

The information herein is used to determine the Adequacy Study Region designated for your school. A school is designated as the serving LEP if any student is determined to be at risk. The Student Achievement and Student Participation ratings are based on 2008-2009 year 7-12th Grade Language Assessments for the students in your school division as entered for a full academic year. The standards goal for the percentage of students expected to meet or exceed standards is 60% in English/Language Arts and 50% in Mathematics. Student Participation is expected to be 60% or greater. The standards goal for the percent graduation rate is 80%. The adequate goal for the relative attendance rate is 80%. For more information, please see Appendix B.

The Oregon Department of Education is proud to share the health screen report report card. As Oregon schools and districts continue to face safety challenges, education remains committed to providing the highest quality education for Oregon students. This year you will see two ratings displayed on the report card. An Oregon rating and a federal rating required by the law (34 CFR 200.60a). The report card is not meant to tell you everything about your school, but it offers a starting point for discussions about where improvement might be needed and for celebrating successes in education for Oregon students.

Portland Oregon School Report Cards:

Report Cards Wade H. Morris, 2023-09-26 This book tells the story of American education by examining this unique element of student life The author shows the evolution of how teachers students parents and administrators responded to report cards Report cards he shows were more than just a means by which a school documented each student s deportment academic standing and attendance They were a tool of control a microcosm for the changing power dynamics between teachers parents and students A Parents' Guide to Grading and Reporting Matt Townsley, Chad Lang, 2023-09-15

Whether resulting from the educational fallout of the COVID 19 global pandemic or merely challenging the status quo more schools are transitioning their grading practices away from traditional points and percentages and toward 21st century grading practices such as standards based and proficiency based grading A Parents Guide to Grading and Reporting Being Clear about What Matters assists parents and guardians in understanding what is involved in 21st century grading and how to become better partners with educators in efforts to understand students strengths and areas for improvement The Writing Report Card, 1984-88 Arthur N. Applebee, 1990 Based on two national assessments of the writing proficiency of representative samples of students in grades 4 8 and 11 conducted during the school years ending in 1984 and 1988 this report assesses the informative persuasive and imaginative writing performance of the nation s students and tracks changes in performance over time The first three chapters of the report describe student performance on the informative persuasive and imaginative writing tasks included in the writing trend assessments based on the results of the primary trait and holistic analyses The fourth chapter summarizes trends in average task accomplishment for the nation and various demographic subpopulations In the fifth chapter trends in students grammar punctuation and spelling are discussed The sixth chapter discusses factors that appear to be related to writing performance such as students instructional experiences and home environment The report concludes that despite some progress on some tasks students writing performance across tasks remains low and has changed little across time The report also finds that the extent to which students at all grade levels value writing use it in their own lives and engage in writing process activities remains quite limited A procedural appendix and an appendix of data are attached RS Oregon Teachers' Monthly , 1913 America's Failing Schools W.
