Political Bodies Body Politic The Semiotics Of Gender:

Political Bodies/Body Politic Darlene M. Juschka, 2014-12-05 Political Bodies Body Politic draws on feminism gender studies and queer theory to examine how myth symbol and ritual express belief systems The book explores the operation of gender in a variety of social and historical contexts ranging from feminist speculative fiction and systems of belief to popular culture and ancient historical texts Political Bodies Body Politic makes an original contribution to religious and feminist studies in its examination of gender in human communication and belief systems

An Epistemology of Religion and Gender Ulrike E. Auga, 2020-03-26 This book puts forward a new epistemological framework for a theory of religion and gender's role in the public sphere It provides a sophisticated understanding of gender and its relation to religion as a primarily performative category of knowledge production rooting that understanding in case studies from around the world Gender and religion are examined alongside biopolitics and the influence of capitalism neoliberalism and empire The book analyses the interdependence of religion gender and new nationalisms in the Palestinian territories South Africa and the USA scrutinising the biopolitical interferences of nation states and dominant political and religious institutions It then moves on to uncover counter discourses and spaces of activism and agency in contexts such as East Germany and the Occupy Wall Street movement Using gender queer and trans theory in tandem with postcolonial and post secular perspectives readers are shown a more nuanced understanding of critical contemporary questions related to religion gender and sexuality This is a bold new take on religion gender and public life As such it will be of keen interest to scholars of Religious Studies and Gender Studies as well as those working on religion's interaction with Politics Sociology and Social Activism

The Oxford Handbook of the Study of Religion Michael Stausberg, Steven Engler, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of the Study of Religions provides a comprehensive overview of the academic study of religions Written by an international team of leading scholars its fifty one chapters are divided thematically into seven sections The first section addresses five major conceptual aspects of research on religion Part two surveys eleven main frameworks of analysis interpretation and explanation of religion Reflecting recent turns in the humanities and social sciences part three considers eight forms of the expression of religion Part four provides a discussion of the ways societies and religions or religious organizations are shaped by different forms of allocation of resources i e economy Other chapters in this section consider law the media nature medicine politics science sports and tourism Part five reviews important developments distinctions and arguments for each of the selected topics The study of religion addresses religion as a historical phenomenon and part six looks at seven historical processes Religion is studied in various ways by many disciplines and this Handbook shows that the study of religion is an academic discipline in its own right The disciplinary profile of this volume is reflected in part seven which considers the history of the discipline and its relevance Each chapter in the Handbook references at least two different religions to provide fresh and innovative perspectives on key issues in the field This authoritative collection will advance the state of the discipline and is an invaluable reference for students and scholars Theory and Method in the Study of Religion ,2013-09-26 Theory and Method are two words that cause considerable consternation in the academic study of religion Although everyone claims to be aware of and to engage them the fact of the matter is that they remain poorly understood Some see the terms as irritants that get in the way of data interpretation and translation Others may invoke them sporadically to appear in vogue but then return quickly and myopically to their material and with little concern for the larger issues that such terms raise To contribute to these debates the present volume reproduces select articles from Method and Theory in the Study of Religion MTSR from the first 25 volumes of the journal and allows a group of younger scholars to introduce and review them asking if the issues raised are still relevant to the field Contributors include Matt Sheedy Robert A Segal James B Apple Neil McMullin Rebekka King Russell McCutcheon Craig Martin Donal Wiebe Emma Cohen Robert N McCauley E Thomas Lawson Steven Engler Mark Q Gardiner Bruce Lincoln Sarah E Rollens Burton Mack Yasmin Merchant Herb Bergh Jennifer Hall Darlene Juschka Ella Paldam and Armin Geertz Feministing in Political Science Alana Cattapan,Ethel Tungohan,Nisha Nath,Fiona MacDonald,Stephanie Paterson,2024-06-06 Feministing in Political Science examines what is at stake in contesting the boundaries of the contemporary university This critique of mainstream Canadian political science pushes beyond typical studies of institutions and political life Instead the collection draws together personal essays pedagogical interventions dialogues and original research to reflect on how feministing as an orientation and as an analytic can centre experiential knowledge and reshape our understandings of political science Collectively these contributions lay bare the ways that power moves in and through the academy naming the impacts on those who are most structurally precarious all while pointing to futures available to us through refusal solidarity and hope Contributors Yasmeen Abu Laban Julianne M Acker Verney Kelly Aguirre Jeanette Ashe Nicole S Bernhardt Amanda Bittner Alana Cattapan Elaine Coburn Jamilah A Y Dei Sharpe Rita Kaur Dhamoon Alexandra Dobrowolsky Nick Dorzweiler Tammy Findlay Mariam Georgis Emily Grafton Joyce Green Genevieve Fuji Johnson Kiera L Ladner Lindsay Larios Manon Laurent Fiona MacDonald April Mandrona Kimberley Ens Manning Sarah Munawar Nisha Nath Michael Orsini Stephanie Paterson Tka C Pinnock David Semaan Gina Starblanket Heidi Kiiwetinepinesiik Stark Melanee Thomas Reeta Chowdhari Tremblay Ethel Tungohan Nadia Verrelli Leah F Vosko and Chamindra Weerawardhana The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion John Hinnells,2009-09-10 The Routledge Companion to the Study of Religion is a major resource for courses in Religious Studies It begins by explaining the most important methodological approaches to religion including psychology philosophy anthropology and comparative study before moving on to explore a wide variety of critical issues such as gender science fundamentalism ritual and new religious movements Written by renowned international specialists this new edition includes eight new chapters including post structuralism religion and economics religion and the environment religion and popular culture and sacred space surveys the history of religious studies and the key disciplinary approaches explains why the study of religion is relevant in today s world

Failure and Nerve in the Academic Study of Religion William E. Arnal, Willi Braun, Russell T. McCutcheon, 2014-09-11 Failure and Nerve in the Academic Study of Religion presents a provocative critique of the unwillingness of modern scholars to publically distinguish research into comparative religion from confessional studies written within denominationally affiliated institutions The book offers the 19th Century founders of the study of religion as a bracing corrective to contemporary timidity The issue was analysed and documented by Wiebe a quarter of a century ago Here marking Wiebe s work a wide range of contributors reassess the methodology and ambition of contemporary religious research The book argues that conceptualizing religion as part of the world of human action and experience is the first requirement of the study of religion

Discourse Research and Religion Jay Johnston, Kocku von Stuckrad, 2020-11-09 The discursive study of religion is a growing field that attracts increasing numbers of students and researchers from a wide variety of disciplinary backgrounds This volume is the first systematic presentation of the research into religion and discourse Written by experts from various disciplines each chapter offers an integrative overview of theory method and contextual studies by focusing on a specific approach interdisciplinary relationship controversy or theme in the field Taking the discursive dimension in the production of knowledge seriously the book also provides a critical analysis of academic practice and explores new forms of scholarly communication including open peer review The collected volume will appeal to scholars and postgraduate students across a variety of disciplines including religious studies history of religion sociology of religion discourse studies cultural studies and area studies

Demystifying the Big House Katherine A Foss, 2018-07-06 Essays in this volume illustrate how shows such as Orange Is the New Black and Oz impact the public s perception of crime rates the criminal justice system and imprisonment Contributors look at prison wives on reality television series portrayals of death row breastfeeding while in prison transgender prisoners and black masculinity They also examine the ways in which media messages ignore an individual s struggle against an all too frequently biased system and instead dehumanize the incarcerated as violent and overwhelmingly masculine Together these essays argue media reform is necessary for penal reform proposing that more accurate media representations of prison life could improve public support for programs dealing with poverty abuse and drug addiction factors that increase the likelihood of criminal activity and incarceration Scholars from cultural and critical studies feminist studies queer studies African American studies media studies sociology and psychology offer critical analysis of media depictions of prison bridging the media s portrayals of incarcerated lives with actual experiences and bringing to light forgotten voices in prison narratives

The Sacred Is the Profane William Arnal, Russell T. McCutcheon, 2013 The Sacred Is the Profane collects nine essays written over several years by William Arnal and Russell T McCutcheon that share a convergent perspective not simply that both the category and concept religion is a construct something that we cannot assume to be natural or universal but also that the ability to think and act religiously is quite specifically a modern political category in its origins and effects the mere by product of the modern state These collected essays substantially rewritten for this volume advance current scholarly debates on secularism debates which the authors argue insufficiently theorize the sacred secular church state and private public binaries by presupposing religion often under the guise of such terms as religiosity faith or spirituality to historically precede the nation state The essays return again and again to the question of what religion word and concept accomplishes now for those who employ it whether at the popular political or scholarly level The focus here for two writers from seemingly different fields is on the efficacy costs and the tactical work carried out by dividing the world between religious and political church and state sacred and profane

Religion, Theory, Critique Richard King, 2017-07-18 Religion Theory Critique is an essential tool for learning about theory and method in the study of religion Leading experts engage with contemporary and classical theories as well as non Western cultural contexts Unlike other collections this anthology emphasizes the dynamic relationship between religion as an object of study and different methodological approaches and openly addresses the question of the manifold ways in which religion secular and culture are imagined within different disciplinary horizons This volume is the first textbook which seeks to engage discussion of classical approaches with contemporary cultural and critical theories Contributors write on the influence of the natural sciences in the study of religion the role of European Christianity in modeling theories of religion religious experience and the interface with cognitive science the structure and function of religious language the social scientific study of religion ritual in religion the phenomenology of religion critical theory and religion embodiment and religion the impact of colonialism and modernity theorizing religion in terms of race and ethnicity links among religion nationalism and globalization the interplay of gender sex and religion and religion and the environment Each chapter introduces the topic identifies key theorists and issues and respects the pluralistic nature of the scholarship in the field Altogether this collection scrutinizes the explicit and implicit assumptions theorists make about religion as an object of analysis

Women in Sports Adrienne N. Milner, Jomills Henry Braddock II, 2017-07-28 Covering a breadth of topics surrounding the current state of women in sports this two volume collection taps current events sociological and feminist theory and recent research to contextualize women s experiences in sports within a patriarchal society and highlight areas for improvement Women are continuing to break barriers in all aspects of sports and a growing number of people are beginning to recognize sex disparities in sports as a social problem Additionally women s inclusion and exclusion in sports and their equitable and inequitable treatment on the playing field have large scale social legal health and economic consequences Women in Sports Breaking Barriers Facing Obstacles comprehensively examines the state of women in sports by considering current events controversies and trends as well as qualitative and quantitative research The contributors to this volume take a sociological approach to discussing women in sports by questioning dominant assumptions surrounding notions of women s biological athletic inferiority and by examining other social constructs that affect women s experiences in sports such as race and ethnicity socioeconomic status and sexual orientation The book offers a complete and up to date account of women s experiences in sports through coverage of the history of women s participation in sports with a focus on exceptional female athletes and of the increasing number of women who are competing in traditionally male sports such as football baseball and mixed martial arts Readers will come away with a greater appreciation for the issues of equity that women face both within the world of sports and in society in general [] With Design: Reinventing Design Modes Gerhard Bruyns,Huaxin Wei,2022-11-05 This collection stems from the International Association of Societies of Design Research IASDR congress in 2021 promoting the research of design in its many fields of application Today s design finds itself at a critical moment where the conventional modes of doing thinking and application are increasingly challenged by the troubled ideology of globalisation climate change migration patterns and the rapid restructuring of locally driven manufacturing sectors The volume presents a selection of papers on state of the art design research work As rapid technological development has been pushing and breaking new ground in society the broad field of design is facing many unprecedented changes In combination with the environmental cultural technological and crucially pandemic transitions design at large is called to fundamentally alter its modes of practice Beyond the conventional models of conducting research or developing solutions to wicked problems the recoupling of design with different modes should be seen as an expression to embrace other capacities of thinking criticisms and productions This selection of proceedings papers delivers the latest insights into design from a multitude of perspectives as reflected in the eight thematic modes of the congress i e social making business critical historical projective impact pandemic and alternative with design modes The book benefits design researchers from both academia and industry who are interested in the latest design research results as well as in innovative design research methods In presenting an interesting corpus of design case studies as well as studies of design impact this comprehensive collection is of relevance to design theorists and students as well as scholars in related fields seeking to understand how design plays a critical role in their respective domains The Missionary, the Catechist and the Hunter Christina Petterson,2014-05-08 The Missionary the Catechist and the Hunter examines the role of Protestantism in the Danish colonization of Greenland and shows how the process of colonization entails a process of subjectification where the identity of indigenous population is transformed The figure of the hunter commonly regarded as quintessential Inuit figure is traced back to the efforts of the Greenlandic intelligentsia to distance themselves from the hunting lifestyle by producing an abstract hunter identity in Greenlandic literature New Books on Women, Gender and Feminism ,2010 The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Love, Courtship, & Sexuality Through History: The modern world James W. Howell,2008 Sex and love are central to daily life and to all nations Despite the universality of these sentiments their expression is largely shaped by the cultures in which they occur This set explores sex love and culture around the world and across time Dance and the Body Politic in Northern Greece Jane K. Cowan,2016-09-29 Valued for their sensual and social intensity Greek dance events are often also problematical for participants giving rise to struggles over position prestige and reputation Here Jane Cowan explores how the politics of gender is articulated through the body at these culturally central yet until now ethnographically neglected celebrations in a class divided northern Greek town Portraying the dance event as both a highly structured and dynamic social arena she approaches the human body not only as a sign to be deciphered but as a site of experience and an agent of practice In describing the multiple ideologies of person gender and community that townspeople embody and explore as they dance Cowan presents three different settings the traditional wedding procession the Europeanized formal evening dance of local civic associations and the private party She examines the practices of eating drinking talking gifting and dancing and the verbal discourse through which celebrants make sense of each other's actions Paying particular attention to points of tension and moments of misunderstanding she analyzes in what ways these social situations pose different problems for men and women
