For Lois Winston, 2015-07-07 The adventures of reluctant amateur sleuth Anastasia Pollack continue in A Stitch to Die For the 5th book in the Anastasia Pollack Crafting Mystery series by USA Today bestselling author Lois Winston Ever since her husband died and left her in debt equal to the gross national product of Uzbekistan magazine crafts editor and reluctant amateur sleuth Anastasia Pollack has stumbled across one dead body after another but always in work related settings When a killer targets the elderly nasty neighbor who lives across the street from her murder strikes too close to home Couple that with a series of unsettling events days before Halloween and Anastasia begins to wonder if someone is sending her a deadly message The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog Thomas Cripps Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory Arthur Schlesinger Jr Moral Tradition and Individuality John

Kekes,2021-01-12 In this study John Kekes develops the view that good lives depend on maintaining a balance between one's moral tradition and individuality Our moral tradition provides the forms of good lives and the permissible ways of trying to achieve them But to do so the author argues we must grow in self knowledge and self control to make our characters suitable for realizing our aspirations In addressing general readers as well as scholars Kekes makes these philosophical views concrete by drawing on a rich variety of literary sources including among others the works of Sophocles Henry James Tolstoy and Edith Wharton The first half of the work concentrates on social morality establishing the conditions all good lives must meet The second discusses personal morality the sphere of individuality Its development enables us to discover what is important to us and how we can fit our personal aspirations into the forms of life our moral tradition provides Kekes's argument derives its inspiration from Aristotle's objectivism Hume's emphasis on custom and feeling and Mill's concentration on individuals and their experiments in living This book is a nontechnical yet closely reasoned attempt to provide a contemporary answer to the age old question of how to live well
