[IMPORTANT NOTES]

This Policy and Procedure Template with Instructions describes what information to include in each section and how to write it – see the [policy writing instructions at the end of this document. USE THIS AS A REFERENCE TOOL, and write your policy in the Blank Policy and Procedure Template (with formatting) so that it is in the approved format. Both templates are on the Policy Portal.

To identify what template to use (e.g. a policy and procedure combined, a standalone policy, a standalone procedure, or a guideline), refer to the Policy Document Development and Review Procedure.

If experienced, use the automated contents table and auto-number the paragraphs; otherwise, number the paragraphs manually and the Policy Portal Administrator will update the contents table. Contact the Policy Portal Administrator (policy@cqu.edu.au) with any questions about using this template.]

1 PURPOSE

- 1.1 [Include brief statement/s about the overall purpose of the policy, i.e. what outcome/s is the policy intended to achieve? E.g. This policy and procedure establishes an effective, accountable and transparent framework for managing CQUniversity's investments and ensures compliance with the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangement Act 1982.]

2 SCOPE

- 2.1 [Include brief statement/s that identify to whom (e.g. specific groups of people) and to which parts of the University the policy applies. Specify exclusions to clarify scope if needed.]

3 POLICY STATEMENT

- 3.1 [Policy statements are about identifying the broad principles/standards of expected action/behaviour and/or compliance, i.e. setting the 'rules' or 'framework' within which decisions are made on a particular matter. For example, policy statements address what is the standard, while procedures address how the standard is implemented.]

Isolation and Engagement William Waltman Newmann,2022-07-21 Presidents and their advisors consistently seek to improve the management of their foreign policy decision processes This book analyzes the successes and failures of administrations from Kennedy to Nixon as they sought to strike a balance between the personal style of the president and the need for a strong interagency structure that could systematically evaluate policy options The narrative focuses on US decision making on China and Taiwan during the crucial era when the US was considering moving from a policy of isolating China to a policy of engagement culminating in Nixon s historic 1972 trip to China William Waltman Newmann has created an Evolution Balancing model tested with case studies focusing on China policy by Kennedy Johnson Nixon and Ford showing how the relationships between a president and his advisors change based on the weaknesses or pathologies of the president s management style The author s research is based on declassified archival material from the Eisenhower Kennedy Johnson Nixon and Ford presidential libraries Dispute Resolution Mechanism for the Belt and Road Initiative Guiguo Wang,Yuk-Lun Lee,Mei-Fun Leung,2020-01-23 This book examines resolution of the disputes between both sides of Belt and Road economic cooperation To address the problems surrounding legal guarantee and dispute resolution the International Academy of the Belt and Road has gathered almost 50 experts from over 30 Belt and Road countries and regions to utilize current advances in the dispute resolution mechanism taking into account the legal systems legal environment and historical and cultural characteristics of Belt and Road countries and regions The dispute resolution mechanism presented advocates giving priority to mediation when a dispute arises arbitration is necessary only when mediation is ineffective In addition arbitration should be highly transparent show respect to both contracting parties and be equipped with an appeal system This hands on book offers detailed explanations of mediation rules arbitration rules and appeal procedures On the one hand this mechanism embodies the integration of the cultures traditions legal systems legal values and legal thoughts of Belt and Road countries and regions On the other hand it highlights the importance of mediation which not only is the idea of oriental culture carrying forward traditional Chinese culture but also follows the trend of dispute resolution As a result the dispute resolution mechanism established in this book is beneficial to the development of the Belt and Road Initiative

A Teacher Between Worlds Lillian Cui Garcia, 2019-09-03 This is a collection of essays I've written through the years reflecting on my teaching journey in a northern Canadian community college They are interwoven with memories about my earlier Alberta government researcher's job and my first teaching experience in Cebu Philippines Also intertwined with them are remembrances of my family friends colleagues and benefactors It is a social history memoir that touches on a number of contemporary Canadian Native Peoples and Philippine history It's an invitation for teachers and newcomers in a place to reflect on their own comparable journeys while walking with me through my experiences integrating my minority status as a woman of colour in the academic world and the Canadian cultural mosaic where I sought and found acceptance respect and even affection My observations about teaching family friendship the arts health concerns majority and minority relations and transformation resonate with the abiding belief of social scientists in humankind's oneness in mind and spirit They are timely reminders that in an increasingly fractious world we are better off engaging with each other grounding ourselves in honesty civility and compassion as we share space and help navigate this magnificent boat called Earth

Conflicts in the Middle East and Africa Moosa Elayah, Bakeel Alzandani, 2024-03-21 This book explores the multifaceted dynamics between state and non state actors in public policy during and after conflict in the Middle East and Africa It offers case studies and policy relevant ideas for conflict affected areas to move forward in a more sustainable manner Following the Arab Spring revolutions civil wars have plagued the Middle East and North Africa region along with other countries in Africa The task of rebuilding peace and institutionalizing stability in conflict affected countries or fragile states emerging from conflict is a daunting uncertain and context specific task Yet focusing on understanding conflicts in the Middle East and Africa offers an important view of the role of non state actors during conflicts These regions feature the highest numbers of inter and intra state conflicts and the governments are more often contested than in the rest of the world The volume proposes different cases addressing the fundamental challenge of inclusion and cohesion of nonstate actors during conflicts By providing a comprehensive exploration of diverse perspectives it empowers readers to engage with the pressing issues facing these regions This is a useful resource for students and researchers in public policy and governance studies development studies
