

Black Queer Radical Books

Prisoner Reentry and Social Capital Angela J. Hattery, Earl Smith, 2010-05-26 If you do the crime you gotta do the time This adage reflects the overall attitude most Americans have about crime and the criminal justice system Implicit in this adage is the notion that once the time is done the individual is free to re enter society and resume a normal life In Prisoner Reentry and Social Capital authors Earl Smith and Angela J Hattery challenge this myth Prisoner Reentry and Social Capital takes as its starting point interviews with twenty five men and women during the summer of 2008 about their experiences with re entering the free world after a period of incarceration By analyzing the experiences of these men and women Smith and Hattery look in depth at the factors that inhibit successful re entry and illustrate some successes and failures The book examines individual characteristics that inhibit successful re entry such as addiction and sex offender status as well as the unique challenges faced by women Uniquely Smith and Hattery focus on the role that social capital plays as one of the most important factors that shapes the re entry experience Today one of the most pressing issues facing scholars those who work in the criminal justice system and the citizenry as a whole is the extraordinarily high rate of recidivism These interviews and analyses provide a deeper and more precise understanding of the biases faced by re entry felons in the labor market and work to address the key barriers to re entry in hopes to aid in their elimination

Contemporary Corrections Rick Ruddell,G. Larry Mays,L. Thomas Winfree Jr.,2020-10-04 Contemporary Corrections A Critical Thinking Approach introduces readers to the essential elements of the US corrections system without drowning students in a sea of nonessential information Unbiased and accessible the text includes coverage of the history of corrections alternatives to incarceration probation parole race ethnicity gender issues in corrections re entry into the community and more The authors unparalleled practical approach reinforced by contemporary examples illuminates the role corrections plays in our society The authors have reinvigorated earlier work with additional content on international comparative data to increase our understanding of how prison officials in other nations have developed different types of responses to the problems that challenge every US correctional administrator a new chapter on correctional personnel and an integration of race and ethnicity issues throughout the book Unrivaled in scope this book offers undergraduates a concise but comprehensive introduction to corrections with textual materials and assignments designed to encourage students critical thinking skills A NEW PATH DISCOVERED 2000+ YEARS AGO , Mammal Societies Tim Clutton-Brock,2016-05-31

The book aims to integrate our understanding of mammalian societies into a novel synthesis that is relevant to behavioural ecologists ecologists and anthropologists It adopts a coherent structure that deals initially with the characteristics and strategies of females before covering those of males cooperative societies and hominid societies It reviews our current understanding both of the structure of societies and of the strategies of individuals it combines coverage of relevant areas of theory with coverage of interspecific comparisons intraspecific comparisons and experiments it explores both evolutionary causes of different traits and their ecological consequences and it integrates research on different groups of mammals with research on primates and humans and attempts to put research on human societies into a broader perspective

Covertaction Quarterly ,1992 The New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English: J-Z Eric Partridge,2006 Entry includes attestations of the head word s or phrase s usage usually in the form of a quotation Annotation 2006 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com From Doing Meth Shards to Running Prison Yards Danny "Bulldog" Ratliff,2023-09-27 From Doing Meth Shards to Running Prison Yards is an autobiography of an ordinary average man from a ghost town in poverty stricken eastern Kentucky known as Jenkins It tells the true life story of how moving to North Carolina to find work tragically ended up finding me addicted to meth and the treacherous and perilous life I lived for nearly a dozen years until the abundance of drug addiction fueled bad choices that finally led me to my consequences my ultimate life altering arrest It continues with the tumultuous and cold blooded ride our legal system drug me through because I would not snitch and I was poor all the way to the 221 month sentence I received as a first time offender and finally how the vestigial operations of the NCDPS North Carolina Department of Public Safety prison system funneled me into joining the BFG Bound For Glory an Aryan prison club or gang just so I could live the life I was sentenced to a little safer in a world unseen by society a world saturated with reverse racism a world where the White man is the minority a world where nobody cares a world where the truth about it is hidden from civilization Liberation Practices Taiwo Afuape, Gillian Hughes, 2015-12-22 Liberation psychology is an approach that aims to understand wellbeing within the context of relationships of power and oppression and the sociopolitical structure in which these relationships exist Liberation Practices Towards Emotional Wellbeing Through Dialogue explores how wellbeing can be enhanced through dialogue which challenges oppressive social relational and cultural conditions and which can lead to individual and collective liberation Taiwo Afuape and Gillian Hughes have brought together a variety of contributors from a range of mental health professions and related disciplines working in different settings with diverse client groups Liberation Practices is a product of multiple dialogues about liberation practices and how this connects to personal and professional life experience Contributors offer an overview of liberation theories and approaches and through dialogue they examine liberatory practices to enhance emotional wellbeing drawing on examples from a range of creative and innovative projects in the UK and USA This book clearly outlines what liberation practices might look like in the context of the historical development of liberation theory and the current political and cultural context of working in the mental health and psychology field Liberation Practices will have a broad readership spanning clinical psychology psychotherapy and social work Way Worse Than Attica: the 1980 Riot at the Penitentiary of New Mexico Dirk Cameron Gibson, 2022-04-04 This book on the 1980 Penitentiary of New Mexico riot is by far the most comprehensive best researched and most credible publication on this topic It examines the prison administration the correctional officers and the inmates in great detail Clues to the impending riot are documented and the causes of the riot and contributing factors are discussed The pre riot riot and post riot stages of the event are covered In addition to providing chapters on the negotiation about and investigation into the insurrection the significance and consequences of the riot are assessed Separate chapters discuss the families of the hostage correctional officers the inmate families the media and medical first responders Tours of the prison are discussed and paranormal aspects of the riot documented There are ghosts in the prison This prison riot differed from most in that no inmates tried to escape That is because this was not a traditional prison riot but rather one intended to initiate public and media awareness of terrible living conditions and to create public and media dialogue about inmate complaints In the years immediately prior to the riot ACLU attorneys had submitted two Consent Decrees to federal courts and the prison administration was forced to promise to address more than 200 inmate grievances In fact they ignored the decrees and cracked down harder on the inmates The inevitable result was the death of an unknown but undoubtedly significant number of inmates and countless serious injuries The research foundation of this book is the most complete of any book about the riot All published articles and books and blogs and government reports about the riot are included Most significantly interviews with correctional officers and family members provide intimate personal insight into the motives madness and mutilations of this murderous riot Carceral Recovery Sanaullah Khan,2023-10-03 The book explores the interrelation between carceral conditions and substance use by considering the intersections between drug markets sidewalks households and prisons in Baltimore Sanaullah Khan argues that while housing medicalization and incarceration fundamentally create the conditions for substance use individuals are increasingly experiencing the paradoxes of care and punishment by being propelled into a new regime of recovery which creates new pharmaceuticalized identities By shedding light on how addiction and the impetus for healing moves through families and institutions of the state Khan provides an account of the different competing forces that shape substance use recovery and relapse Through a combination of archival research and ethnography the book makes a case for disentangling punishment from recovery

Also Serving Time Rosemary Ricciardelli,2019-10-25 Also Serving Time informs readers about the realities of provincial and territorial prison work in Canada Exploring the nuances of the job Rosemary Ricciardelli shows how officer orientations and attitudes toward prisoners are interconnected and foundational in shaping their prison experiences as well as that of those in custody and in managerial and administrative positions Drawing on interviews with 100 correctional officers from a range of provincial prisons and with experience working in territorial prisons Ricciardelli provides theoretical and applied explorations of officer orientations interpretations and risk propensity to show how perceptions attitudes and beliefs both at the individual and structural levels shape prison practices Also Serving Time unpacks how gender informs the actions and self presentation of correctional officers and informs readers about the officers experiences when working with male and female adult prison populations Ricciardelli confirms that tasks of daily living underpinned by pervasive risk potential shape prison work Through the officer accounts presented she provides an opportunity for readers to explore how punishment and rehabilitation gender and the hierarchical structure of prison management shape officers daily realities
