

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a sunset. The sun is a bright, glowing orb positioned slightly to the left of the center, partially obscured by the branches of a large, dark tree. The sky is a deep orange, and the sun's light reflects on the calm surface of a body of water in the foreground. Several other trees are silhouetted against the sky, their forms dark and intricate. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Evolution's Empress Maryanne L. Fisher,Justin R. Garcia,Rosemarie Sokol Chang,2013-01-30 Over the last decade there has been increasing debate as to whether feminism and evolutionary psychology can co exist Such debates often conclude with a resounding no often on the grounds that the former is a political movement while the latter is a field of scientific inquiry In the midst of these debates there has been growing dissatisfaction within the field of evolutionary psychology about the way the discipline and others have repeatedly shown women to be in passive roles when it comes to survival and reproduction Evolutionary behavioral research has made significant strides in the past few decades but continues to take for granted many theoretical assumption that are perhaps in light of the most recent evidence misguided As a result the research community has missed important areas of research and in some cases will likely come to inaccurate conclusions based on existing dogma rather than rigorous theoretically driven research Bias in the field of evolutionary psychology echoes the complaints against the political movement attached to academic feminisms This is an intellectual squabble where much is at stake including a fundamental understanding of the evolutionary significance of women's roles in culture mothering reproductive health and physiology mating female alliances female aggression and female intrasexual competition Evolution's Empress identifies women as active agents within the evolutionary process The chapters in this volume focus on topics as diverse as female social interactions mate competition and mating strategies motherhood women's health sex differences in communication and motivation sex discrimination and women in literature The volume editors bring together a diverse range of perspectives to demonstrate ways in which evolutionary approaches to human behavior have thus far been too limited By reconsidering the role of women in evolution this volume furthers the goal of generating dialogue between the realms of women's studies and evolutionary psychology

Interpretation and Its Objects Andreea Deciu Ritivoi, 2003 This volume collects twenty one original essays that discuss Michael Krausz's distinctive and provocative contribution to the theory of interpretation At the beginning of the book Krausz offers a synoptic review of his central claims and he concludes with a substantive essay that replies to scholars from the United States England Germany India Japan and Australia Krausz's philosophical work centers around a distinction that divides interpreters of cultural achievements into two groups

Singularists assume that for any object of interpretation only one single admissible interpretation can exist. Multiplists assume that for some objects of interpretation more than one interpretation is admissible. A central question concerns the ontological entanglements involved in interpretive activity. Domains of application include works of art and music as well as literary, historical, legal, and religious texts. Further topics include truth, commissions, ethnocentrism, and interpretations across cultures.

A Successful Novel Must Be in Want of a Sequel M. Carmen Gomez-Galisteo, 2018-04-13

What happened after Mr Darcy married Elizabeth Bennet in Pride and Prejudice? Where did Heathcliff go when he disappeared in Wuthering Heights? What social ostracism would Hester Prynne of The Scarlet Letter have faced in 20th century America? Great novels often leave behind great questions and sequels seek to answer them. This critical analysis offers fresh insights into the sequels to seven literary classics including Jane Austen's Sense and Sensibility, the Brontë sisters' Jane Eyre, Louisa May Alcott's Little Women, and Daphne du Maurier's Rebecca.
