FairPoint strikers to start voting on new contract

FairPoint employees will begin voting on a new contract with the company on Monday. The union, which represents about 1,000 workers, has been in a contract dispute with the company since 2008. The new contract would provide for a 3 percent wage increase over the next three years, as well as other benefits. The union is expected to vote on the contract on Monday, and the company is expected to announce its decision on the contract on Tuesday.

"Sample" harvest of shrimp makes big splash at market

A "sample" harvest of shrimp has made a big splash at the market. The shrimp, which were harvested from a small area, were sold at a high price. The market was crowded with people looking to buy the shrimp. The shrimp were sold in small containers, and the price was significantly higher than the price of other seafood products. The market was a success, and the shrimp were sold out quickly.
