Realidades Chapter 1:

Nosotros Alvin O. Korte, 2012-03-01 Much knowledge and understanding can be generated from the experiences of everyday life. In this engaging study Alvin O. Korte examines how this concept applies to Spanish speaking peoples adapted to a particular locale specifically the Hispanos and Hispanas of northern New Mexico. Drawing on social philosopher Alfred Schutz's theory of typification Korte looks at how meaning and identity are crafted by quotidian activities. Incorporating phenomenological and ethnomethodological strategies the author investigates several aspects of local Hispano culture including the oral tradition, leave taking, death and remembrances of the dead, spirituality and the circle of life. Although avoiding a social problems approach the book devotes necessary attention to mortification, the death of the self, desmadre, chaos and disorder and mancornando (cuckoldry). Nosotros is a vivid and insightful exploration with applications in numerous fields.

Delirious Consumption Sergio Delgado Moya, 2017-10-11 In the decades following World War II the creation and expansion of massive domestic markets and relatively stable economies allowed for mass consumption on an unprecedented scale giving rise to the consumer society that exists today. Many avant garde artists explored the nexus between consumption and aesthetics questioning how consumerism affects how we perceive the world, place ourselves in it and make sense of it via perception and emotion. Delirious Consumption focuses on the two largest cultural economies in Latin America, Mexico and Brazil, and analyzes how their artists and writers both embraced and resisted the spirit of development and progress that defines the consumer moment in late capitalism. Sergio Delgado Moya looks specifically at the work of David Alfaro Siqueiros, the Brazilian concrete poets Octavio Paz and Lygia Clark to determine how each of them arrived at forms of aesthetic production balanced between high modernism and consumer culture. He finds in their works a provocative positioning vis-à-vis urban commodity capitalism, an ambivalent position that takes an assured but flexible stance against commodification, alienation and the politics of domination and inequality that defines market economies. In Delgado Moya's view these poets and artists appeal to uselessness, nonutility and noncommunication, all markers of the aesthetic while drawing on the terms proper to a world of consumption and consumer culture.

The 1812 Aponte Rebellion in Cuba and the Struggle against Atlantic Slavery Matt D. Childs,2009-01-05 In 1812 a series of revolts known collectively as the Aponte Rebellion erupted across the island of Cuba comprising one of the largest and most important slave insurrections in Caribbean history Matt Childs provides the first in depth analysis of the rebellion situating it in local colonial imperial and Atlantic World contexts Childs explains how slaves and free people of color responded to the nineteenth century sugar boom in the Spanish colony by planning a rebellion against racial slavery and plantation agriculture Striking alliances among free people of color and slaves blacks and mulattoes Africans and Creoles and rural and urban populations rebels were prompted to act by a widespread belief in rumors promising that emancipation was near Taking further inspiration from the 1791 Haitian Revolution rebels sought to destroy slavery in Cuba and perhaps even end Spanish rule By comparing his findings to studies of slave insurrections in Brazil Haiti the British Caribbean and the United States Childs places the rebellion within the wider story of Atlantic World revolution and political change The book also features a biographical table constructed by Childs of the more than 350 people investigated for their involvement in the rebellion 34 of whom were executed

A Light for the Nations Luis Sánchez-Navarro,2024-05 Universality belongs to the very being of the catholic Church This claim of the Gospel is rooted in the ministry of Jesus witnessed to by the canonical Gospels and the other books of the New Testament all of which present the universal openness of salvation as a fulfillment of the Scriptures of Israel In this book after addressing the universality of salvation in the writings of the Old Covenant we examine the differentiated and concordant witness of the synoptic Gospels John and Paul as well as the Letter to the Hebrews and the Apocalypse In this way we intend to show how this apostolic witness responds to the will of the Lord Jesus while highlighting its harmony with Torah Prophets and Writings A Light for the Nations by reviewing the main biblical passages on the universal dimension of salvation aims to show how the fact that the Gospel of Jesus Christ has a claim to universality does not diminish but rather enhances the importance of the people of the first Covenant Israel is called to be an active mediator of salvation The canonical perspective is based on a differentiated exegetical study of each testimony The scope is broad since this theme of biblical theology is also relevant for Christology and soteriology for anthropology and for ecclesiology The main contribution lies in showing how the various biblical testimonies in their diversity which is fully taken into account offer at the same time a concurring testimony on this fundamental question of Christian theology forming a true symphony within its polyphony

Outside Theater Stuart A. Day, 2017-05-16 Taking a cue from influential French philosopher Jacques Rancière who in The Emancipated Spectator rejects the idea of the passive ignorant duped spectators in need of instruction to become active Stuart A Day's goal in Outside Theater is to highlight written words and performances that exemplify effective strategies past and present to reveal and promote civic engagement to provoke disruptions or to highlight fissures and opportunities in oppressive social structures Through the study of one or two primary models per chapter as well as multiple examples in the introduction and conclusion Day presents Mexican plays from 1905 to 2015 including the 2010 Mexico City performance of Zoot Suit by Chicano playwright Luis Valdez Using these plays Day explores the concept of outside theater where people or groups translate the tools of the theatrical trade to a different stage outside the walls of the theater and play the part of fictional or real life Celestinas matchmakers who unite seemingly disparate entities to promote social awareness and social action by working the borders between life and art Each work in this innovative analysis reveals productive social connections that with the help of crucial artistic alliances contradict the perception that art is somehow secondary to or disconnected from the public sphere of influence and the struggles of everyday life With this book Day shows that Mexican theater can and does bolster civil society and thus the country's fragile democracy

Barcelonan Okupas Stephen Luis Vilaseca, 2013-09-24 Barcelonan Okupas Squatter Power is the first book to combine close readings of the representations of Spanish squatters known as okupas with the study of everyday life built environment and city planning in Barcelona Vilaseca broadens the scope of Spanish cultural studies by integrating into it notions of embodied cognition and affect that respond to the city before and against the fixed relations of capitalism Social transformation as demonstrated by the okupas is possible when city and art interrelate not through capital or the urbanization of consciousness but through bodily thought The okupas reconfigure the way thoughts words images and bodily responses are linked by evoking and communicating the idea of free exchange and openness through art poetry music performance art the plastic arts graffiti urban art and cinema and by acting out and rehearsing these ideas in the practice of squatting The okupas challenge society to differentiate the images and representations instituted by state domination or capitalist exploitation from the subversive potential of imagination The okupas unify theory and practice word and body in pursuit of a positive social vision that might serve humanity and lead the way out of the current problems caused by capitalism

The Critical Poem Thorpe Running,1996 In this book scholar Thorpe Running shows that a skeptical approach to both language and poetry places eight poets from three countries in Latin America within a strain of poetry prefigured by Stéphane Mallarmé Octavio Paz Jorge Luis Borges Roberto Juarroz Alejandra Pizarnik Alberto Girri Juan Luis Martínez Gonzalo Millán and David Huerta span three different generations In addition to their age and geographical differences their poetry bears no obvious similarities All eight however are poetas pensantes or thinking poets and underlying the work of these probing writers is the disturbing question Does language do what it is supposed to do The answer is negative for all these poets who see their poems as being made up of words that don t work
