The Routledge Companion to Phenomenology Sebastian Luft,Soren Overgaard,2013-07-03 Phenomenology was one of the twentieth century s major philosophical movements and continues to be a vibrant and widely studied subject today The Routledge Companion to Phenomenology is an outstanding guide and reference source to the key philosophers topics and themes in this exciting subject and essential reading for any student or scholar of phenomenology Comprising over fifty chapters by a team of international contributors the Companion is divided into five clear parts main figures in the phenomenological movement from Brentano to Derrida main topics in phenomenology phenomenological contributions to philosophy phenomenological intersections historical postscript Close attention is paid to the core topics in phenomenology such as intentionality perception subjectivity the self the body being and phenomenological method An important feature of the Companion is its examination of how phenomenology has contributed to central disciplines in philosophy such as metaphysics philosophy of mind moral philosophy aesthetics and philosophy of religion as well as disciplines beyond philosophy such as race cognitive science psychiatry literary criticism and psychoanalysis Evolution and Consciousness, Revised Edition Michael M.M.G.S. DelMonte, Maeve Halpin, 2023-02-27 This volume is a newly revised and updated edition of Evolution and Consciousness Brill 2019 and provides a comprehensive and accessible introduction to the emerging concept of the evolution of consciousness The simple but dynamic theory of evolving consciousness blends the powerful insights of modern science with the deep wisdom of age old cultures synthesising the traditions of East and West of the head and heart of male and female and of science and spirituality To borrow a phrase from American philosopher Ken Wilber it is a concept that transcends and includes all that has gone before By integrating diverse multi disciplinary approaches it provides an overarching and transcending model that moves us to a new level of meaning and understanding of our place in the world and in so doing deepens our work as psychotherapists Pseudoscience and Extraordinary Claims of the Paranormal Jonathan C. Smith, 2011-09-26 Pseudoscience and Extraordinary Claims of the Paranormal A Critical Thinker's Toolkit provides readers with a variety of reality checking tools to analyze extraordinary claims and to determine their validity Integrates simple yet powerful evaluative tools used by both paranormal believers and skeptics alike Introduces innovations such as a continuum for ranking paranormal claims and evaluating their implications Includes an innovative Critical Thinker's Toolkit a systematic approach for performing reality checks on paranormal claims related to astrology psychics spiritualism parapsychology dream telepathy mind over matter prayer life after death creationism and more Explores the five alternative hypotheses to consider when confronting a paranormal claim li Reality Check boxes integrated into the text invite students to engage in further discussion and examination of claims Written in a lively engaging style for students and general readers alike Ancillaries Testbank and PowerPoint slides available at www.wiley.com/go/pseudoscience Science and the World's Religions Patrick McNamara Ph.D., Wesley J. Wildman, 2012-07-19 This trio of volumes contains essays that explore vital existential moral or metaphysical issues surrounding the relationship between the sciences and the world's religions In Science and the World's Religions experts with scientific and religious backgrounds explore vital existential or practical issues drawing on whatever sciences are relevant and engaging at least two religious traditions The multidisciplinary essays exhibit rigorous intellectual scholarly thinking but are written to clearly communicate to educated adult lay readers The first volume addresses questions about the origins and purpose of the cosmos and the human project The second volume investigates the roles of religion and spirituality in human existence considering issues ranging from the brain and religious experience to the human life cycle The third volume tackles controversies in which both religion and science are stakeholders showing how both can deepen understanding and enrich human experience Together these three books present readers with powerful tools that enable them to think through the challenge of integrating science with their religious beliefs and spiritual practices The Structure of Theological Revolutions Mark S. Massa SJ, 2018-07-02 On July 29 1968 Pope Paul VI ended years of discussion and study by Catholic theologians and bishops by issuing an encyclical on human sexuality and birth control entitled Humanae Vitae On Human Life That document which declared that each and every marriage act must remain open to the transmission of life lead to widespread dissent and division within the Church particularly in the United States The divide that Humanae Vitae opened up is still with us today Mark Massa argues that American Catholics did not simply ignore and dissent from the encyclical's teachings on birth control but that they also began to question the entire system of natural law theology that had undergirded Catholic thought since the days of Aquinas Natural law is central to Catholic theology as some of its most important teachings on issues such as birth control marriage and abortion rest on natural law arguments Drawing inspiration from Thomas Kuhn's classic work The Structure of Scientific Revolutions Massa argues that Humanae Vitae caused a paradigm shift in American Catholic thought one that has had far reaching repercussions How can theology the study of God whose nature is imagined to be eternal and unchanging change over time This is the essential question that The Structure of Theological Revolutions sets out to answer Massa makes the controversial claim that Roman Catholic teaching on a range of important issues is considerably more provisional and arbitrary than many Catholics think

Knowing Creation Zondervan, 2018-05-08 It is hard to think of an area of Christian theology that provides more scope for interdisciplinary conversation than the doctrine of creation This doctrine not only invites reflection on an intellectual concept it calls for contemplation of the endlessly complex dynamic and fascinating world that human being inhabit But the possibilities for wide ranging discussion are such that scholars sometimes end up talking past one another Productive conversation requires mutual understanding of insights across disciplinary boundaries Knowing Creation offers an essential resource for helping scholars from a range of fields to appreciate one another's concerns and perspectives In so doing it offers an important step forward in establishing a mutually enriching dialogue that addresses amongst others the following key questions Who is the God who creates Why does God create What is creation What does it mean to recognize that a theology of creation speaks of a natural world that is subject to the observation of the natural sciences What does it mean to talk about both a natural order and a created order What are the major tensions that have arisen between the natural sciences and Christian thinking historically and why How can we move beyond such tensions to a positive and constructive conversation while also avoiding facile notions such as a god of the gaps Is it feasible for a natural scientist to maintain a belief in God's continuing creative activity In what ways might a naturalistic understanding of the natural world be said to be limited How can biblical studies theology philosophy history and science talk better together about these questions At a time when the doctrine of creation and even a mention of creation has been disparaged due to its supposed associations with anti scientific dogma and theological offerings sometimes risk appearing a little more than reactionary exercises in naive apologetics ill informed by science or distinctly wary of engagement with it it is more important than ever to offer a cross disciplinary resource that can voice a positive account of a Christian theology of creation and do so as a genuinely broad ranging conversation about science and faith Contributors to Knowing Creation include Marilyn McCord Adams Denis Alexander Susan Eastman C Stephen Evans Peter van Inwagen Christoph Schwobel John H Walton Francis Watson and more

X Astronomy and Civilization in the New Enlightenment Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, Attila Grandpierre, 2010-11-18

This volume represents the first which interfaces with astronomy as the fulcrum of the sciences It gives full expression to the human passion for the skies Advancing human civilization has unfolded and matured this passion into the comprehensive science of astronomy Advancing science's quest for the first principles of existence meets the onto-poietic generative logos of life the focal point of the New Enlightenment It presents numerous perspectives illustrating how the interplay between human beings and the celestial realm has informed civilizational trends Scholars and philosophers debate in physics and biology the findings of which are opening a more inclusive wider picture of the universe The different models of the universal order and of life here presented all aiming at the first principles of existence accord with the phenomenology onto-poiesis of life within the logos prompted primogenital stream of becoming and action which points to a future of progressing culture
