Cosmopolitanism: Ethics in a World of Strangers (Issues of Our Time) Kwame Anthony Appiah, 2010-03-01 A brilliant and humane philosophy for our confused age Samantha Power author of A Problem from Hell Drawing on a broad range of disciplines including history literature and philosophy as well as the author's own experience of life on three continents Cosmopolitanism is a moral manifesto for a planet we share with more than six billion strangers The Book of Joshua, 1909 Inheriting the Land E. John Hamlin, 1983 In keeping with the international character of the series E John Hamlin's commentary on Joshua pays more than usual attention to the fulfillment of the third part of God's promise to Abraham By you all the nations of the earth shall bless themselves as well as to the roles played by non Israelites such as Rahab and the Gibeonites Hamlin also takes full account of issues such as war and liberation land distribution and management and personal fulfillment Among the important theological insights revealed in this commentary are God's faithfulness to his oppressed people the importance of land to the covenantal idea the establishment of a new society based on justice freedom and loyalty and secured through covenant teaching and covenant bonding and kingdom struggles leading to kingdom victory and pointing to God's final victory Tales of the Nation Lene Bull-Christiansen, 2004 In light of the uses and misuses of history in Zimbabwean politics in recent years this research report focuses on how versions of the country's liberation war history have become a site of struggle over the definition of Zimbabwean national identity As identity politics often do Zimbabwean nationalism draws on a wide field of cultural symbols of identity and political discourses of inclusion and exclusion Therefore the report takes a cross disciplinary approach to the issue of national identity by mapping out the imaginary field of Zimbabwean nationalism This approach opens up the possibility of cross reading the political discourses of the President and the ruling party ZANU PF with opposing voices such as those in the works of the author Yvonne Vera This cross reading shows how Vera's novels and the political discourses participate in the struggle over Zimbabwean national identity by offering different versions of the nation's history in the form of patriotic history feminist nationalism or narratives of difference In this way the research report adds to our understanding of power and resistance in Zimbabwean politics of national identity From Illiteracy to Literature Anne-Marie Picard, 2016-08-05 From Illiteracy to Literature presents innovative material based on research with non reading children and re examines the complex relationship between psychoanalysis and literature through the lens of the psychical significance of reading the forgotten adventure of our coming to reading Anne Marie Picard draws on two specific fields of interest firstly the wish to understand the nature of literariness or the literary effect i.e the pleasures and frustrations we derive from reading secondly research on reading pathologies carried out at St Anne's Hospital Paris The author uses clinical observations of non reading children to answer literary questions about the reading experience using psychoanalytic theory as a conceptual framework The notion that reading difficulties or phobias should be seen as a symptom in the psychoanalytic sense allows Picard to shed light on both clinical vignettes taken from children's case histories and reading scenes from literary texts Children experiencing difficulties in learning to read highlight the imaginary stakes of the confrontation with the arbitrary nature of the letter and the price to pay for one's entrance into the Symbolic Picard applies the lesson taught by these children to a series of key literary texts featuring at their very core this confrontation with the signifier with the written code itself This book argues that there is something in literature that drives us back again and again to the loss we have suffered as human beings to what we had to undergo to become human our subjection to the common place of language Picard shows complex Lacanian concepts at work in the field of reading pathologies emphasizing close reading and a clinical attention to the letter of the texts far from the psychobiographical attempts at psychologizing literary authors From Illiteracy to Literature presents a novel psychodynamic approach that will be of great interest to psychotherapists and language pathologists appealing to literary scholars and those interested in the process of reading and literariness Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature ,1861 The New York Times Index ,2006 "The" Athenaeum ,1895 Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature ,1911 Trauma, Taboo, and Truth-Telling Nancy J. Gates-Madsen,2016-07-20 Silences taboos and public secrets carry their own deep meaning about Argentina's painful legacy of repression Athenaeum ,1890 Anxious Histories Jordana Silverstein,2015-04-01 Over the last seventy years memories and narratives of the Holocaust have played a significant role in constructing Jewish communities The author explores one field where these narratives are disseminated Holocaust pedagogy in Jewish schools in Melbourne and New York Bringing together a diverse range of critical approaches including memory studies gender studies diaspora theory and settler colonial studies Anxious Histories complicates the stories being told about the Holocaust in these Jewish schools and their broader communities It demonstrates that an anxious thread runs throughout these historical narratives as the pedagogy negotiates feelings of simultaneous belonging and not belonging in the West and in Zionism In locating that anxiety the possibilities and the limitations of narrating histories of the Holocaust are opened up once again for analysis critique discussion and development India's Bangladesh Problem Navine Murshid,2023-04-06 In recent years Bengali Muslims in India have faced harassment and scapegoating as the trope of the illegal Bangladeshi has gained political currency India's Bangladesh Problem explores the experience of Bengali Muslims on the Indian side of the India Bangladesh border in the context of neoliberal policies unequal bilateral relations labor migration contested citizenship and increasingly xenophobic government rhetoric Drawing on extensive research in the borderlands and hinterlands of both countries Navine Murshid argues that ever deepening neoliberal policies across the border have shaped how certain ethnic groups are valued and have reconfigured social hierarchies She provides new insights into the strategic inclusion exclusion and invisibility that characterizes Bengali Muslims lives rendering them a group susceptible to manipulation by virtue of their ethnic kinship to the majority of Bangladeshis In turn Bengali Muslims simultaneously resist and utilize received neoliberal ideas to sustain their lives and livelihoods at a time when neoliberal development has largely bypassed them Athenaeum and Literary

Chronicle ,1890 The Law Student ,1926 Samuel, Kings and Chronicles I Athalya Brenner-Idan, Archie C.C. Lee, 2016-12-01 In this volume scholarly voices from diverse contexts and social locations are gathered together to bring new or unfamiliar facets of biblical texts to light focusing on issues of intertextuality Samuel Kings and Chronicles I sheds light from new perspectives on themes in these so called historical books including Asian American and Chinese readings issues of land genealogy and maleness The authors challenge us to consider how we deal with cultural distances between ourselves and these ancient writings and between one another in the contemporary world These goal of these essays is de centre the often homogeneous first world orientation of much biblical scholarship and open to up new possibilities for discovery of meaning and method Collected Essays Haym Soloveitchik, 2020-11-04 Continuing his major contribution to medieval Jewish intellectual history Haym Soloveitchik focuses here on the radical German Pietists and their main literary work Sefer asidim and on the writings and personality of the Proven al commentator Ravad of Posqui res In both areas he challenges reigning views and sets a new agenda for research Witchcraft as a Social Diagnosis Roxane Richter, Thomas Flowers, Elias Bongmba, 2017-02-27 This interdisciplinary manuscript examines one nonprofit s five years of medical outreach in the condemned witches village of Gnani in Ghana focusing on the clashes between traditional Ghanaian beliefs African religious tenets and contemporary Western medical science The research draws upon 1 714 patient interventions and 95 personal interviews exposing the inherent challenges of separating indigenous beliefs surrounding fate and witchcraft convictions from contemporary interpretations of biological pathogens structural and gender based violence and evidence based medicine This book offers a novel perspective on witchcraft as it examines questions of stigmatization in order to extrapolate how disease injury and illness relate to social condition and the dialogue surrounding witchcraft These unprecedented insights will serve to uncover and explore rural Ghanaian challenges in gender based violence religion legal and political tenets human rights and medical science and their many implications for those in search of health parity social justice gender equity and human rights The New York Daily Tribune Index ,1891 Women and Property in Urban India Bipasha Baruah, 2010-11-07 Half the world s population now lives in cities Governments and agencies have made housing the poor a priority but few studies or initiatives focus on women s needs Based on research conducted in Ahmedabad in collaboration with the Self Employed Women s Association SEWA this book maps the constraints and opportunities that low income women throughout the Global South face in securing property which remains overwhelmingly in male hands Their vulnerabilities open a window to assess not only land tenure and property laws but also theoretical approaches to gender and development Although the development community holds out microcredit financing as one potential solution these women s stories reveal its glaring limitations By highlighting the importance of property as a material and symbolic asset in women s empowerment this book carves out new intellectual space in the study of gender and development
