William Penn and the Dutch Quaker Migration to Pennsylvania Prof. William I. Hull,2018-09-03 The original purpose of this monograph was to tell the European half of the story of William Penn s relations with the Dutch Quakers who emigrated to Pennsylvania But the predominance of the Dutch Quaker pioneers as revealed by that story in the settlement of Germantown made it desirable to follow them across the Atlantic and indicate the part which they played for at least a quarter century in the affairs of the Quaker colony Hence the study comprises first Penn s efforts on his three journeys to Holland and Germany to convert to Quakerism the Labadists Pietists and Quietists whom he found there second the way in which small Quaker communities on the Continent had prepared the way for these visits and finally the rise and progress of those congregations of Dutch and German Quakers who fleeing from persecution accepted Penn s invitation to settle in Pennsylvania William I Hull Introduction The Nation ,1920 Reckoning with

Restorative Justice Leanne Trapedo Sims, 2023-09-18 In Reckoning with Restorative Justice Leanne Trapedo Sims explores the experiences of women who are incarcerated at the Women's Community Correctional Center the only women's prison in the state of Hawai'i. Adopting a decolonial and pro-abolitionist lens she focuses particularly on women's participation in the Kailua Prison Writing Project and its accompanying Prison Monologues program. Trapedo Sims argues that while the writing project served as a vital resource for the inside women it also remained deeply embedded within carceral logics at the institutional state and federal levels. She foregrounds different aspects of these programs such as the classroom spaces and the dynamics that emerged between performers and audiences in the Prison Monologues. Blending ethnography literary studies psychological analysis and criminal justice critique Trapedo Sims centers the often overlooked stories of incarcerated Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander women in Hawai'i in ways that resound with the broader American narrative the disproportionate incarceration of people of color in the prison industrial complex. Prison Legal News, 2003
