Mortem Donald Kunze, David Bertolini, Simone Brott, 2016-04-15 Architecture Post Mortem surveys architecture's encounter with death decline and ruination following late capitalism As the world moves closer to an economic abyss that many perceive to be the death of capital contraction and crisis are no longer mere phases of normal market fluctuations but rather the irruption of the unconscious of ideology itself Post mortem is that historical moment wherein architecture's symbolic contract with capital is put on stage naked to all Architecture is not irrelevant to fiscal and political contagion as is commonly believed it is the victim and penetrating analytical agent of the current crisis As the very apparatus for modernity's guilt and unfulfilled drives modernity's debt architecture is that ideological element that functions as a master signifier of its own destruction ordering all other signifiers and modes of signification beneath it It is under these conditions that architecture theory has retreated to an Alamo of history a final desert outpost where history has been asked to transcend itself For architecture's hoped for utopia always involves an apocalypse This timely collection of essays reformulates architecture's relation to modernity via the operational death drive architecture is but a passage between life and death This collection includes essays by Kazi K Ashraf David Bertolini Simone Brott Peggy Deamer Didem Ekici Paul Emmons Donald Kunze Todd McGowan Gevork Hartoonian Nadir Lahiji Erika Naginski and Dennis Maher
