Romance First Night Contemporary Women Fiction Romance Novella English Edition:

Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 James Acheson, 2017-01-17 Focuses on the novels published since 2000 by twenty major British novelists. The Contemporary British Novel Since 2000 is divided into five parts with the first part examining the work of four particularly well known and highly regarded twenty first century writers: Ian McEwan, David Mitchell, Hilary Mantel and Zadie Smith. It is with reference to each of these novelists in turn that the terms realist, postmodernist, ahistorical and postcolonialist fiction are introduced while in the remaining four parts other novelists are discussed and the meaning of the terms amplified. From the start it is emphasised that these terms and others often mean different things to different novelists and that the complexity of their novels often obliges us to discuss their work with reference to more than one of the terms. Also discusses the works of Maggie O'Farrell, Sarah Hall, A. L. Kennedy, Alan Warner, Ali Smith, Kazuo Ishiguro, Kate Atkinson, Salman Rushdie, Adam Foulds, Sarah Waters, James Robertson, Mohsin Hamid, Andrea Levy and Aminatta Forna.

Drawing on a variety of theoretical approaches including trauma theory, psychoanalysis, genre theory, narrative theory, theories of temporality, cultural theory, and ethics, this book breaks new ground in bringing together trauma and romance, two categories whose collaboration has never been addressed in such a systematic and in-depth way. The volume shows how romance strategies have become an essential component of trauma fiction in general and traumatic realism in particular. It brings to the fore the deconstructive powers of the darker type of romance and its adequacy to perform traumatic acting out and fragmentation It also zooms in on the variations on the ghost story as medium for the evocation of trans generational trauma as well as on the therapeutic drive of romance that favors a narrative presentation of the working through phase of trauma Chapters explore various acceptations and extensions of psychic trauma from the individual to the cultural analyzing narrative texts that belong in various genres from the ghost story to the misery memoir to the graphic novel The selection of primary sources allows for a review of leading contemporary British authors such as Peter Ackroyd Martin Amis Ian McEwan Salman Rushdie Graham Swift Sarah Waters and Jeanette Winterson and of those less canonical such as Jackie Kay Alan Moore and Dave Gibbons Justine Picardie Peter Roche and Adam Thorpe Jewish Identities in Contemporary Europe Andrea Reiter, Lucille Cairns, 2017-10-02 Providing an assessment of Jewish identity this volume presents critical engagements with a number of Jewish writers and filmmakers from a variety of European countries including Austria France Germany Poland and the UK The novels and films discussed explore the meaning of being Jewish in Europe today and investigate the extent to which this experience is shaped by factors that lie outside the national context notably by the relationship to Israel As the recent attacks on Charlie Hebdo and the targeting of a Jewish supermarket in Paris demonstrate these questions are more pressing than ever and will challenge Jews as well as Jewish writers and intellectuals as they explore the answers This book was originally published as a special issue of Jewish Culture and History
