ICTES 2018 Robbi Rahim, Kadek Suranata, Ildil Ildil, Itsar Bolo Rangka, 2019-03-13 The technical program of The First ICTES 2018 consisted of 114 full papers. Aside from the high quality technical paper presentations we also held workshop and clinic manuscript that was carried out before the main track aims to strengthen the ability to write scientific publications. Coordination with the steering chairs Dr Kadek Suranata S Pd M Pd Kons and the members of organizing committee is essential for the success of the conference. We sincerely appreciate all the Advisory Boards for the constant support and guidance. It was also a great pleasure to work with such an excellent organizing committee team for their hard work in organizing and supporting the conference. In particular the Scientific Committee led by Cand Dr Robbi Rahim M Kom have completed the peer review process of technical papers and made a high quality technical program. We are also grateful to Students Conference chairs were leading by Ida Ayu Made Diah Paramiswari for their support and all the authors who submitted their papers to the First ICTES 2018. We strongly believe that ICTES conference provides a good forum for all academicians, researchers and practitioners to discuss all Educational science and technology aspects that are relevant to issues and challenge for sustainability in the 4th industrial revolution. We also expect that the future ICTES conference will be as successful and stimulating as indicated by the contributions presented in this volume.

Teaching Climate Change to Children Rebecca Woodard, Kristine M. Schutz, 2024 Replete with classroom examples this book demonstrates that young children pre K 6 are capable of learning about climate change that climate change and social justice are inextricable from each other and that literacy instruction is well suited to this work. The authors take an emotionally affirming stance and examine the potential of incorporating arts based methods.

Superminds Thomas W. Malone, 2018-05-15 From the founding director of the MIT Center for Collective Intelligence comes a fascinating look at the remarkable capacity for intelligence exhibited by groups of people and computers working together. If you're like most people you probably believe that humans are the most intelligent animals on our planet. But there's another kind of entity that can be far smarter: groups of people. In this groundbreaking book Thomas Malone the founding director of the MIT Center for Collective Intelligence shows how groups of people working together in superminds like hierarchies, markets, democracies and communities have been responsible for almost all human achievements in business, government, science and beyond. And these collectively intelligent human groups are about to get much smarter. Using dozens of striking examples and case studies Malone shows how computers can help create more intelligent superminds simply by connecting humans to one another in a variety of rich new ways. And although it will probably happen more gradually than many people expect, artificially intelligent computers will amplify the power of these superminds by doing increasingly complex kinds of thinking. Together these changes will have far reaching implications for everything from the way we buy groceries and plan business strategies to how we respond to climate change and even for democracy itself. By understanding how these collectively intelligent groups work we can learn how to harness their genius to achieve our human goals Drawing on cutting edge science and insights from a remarkable range of disciplines Superminds articulates a bold and utterly fascinating picture of the future that will change the ways you work and live both with other people and with computers
