

Professional Reflection/Development Plan
(complete 1, 2 and 3 – this is a 3-part writing exercise)

1. Professional Reflection (Must complete this section)

1. Reflective Essay:

All graduate studies at Viterbo University are based on essential knowledge, established and current research, and best professional practice. As a professional educator, the necessity to reflectively apply knowledge of subject matter, human learning and development, pedagogy, theory and technology is tantamount to professional development.

In this exercise, revisit the Philosophy of Education you wrote as an undergraduate. Reflect on your current beliefs and practices and note any changes in philosophy that have developed. Reflect on the reasons for these changes using examples if appropriate. Culminate by drafting a revised Philosophy of Education. Please limit this section to two typed pages.

2. Professional Development Plan: (Must complete this section)

Outline your plan for professional development. Describe areas of interest and expertise, past experience, long-range and short-term professional goals, planned course study, intended graduation date, etc. Please limit this section to 1-2 typed pages.

3. Professional Application of Teaching Standards: (Must complete this section)

NCATE (National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education), to which Viterbo University is accredited, believes that caring, competent, and qualified teachers should teach every pupil. Student learning must mean not only basic skills but also the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed as a responsible citizen and contributor to the new economy. Therefore, standards have been established based on the belief that all children can and should learn.

In this exercise we ask that you provide evidence of your knowledge, skills, and attitudes in five areas (next page). Share one example from your own teaching experience for each of the five standards listed below. Please limit your responses to 1-2 typed pages total.

Standard 1: Development, Learning, and Motivation

The Musical Experience Janet R. Barrett, Peter R. Webster, 2014-07-15 The Musical Experience proposes a new concept musical experience as the most effective framework for navigating the shifting terrain of educational policy as it is applied to music education The editors and contributors define musical experience as being characterized by the depth of affective and emotional responses that music generates The chapters map out the primary forms of musical engagement performing listening improvising and composing as activities which play a key role in classroom teaching They also address the cultural scope of musical experience which calls for the consideration of time place beliefs and values to be placed upon musical activities The Musical Experience discusses how music teachers can most effectively rely on means of musical communication to lead students toward the development and refinement of musical skills understandings and expression in educational settings This book serves to expand upon the dimensions of musical experience and provides from the forefront of the field an integrated yet panoramic view of the educational processes involved in music teaching and learning

Second International Handbook of Mathematics Education Alan Bishop, M.A. (Ken) Clements, Christine Keitel-Kreidt, Jeremy Kilpatrick, Frederick Koon-Shing Leung, 2012-02-02 ALAN 1 BISHOP The first International Handbook on Mathematics Education was published by Kluwer Academic Publishers in 1996 However most of the writing for that handbook was done in 1995 and generally reflected the main research and development foci prior to 1994 There were four sections 36 chapters and some 150 people contributed to the final volume either as author reviewer editor or critical friend The task was a monumental one attempting to cover the major research and practice developments in the international field of mathematics education as it appeared to the contributors in 1995 Inevitably there were certain omissions some developments were only starting to emerge and some literatures were only sketchy and speculative However that Handbook has had to be reprinted three times so it clearly fulfilled a need and I personally hope that it lived up to what I wrote in its Introduction The Handbook thus attempts not merely to present a description of the international state of the field but also to offer synthetic and reflective overviews on the different directions being taken by the field on the gaps existing in our present knowledge on the current problems being faced and on the future possibilities for development Bishop et al 1996 Since that time there has been even more activity in our field and now seems a good time to take stock again to reflect on what has happened since 1995 and to create a second Handbook with the same overall goals

Academic Work and Identities in Teacher Education Jean Murray, Clare Kosnik, 2016-04-08 With its focus on the work and identity of teacher educators this book addresses an essential but under researched area in teacher education It makes a major contribution to analysing the field and develops existing research on the working lives and identities of teacher educators The book explores ideas about the future of teacher education and the implications for policy changes in education systems across the world It brings together studies from across the globe on how teacher educators within higher education institutions function as both academics and professionals in different institutions and nations It also considers professional learning for teacher educators as an occupational group and makes practical suggestions for change and improvement in this often neglected area of higher education The book deliberately draws on research from a range of traditions including life history policy analysis ethnography and self study The contributions come from major researchers in teacher education in Australia Continental Europe the USA and Canada the UK and Asia This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Education for Teaching
