Psychology In Modules David G. Myers, 2009-09-28 This version of the main text breaks down the chapters into shorter modules for more accessibility The smaller chunks allow students to better grasp and explore psychological concepts The modules also allow more flexibility in teaching as cross references to other chapters have been replaced with brief explanations

Proceedings of the XII International Symposium on Biological Control of Weeds R. Sforza, M. C. Bon, 2008 Covering the research findings in various aspects of weed biocontrol this volume explores weed biology and ecology and the economic impacts effectiveness and practical implications of weed management strategies It is of interest to researchers and students in plant and environmental sciences

Access to Success, 2008 Educational Assessment Robert J. Wright, 2008 Educational Tests and Measurements in the Age of Accountability is a core text for use in a first level graduate course in educational measurement and testing In addition to covering the topics traditionally found in core textbooks for this course this text also provides coverage of contemporary topics including national testing programs international achievement comparisons the value added assessment of schools and teachers and the public policy debate on selective admissions vs affirmative minority enrollment

Psychology In Modules (Spiral) David G. Myers, 2009-09-28 Why Myers David Myers has become the world's best selling introductory psychology author by serving the needs of instructors and students so well Each Myers textbook offers an impeccable combination of up to date research well crafted pedagogy and effective media and supplements Most of all each Myers text demonstrates why this author's style works so well for students with his signature compassionate companionable voice and superb judgment about how to communicate the science of psychology and its human impact Why Modules This modules based version of Myers best selling full length text Psychology breaking down that book's 16 chapters into 59 short modules is yet another example of the author's ability to understand what works in the classroom. It comes from Myers' experiences with students who strongly prefer textbooks divided into briefer segments instead of lengthier chapters and with instructors who appreciate the flexibility offered by the modular format. Modular organization presents material in smaller segments. Students can easily read any module in a single sitting. Self-standing modules. Instructors can assign modules in their own preferred order. The modules make no assumptions about what students have previously read. Illustrations and key terms are repeated as needed. This modular organization of short stand-alone text units enhances teacher flexibility. Instead of assigning the entire Sensation and Perception chapter, instructors can assign the module on vision, the module on hearing, and/or the module on the other senses in whatever order they choose. Watch our new videos from David Myers here including our animation on THE TESTING EFFECT narrated by David Myers.

Scientific and Technical Aerospace Reports, 1982 Perspectives on Supported Collaborative Teacher Inquiry David Slavitt, Tamara Holmlund Nelson, Anne Kennedy, 2009-06-11 This volume describes supported collaborative inquiry as a framework for teacher professional development. The chapters focus on the building of collaborative support structures nurturing an inquiry stance progressing through an inquiry process as well as the various kinds of support mechanisms necessary to engage in SCTI.

Principles and Practice of Dialysis William L. Henrich, 2012-02-03 This book is an evidence-based review of the practical challenges of dealing with patients receiving dialysis. The first section covers technical and procedural considerations such as choosing the hemodialysis membrane and choosing the best dialysis option. The second section covers clinical considerations such as infection and the treatment of specific renal disease complications. The book includes numerous illustrations and tables and drug charts for dialysis patients. This edition's current outcomes chapter has been expanded to include patient depression and improving quality of care. New chapters cover dialysis in the ICU, valvular heart disease, and pre-emptive renal transplantation.

Chicago Tribune, 1975 New Directions in Assessing Historical Thinking Kadriye Ercikan, Peter Seixas, 2015-02-20 New technologies have radically transformed our relationship to information in general and to little bits of information in particular. The assessment of history learning, which for a century has valued those little bits as the centerpiece of its practice, now faces not only an unprecedented glut but a disconnect with what is valued in history education. More complex processes, historical thinking, historical consciousness, or historical sense-making demand more complex assessments. At the same time, advances in scholarship on assessment open up new possibilities. For this volume, Kadriye Ercikan and Peter Seixas have assembled an international array of experts who have collectively moved the fields of history education and assessment forward. Their various approaches negotiate the sometimes conflicting demands of theoretical sophistication, empirically demonstrated validity, and practical efficiency. Key issues include articulating the cognitive goals of history education, the relationship between content and procedural knowledge, the impact of students' language literacy on history assessments, and methods of validation in both large-scale and classroom.
