Poverty Creek Journal Tupelo Press S Life In Art:

Poverty Creek Journal Thomas Gardner, 2022-12-28 The achievement of Poverty Creek Journal is precisely that it does retrace that kind of wandering and in so doing makes something lovely and meaningful of a difficult year Gardner does not go in for pat analogies he does not claim as Camus once did about soccer that running taught him everything about death Nor does he go in for pat consolation His journal does not so much end as stop as if he has simply not yet risen for the next morning s run Kathryn Schulz New Yorker This is one of the most beautifully rendered pieces about running I ve encountered under fifty pages On the surface Poverty Creek Journal is a daily running log in lyric prose but it soon offers a meditation on the articulable nature of the human experience After the narrator suddenly loses his brother we follow his thoughts through nature his mind wandering to integrate the strength and frailty of the body as he runs Gardner s luminous insights on running are often breathtaking He likens running to half sleep when you re awake in a way but aware of dreams passing in a kind of un retraceable wandering the turning colors passing through me no real way to put any of this into numbers mile after mile streaming through me We escape with Gardner away from the finitude of miles and the illusion of stasis through his will to observe and gradually integrate loss into his body Jaclyn Gilbert LitHub E ach year I turned my attention again to Poverty Creek Journal listening closely to Gardner s prose to understand better what I was striving for in my own work Only recently did I start to realize that what he d achieved in his writing didn t mean I was an inadequate writer but rather that I d found a partner of sorts someone whose work I could converse with through my own work Joe Demes Meter Magazine Thomas Gardner lives and teaches in Blacksburg Virginia on the edge of the Jefferson National Forest The American Educator Daniel Garrison Brinton, Marcus Benjamin, 1897 AB Bookman's Weekly , 1994 Charles Burchfield's Journals Charles Burchfield, 1993 pages by J Benjamin Townsend What a great event the edited and annotated journals of Burchfield Brilliantly edited from 72 bound notebooks comprising some 10 000 1893 1967 the preeminent American watercolorist and painter of nature complemented by 41 color plates and 131 bandw illustrations And what a journal Burchfield s intelligence sensitivity spirituality revealed in notes on activities sketching trips nature observations personal encounters literature and music artistic growth and religious conflict Beginning with the summer before his third year of high school and continuing up to nine months before his death the journals constitute a huge 20th century spiritual autobiography Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
