Paperbound Books in Print, 1971-07 UPSC IAS Prelims Paper 1 & 2 General Studies 10 Year-wise Solved Papers (2020 - 11) 2nd Edition Disha Experts, The Routledge Companion to Planning in the Global South Gautam Bhan, Smita Srinivas, Vanessa Watson, 2017-09-11 The Routledge Companion to Planning in the Global South offers an edited collection on planning in parts of the world which more often than not are unrecognised or unmarked in mainstream planning texts In doing so its intention is not to fill a gap that leaves this mainstream unquestioned but to re theorise planning from a deep understanding of place as well as a commitment to recognise the diverse modes of practice that come within it The chapters thus take the form not of generalised universal analyses and prescriptions but instead are critical and located reflections in thinking about how to plan act and intervene in highly complex city regional and national contexts

Chapter authors in this Companion are not all planners or are planners of very different kinds and this diversity ensures a rich variety of insights primarily based on cases to emphasise the complexity of the world in which planning is expected to happen The book is divided into a framing Introduction followed by five sections planning and the state economy and economic actors new drivers of urban change landscapes of citizenship and planning pedagogy This volume will be of interest to all those wanting to explore the complexities of planning practice and the need for new theories of knowledge from which to draw insight to face the challenges of the 21st century

Islam on Campus Alison Scott-Baumann, Mathew Guest, Shuruq Naguib, Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor, Aisha Phoenix, 2020-10-16 Islam on Campus explores how Islam is represented perceived and lived within higher education in Britain It is a book about the changing nature of university life and the place of religion within it Even while many universities maintain ambiguous or affirming orientations to religious institutions for reasons to do with history and ethos much western scholarship has presumed higher education to be a strongly secularizing force This framing has resulted in religion often being marginalized or ignored as a cultural irrelevance by the university sector However recent times have seen higher education increasingly drawn into political discourses that problematize religion in general and Islam in particular as an object of risk Using the largest data set yet collected in the UK this book explores university life and the ways in which ideas about Islam and Muslim identities are produced experienced perceived appropriated and objectified It asks what role universities and Muslim higher education institutions play in the production reinforcement and contestation of emerging narratives about religious difference This is a culturally nuanced treatment of universities as sites of knowledge production and contexts for the negotiation of perspectives on culture and religion among an emerging generation It demonstrates the urgent need to release Islam from its official role as the othered the feared When universities achieve this we will be able to help students of all affiliations and of none to be citizens of the campus in preparation for being citizens of the world

Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1924 Politics and the Urban Frontier Tom Goodfellow, 2022-09-26 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International licence It is free to read on the Oxford Academic platform and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Despite the rise of global technocratic ideals of city making cities around the world are not merging into indistinguishable duplicates of one another In fact as the world urbanizes urban formations remain diverse in their socioeconomic and spatial characteristics with varying potential to foster economic development and social justice In this book Tom Goodfellow argues that these differences are primarily rooted in politics and if we continue to view cities as economic and technological projects to be managed rather than terrains of political bargaining and contestation the quest for better urban futures is doomed to fail Dominant critical approaches to urban development tend to explain difference with reference to the variegated impacts of neoliberal regulatory institutions This however neglects the multiple ways in which the wider politics of capital accumulation and distribution drive divergent forms of transformation in different urban places In order to unpack the politics that shapes differential urban development this book focuses on East Africa as the global urban frontier the least urbanized but fastest urbanizing region in the world Drawing on a decade of research spanning three case study countries Ethiopia Rwanda and Uganda Politics and the Urban Frontier provides the first sustained book length comparative analysis of urban development trajectories in Eastern Africa and the political dynamics that underpin them Through a focus on infrastructure investment urban propertyscapes street level trading economies and urban political protest it offers a multi scalar historically grounded and interdisciplinary analysis of the urban transformations unfolding in the world's most dynamic crucible of urban change

The Innovation Complex Sharon Zukin, 2020 New York is rapidly changing in response to a new economy but startups tech workers and venture capital are not visible unless you know where to look for them in old industrial neighborhoods on the waterfront and at events like hackathons and meetups In The Innovation Complex Sharon Zukin shows the people and places that shape the urban tech economy making cities more successful for businesses yet in some ways less livable The Oxford Handbook of Local Competitiveness David B. Audretsch, Albert N. Link, Mary Lindenstein Walshok, 2015 An analysis of what influences and shapes local competitiveness and what places can do to enhance their economic performance

Global Developments in Public Infrastructure Procurement Darrin Grimsey, Mervyn K. Lewis, 2017-11-24 There is widespread acceptance of the importance of infrastructure but less agreement about how it should be funded and procured While most public infrastructure is still provided in house or by traditional procurement methods with well researched strengths and weaknesses the development of service concession arrangements has seen a greater emphasis on lifecycle costing risk assessment and asset design as featured in a variety of public private partnership PPP delivery models This book examines the various procurement approaches and provides a framework for comparing their advantages and disadvantages Drawing on international experience it considers some of the best and worst examples of PPPs and infrastructure projects generally along with the lessons for improving infrastructure procurement processes Handbook of e-Tourism Zheng Xiang, Matthias Fuchs, Ulrike Gretzel, Wolfram Höpken, 2022-09-01 This handbook provides an authoritative and truly comprehensive overview both of the diverse applications of information and communication technologies ICTs within the travel and tourism industry and of e tourism as a field of scientific inquiry that has grown and matured beyond recognition Leading experts from around the world describe cutting edge ideas and developments present key concepts and theories and discuss the full range of research methods The coverage accordingly encompasses everything from big data and analytics to psychology user behavior online marketing supply chain and operations management smart business networks policy and regulatory issues and much much more The goal is to provide an outstanding reference that summarizes and synthesizes current knowledge and establishes the theoretical and methodological foundations for further study of the role of ICTs in travel and tourism The handbook will meet the needs of researchers and students in various disciplines as well as industry professionals As with all volumes in Springer's Major Reference Works program readers will benefit from access to a continually updated online version Resources in Education, 1984
