Trauma and

Grace, 2nd Edition Serene Jones, 2019-03-12 This substantive collection from noted scholar Serene Jones explores recent work in the field of trauma studies Central to its overall theme is an investigation of how individual and collective violence affect one's capacity to remember to act and to love how violence can challenge theological understandings of grace and even how the traumatic experience of Jesus' death is remembered Jones focuses on the long term effects of collective violence on abuse survivors war veterans and marginalized populations and the discrete ways in which grace and redemption may be exhibited in each context At the heart of each essay are two deeply interrelated faith claims that are central to Jones' understanding of Christian theology 1 We live in a world profoundly broken by violence and 2 God loves this world and desires that suffering be met by words of hope love and grace This timely and relevant cutting edge book is the first trauma study to directly take into account theological issues The Living Age, 1863 Littell's Living Age Eliakim Littell, Robert S. Littell, 1863 Video Rating Guide for Libraries, 1992 The Living Church, 1980 African Americans and the Bible Vincent L. Wimbush, 2012-09-01 Perhaps no other group of people has been as much formed by biblical texts and tropes as African Americans From literature and the arts to popular culture and everyday life the Bible courses through black society and culture like blood through veins Despite the enormous recent interest in African American religion relatively little attention has been paid to the diversity of ways in which African Americans have utilized the Bible African Americans and the Bible is the fruit of a four year collaborative research project directed by Vincent L Wimbush and funded by the Lilly Endowment It brings together scholars and experts sixty eight in all from a wide range of academic and artistic fields and disciplines including ethnography cultural history and biblical studies as well as art music film dance drama and literature The focus is on the interaction between the people known as African Americans and that complex of visions rhetorics and ideologies known as the Bible As such the book is less about the meanings of the Bible than about the Bible and meanings less about the worlds of the Bible than about how worlds and the Bible interact in short about how a text constructs a people and a people constructs a text It is about a particular sociocultural formation but also about the dynamics that obtain in the interrelation between any group of people and sacred texts in general Thus African Americans and the Bible provides an exemplum of sociocultural formation and a critical lens through which the process of sociocultural formation can be viewed Super Sunday school sourcebook David Cook, 1994-12-12 Littell's Living Age, 1863 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
