Portland Public School Spring Break 2014:

More Than a Score Jesse Hagopian, 2014-11-10 Jesse Hagopian brought a rare moment of truth to the corporate dominated Education Nation show when he spoke on behalf of his colleagues at Garfield High in Seattle. He instantly became the voice and face of the movement to stop pointless and punitive high stakes testing. Diane Ravitch, author of Reign of Terror. In cities across the country, students are walking out, parents are opting their children out, and teachers are rallying against the abuses of high stakes standardized testing. These are the stories in their own words of some of those who are defying the corporate education reformers and fueling a national movement to reclaim public education. Alongside the voices of students, parents, teachers, and grassroots education activists, the book features renowned education researchers and advocates including Nancy Carrlson, Paige Karen Lewis, and Monty Neill. Jesse Hagopian teaches history and is the Black Student Union adviser at Garfield High School, the site of the historic boycott of the MAP test in 2013. He is an associate editor of Rethinking Schools and winner of the 2013 Secondary School Teacher of Year award from the Academy of Education Arts and Sciences. He is a contributing author to Education and Capitalism: Struggles for Learning and Liberation and 101 Changemakers: Rebels and Radicals Who Changed US History and writes regularly for Truthout, Black Agenda Report, and the Seattle Times.
Op Ed page The Playing Grounds of College Football Mark Pollak, 2018-12-12 College football teams today play for tens of thousands of fans in palatial stadiums that rival those of pro teams. But most started out in humbler venues: from baseball parks to fairgrounds to cow pastures. This comprehensive guide traces the long and diverse history of playing grounds for more than 1000 varsity football schools, including bowl eligible teams as well as those in other divisions: FCS, D2, D3, NAIA.

Othello's Brother Jerry McGill, 2014-10-29 In the dark gray winter of the Pacific Northwest, a disturbing pattern is taking hold. In Portland, Oregon, two white males in completely different locations with no apparent connection have been found brutally murdered in the same fashion: their skulls bashed in with a rock, pick, hammer, and their throats slashed with a straight razor. Beside each victim was placed the name of a slain civil rights figure. When a third white male victim is found murdered in a suburb in Seattle, a task force is put together to investigate what is clearly a serial killer case. Leading that task force is PATTON JAMESON of Portland Homicide. A white male in his late 40s, Jameson became famous early in his career for being part of a team that captured the notorious Polk Place Killer. But one old case that was tragically mishandled still haunts him. Teamed with Jameson on that task force is MAYA DEVERAUX, an extremely talented young homicide detective with a chip on her shoulder that everyone assumes is because she is a black female in an all white profession But it isn't as simple as that Devereaux holds a dark secret close to her VERNON LANDRY is the head janitor at Portland's toughest high school He possesses an anger towards a system that he feels has given so much advantage to white males at the expense of people of color and one evening he just snaps His first victim he killed out of sheer passion But he had no idea he would enjoy killing so much and before he knows it he can't stop Under the moniker Othello's Brother he methodically terrorizes the city and begins a game of cat and mouse with the police force that ultimately addresses issues of culture race and asks the question Just what is justice anyway
