

ACCOUNTABILITY INFORMATION REQUIRED BY THE FEDERAL NO CHILD LEFT BEHIND ACT

The information below is given to describe the statewide yearly Progress Assessment for your school. A school is designated as not meeting AYP if any category is determined to be not met. The Student Achievement and Student Participation ratings are based on 2006-2007 and 2007-2008 Oregon statewide assessments for the students in your school divided as reported for a full academic year. The statewide goal for the percentage of students expected to meet or exceed standards is 80% in English Language Arts and 80% in Mathematics. Student Participation is expected to be 80% or greater. The statewide goal for the minimum graduation rate is 80.0%. For more information, please visit www.oregon.gov/deq/education/standards.aspx

2007-2008 School Report Card

RICHMOND
ELEMENTARY SCHOOL

Dear Parents and Community Members,

October 7, 2008

The Oregon Department of Education is proud to issue the 2007 school report card. As Oregon schools and districts continue to face many challenges, education remains committed to providing the highest quality education for Oregon students. This year you will find two ratings displayed at the report card: an Oregon rating and a federal rating required by the No Child Left Behind Act. The report card is not meant to tell you everything about your school, but it offers a starting point for discussion about where improvement might be needed and for celebrating successes in education for Oregon's students.

Report Cards Wade H. Morris, 2023-09-26 This book tells the story of American education by examining this unique element of student life The author shows the evolution of how teachers students parents and administrators responded to report cards Report cards he shows were more than just a means by which a school documented each student s deportment academic standing and attendance They were a tool of control a microcosm for the changing power dynamics between teachers parents and students A Parents' Guide to Grading and Reporting Matt Townsley, Chad Lang, 2023-09-15

Whether resulting from the educational fallout of the COVID 19 global pandemic or merely challenging the status quo more schools are transitioning their grading practices away from traditional points and percentages and toward 21st century grading practices such as standards based and proficiency based grading A Parents Guide to Grading and Reporting Being Clear about What Matters assists parents and guardians in understanding what is involved in 21st century grading and how to become better partners with educators in efforts to understand students strengths and areas for improvement The Writing Report Card, 1984-88 Arthur N. Applebee, 1990 Based on two national assessments of the writing proficiency of representative samples of students in grades 4 8 and 11 conducted during the school years ending in 1984 and 1988 this report assesses the informative persuasive and imaginative writing performance of the nation s students and tracks changes in performance over time The first three chapters of the report describe student performance on the informative persuasive and imaginative writing tasks included in the writing trend assessments based on the results of the primary trait and holistic analyses The fourth chapter summarizes trends in average task accomplishment for the nation and various demographic subpopulations In the fifth chapter trends in students grammar punctuation and spelling are discussed The sixth chapter discusses factors that appear to be related to writing performance such as students instructional experiences and home environment The report concludes that despite some progress on some tasks students writing performance across tasks remains low and has changed little across time The report also finds that the extent to which students at all grade levels value writing use it in their own lives and engage in writing process activities remains quite limited A procedural appendix and an appendix of data are attached RS Oregon Teachers' Monthly ,1913 America's Failing Schools W. James Popham, 2004-08-02 No Child Left Behind signed into law by President Bush in January 2002 is the most significant education legislation in decades It calls for substantially expanded student testing more stringent accountability requirements and annual school focused report cards at the state district and school levels Despite the fact that it affects schooling at every possible level few people understand its implications or reach In America s Failing Schools Popham sets the record straight for teachers students and parents alike In clear accessible language the book explains the relevant Current Magazine Contents Kirke Mechem, 1928 The Civics Report Card Lee F.
