Poulenc Les Chemins De Lamour:

The Music of Francis Poulenc (1899-1963) Carl B. Schmidt, 1995-10-19 The name of Francis Poulenc 1899 1963 was first brought to prominence in the 1920s as a member of Les Six a group of young French composers encouraged by Satie and Cocteau His subsequent fame spread well beyond France and he is coming to be regarded as one of this century's most significant composers His compositions are heard constantly in concert halls the world over and numerous recordings including complete sets of songs and piano music have been released Books articles and more than a dozen doctoral dissertations have discussed his music Carl Schmidt's catalogue of Poulenc's works represents the first comprehensive attempt to list an oeuvre which numbers approximately 185 compositions written from his teenage years until his death at the age of 63 The Catalogue identifies a number of unpublished works and adds a small group of compositions to his musical canon for the first time Each work whether complete or unfinished published or unpublished is described fully Catalogue entries list and describe all known printed editions including reprints and manuscript copies of each work In addition they provide detailed compositional histories based on numerous letters documents and press accounts many of which have not been published previously Russian interest in Poulenc's music manifested in press runs exceeding one million copies is also revealed for the first time

The Mélodies of Francis Poulenc Alissa Deeter, Robert Peavler, 2013-12-12 An acknowledged master of melody Francis Poulenc's prolific song oeuvre exceeds the collections of all other French composers who wrote in this genre Yet despite Poulenc's prolific output and its significance to art song repertoire few volumes dedicated to study of Poulenc's works have appeared in print This text offers a theory on the marginalized popularity of Poulenc's songs and strategies for their study that can assist performers in their appreciation and interpretation of his work The Melodies of Francis Poulenc is the first work to contain the complete collection of Poulenc's song compositions providing IPA transcriptions and word for word translations in an easy reference format Also included are the highly regarded poetic translations of Winifred Radford In their introduction to the songs Deeter and Peavler formulate a methodology for the proper interpretation and study of the Poulenc's works Finally this work features a musical terms index select discography of downloadable sound files and a song title index Teachers of singing vocal coaches professional singers accompanists and students of art song will find the The Melodies of Francis Poulenc an invaluable tool for the study and instruction of Poulenc's songs
