Economic and Monetary Sovereignty in 21st Century Africa Maha Ben Gadha, Fadhel Kaboub, Kai Koddenbrock, Ines Mahmoud, Ndongo Samba Sylla, 2021-12-20 Over forty years after the formal end of colonialism suffocating ties to Western financial systems continue to prevent African countries from achieving any meaningful monetary sovereignty

Economic and Monetary Sovereignty in 21st Century Africa traces the recent history of African monetary and financial dependencies looking at the ways African nations are resisting colonial legacies Using a comparative multi disciplinary approach this book uncovers what went wrong after the Pan African approaches that defined the early stages of independence and how most African economies fell into the firm grip of the IMF World Bank and the EU s strict neoliberal policies This collection is the first to offer a wide ranging comparative and historical look at how African societies have attempted to increase their policy influence and move beyond neoliberal orthodoxy and US dollar dependency Economic and Monetary Sovereignty in 21st Century Africa is essential reading for anyone interested in the African quest for self determination in a turbulent world of recurring economic and financial crisis Financial Inclusion Regulatory Practices in SADC Howard Chitimira,Tapiwa Warikandwa,2023-05-25 Against a background of calls to prioritise the improvement of financial inclusion in Africa this book provides an analysis of current financial inclusion measures in Southern Africa Evaluating the existing strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion in Africa it identifies opportunities to improve inclusive financial services and aid poverty reduction in the region With a focus on South Africa Namibia Botswana and Zimbabwe as case studies for assessing current financial inclusion in the context of particular challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cybercriminals due to low levels of digital literacy it looks into the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in Southern Africa The book explores financial inclusion in the context of digital transformation in the 21st century examining the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the context of digital transformation as well as the challenges related to financial inclusion Suggesting improvements to aspects of company law securities and financial markets in the Southern African Development Community region the book offers a comprehensive study on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the Southern African Development Community region It will be essential reading for students and academics researching financial inclusion international economic law and development Competition Law and Economic Regulation in Southern Africa Imraan Valodia,Jonathan Klaaren,Simon Roberts,2017-07-04 Shaping markets through competition and economic regulation is at the heart of addressing the development challenges facing countries in southern Africa The contributors to Competition Law and Economic Regulation Addressing Market Power in southern Africa critically assess the efficacy of the competition and economic regulation frameworks including the impact of a number of the regional competition authorities in a range of sectors throughout southern Africa Featuring academics as well as practitioners in the field the book addresses issues common to southern African countries where markets are small and concentrated with particularly high barriers to entry and where the resources to enforce legislation against anti competitive conduct are limited What is needed the contributors argue is an understanding of competition and regional integration as part of an inclusive growth agenda for Africa By examining competition and regulation in a single framework and viewing this within the southern African experience this volume adds new perspectives to the global competition literature It is an essential reference tool and will be of great interest to policymakers and regulators as well as the rapidly growing ecosystem of legal practitioners and economists engaged in the field
