Selves in Question Judith Lutge Coullie, Stephan Meyer, Thengani H. Ngwenya, Thomas Olver, 2006-05-31 Wide ranging and engaging Selves in Question considers the various ways in which auto biographical accounts situate and question the self in contemporary southern Africa. The twenty seven interviews presented here consider both the ontological status and the representation of the self. They remind us that the self is constantly under construction in webs of interlocution and that its status and representation are always in question. The contributors therefore look at ways in which auto biographical practices contribute to placing understanding and troubling the self and selves in postcolonies in the current global constellation. They examine topics such as the contexts conducive to production processes, the contents and forms of auto biographical accounts and finally their impact on the producers and the audience. In doing so they map out a multitude of variables including the specific historical juncture, geo political locations, social positions, cultures, languages, generations and genders in their relations to auto biographical practices. Those interviewed include the famous and the hardly known women and men writers and performers who communicate in a variety of languages: Afrikaans, English, Xhosa, isiZulu, Sesotho and Yiddish. An extensive introduction offers a general framework on the contestation of self through auto biography, a historical overview of auto biographical representation in South Africa up to the present time, an outline of theoretical and thematic issues at stake in southern Africa, auto biography and extensive primary and secondary biographies. Interviewees: Breyten Breytenbach, Dennis Brutus, Valentine Cascarino, Vanitha Chetty, Wilfred Cibane, Greig Coetzee, J M Coetzee, Paul Faber, David Goldblatt, Stephen Gray, Dorian Haarhoff, Rayda Jacobs, Elsa Joubert, K Limakatso, Kendall Ester Lee, Doris Lessing, Sindiwe Magona, Margaret McCord, N Chabani Manganyi, Zolani Mkiva, Jonathan Morgan, Es'kia Mphahlele, Rob Nixon, Mpho Nthunya, Robert Scott, Gillian Slovo, Alex J Thembela, Pieter Dirk Uys, Johan van Wyk, Wilhelm Verwoerd, David Wolpe, D L P Yali Manisi. Literêre terme en teorie is alfabeties gerangskik volgens hoofwoorde van Abele spel tot Wetenskapsfiksie. A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18. This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards. Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems, plays and prose works in five literary traditions: Khoisan, Nguni, Sotho, Afrikaans, English and Indian. The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi, Marais and Campbell to Butler, Serote and Krog; theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda; and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee. The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa, notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom, the Colenso crisis, industrialisation, the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood s study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world The Institutionalisation of Disaster Risk Reduction Gideon van Riet,2016-12-01 The past three decades have seen a global shift in disaster management from an event driven response to a could be risk management approach Disaster risk reduction DRR has become entrenched as a dominant paradigm within the field of disaster management More than a decade after adopting DRR legislation in South Africa there remains a dearth of evidence that this has translated into substantive action This book examines the institutionalisation of DRR in South Africa conceived of as a political economy of knowledge production Using a critical theory approach the book does not consider why DRR is failing but instead asks why DRR As such it explores possibilities beyond DRR s narrow optic and offers new insights into disaster management through the lens of South Africa This is valuable reading for graduate students and academics working in disaster studies geography public policy and development post development studies as well as policy makers Renaissance Drama 38 William N. West,2010-08-31 Renaissance Drama an annual interdisciplinary publication is devoted to drama and performance as a central feature of Renaissance culture The essays in each volume explore the traditional canon of drama the significance of performance broadly construed to early modern culture and the impact of new forms of interpretation on the study of Renaissance plays theater and performance Volume 38 includes essays that explore topics in early modern drama ranging from Shakespeare s Jewish questions in The Merchant of Venice and the gender of rhetoric in Shakespeare s sonnets and Jonson s plays to improvisation in the commedia dell arte and the rebirth of tragedy in 1940 Germany Saturday Review ,1876 Print, Text and Book Cultures in South Africa Andrew van der Vlies,2012-09-01 An explanation of the unique role of the book and book collecting in South Africa due to the apartheid This book explores the power of print and the politics of the book in South Africa from a range of disciplinary perspectives historical bibliographic literary critical sociological and cultural studies The essays collected here by leading international scholars address a range of topics as varied as the role of print cultures in contests over the nature of the colonial public sphere in the nineteenth century orthography iimbongi orature and the canon book collecting and libraries print and transnationalism Indian Ocean cosmopolitanisms books in war how the fates of South African texts locally and globally have been affected by their material instantiations photocomics and other ephemera censorship during and after apartheid books about art and books as art local academic publishing and the challenge of book history for literary and cultural criticism in contemporary South Africa The Best of Company Pat Schwartz,1988 English Revenge Drama Linda Woodbridge,2010-09-16 Vengeance permeates English Renaissance drama for example it crops up in all but two of Shakespeare s plays This book explores why a supposedly forgiving Christian culture should have relished such bloodthirsty vengeful plays A clue lies in the plays passion for fairness a preoccupation suggesting widespread resentment of systemic unfairness legal economic political and social Revengers precise equivalents the father of two beheaded sons obliges his enemy to eat her two sons heads are vigilante versions of Elizabethan law where penalties suit the crimes thieves hands were cut off scolds tongues bridled The revengers language of paying hints at the operation of revenge in the service of economic redress Revenge makes contact with resistance theory justifying overthrow of tyrants and some revengers challenge the fundamental inequity of social class Woodbridge demonstrates how for all their sensationalism their macabre comedy and outlandish gore Renaissance revenge plays do some serious cultural work      The Saturday Review of Politics,
