Ceramics and the Museum Laura Breen, 2019-08-22 Ceramics and the Museum interrogates the relationship between art oriented ceramic practice and museum practice in Britain since 1970 Laura Breen examines the identity of ceramics as an art form drawing on examples of work by artist makers such as Edmund de Waal and Grayson Perry addresses the impact of policy making on ceramic practice traces the shift from object to project in ceramic practice and in the evolution of ceramic sculpture explores how museums facilitated multisensory engagement with ceramic material and process and analyses the exhibition as a text in itself Proposing the notion that gestures of showing such as exhibitions and installation art can be read as statements she examines what they tell us about the identity of ceramics at particular moments in time Highlighting the ways in which these gestures have constructed ceramics as a category of artistic practice Breen argues that they reveal gaps between narrative and practice which in turn can be used to deconstruct the art

The Potter's Eye Mark Hewitt, Nancy Sweezy, 2005-01-01 Traces the history of North Carolina pottery from the nineteenth century to the present day demonstrating the intriguing historic and aesthetic relationships that link pots produced in North Carolina to pottery traditions in Europe and Asia in New England and in the neighboring state of South Carolina

Subversive Ceramics Claudia Clare, 2016-04-21 A Choice Outstanding Academic Title 2016 Satire has been used in ceramic production for centuries Historically it occurred as a slogan or proverb written into the ceramic surface as pictorial surface imagery or as a satirical figurine The use of satire in contemporary ceramics is a rapidly evolving trend with many artists subverting or otherwise rethinking familiar historic forms to make a political point Claudia Clare examines the relationship between ceramics social politics and political movements and the way both organisations and individual artists have used pots predominantly domestic objects to agitate among the masses or simply express their ideas. Ninety colour illustrations of various subversive satirical and campaigning works illustrate her arguments and enliven debate. Claudia Clare explores work by artists from twenty one different countries from 500 BC to the present day. These range from the French artist Honor Daumier and the enslaved African American potter David Drake to contemporary artists including Lubaina Himid, Virgil Ortiz and Shlomit Bauman whose work and the means of its production has addressed or commented upon issues such as disputed homelands, identity, race, gender and colonialism.

Rethinking Contemporary British Women's Writing Emilie Walezak, 2021-08-26. Providing close readings of well known British realist writers including Pat Barker, A.S. Byatt, Rose Tremain, Sarah Hall, Bernadine Evaristo and Zadie Smith, this book uses new directions in material and posthuman feminism to examine how contemporary women writers explore the challenges we collectively face today. Walezak redresses negative assumptions about realism's alleged conservatism and demonstrates the vitality and relevance of the realist genre in experimenting with the connections between individual and collective voices, human and non human, meditations local and global, scales and author and reader. Considering how contemporary realist writing is attuned to pressing issues including globalization, climate change and interconnectivity, this book provides innovative new ways of reading realism, examines how these writers are looking to reinvent the genre and shows how realism helps reimagine our place in the world.

Ceramics Masterclass Louisa Taylor, 2020-08-11. Ceramics Masterclass examines 100 great pieces of ceramics from history and explores how they were made, what they do well and what we learn from them. The subject of ceramics is steeped in history and tradition. For thousands of years humans have exploited the versatile qualities of clay as a material to produce items ranging from humble utilitarian vessels integral to family living right through to exquisite works of art. Louisa Taylor explores this diverse discipline by showcasing 100 of the most innovative and inspiring artists past and present, analysing the techniques and methods used to create the works and the concepts which underpin their creative process. The book shows how to recreate intricate still life dioramas like fifteenth century artist Bernard Palissy, explore narrative like Grayson Perry and convey sensitivity to material like Phoebe Cummings. Arranged thematically, Ceramics Masterclass will include chapters on vessels, form and surface, function, figurative works, one offs and installations. Explores the artistic process, methodology and techniques of 100 great artists. In depth ceramic techniques section covering skills integral to working with clay. Includes historical and contemporary examples. Represents a global perspective of the field including dynamic and ground breaking approaches to clay. Perfect for students, amateur ceramicists and professionals, this book will represent a global perspective of historical and contemporary approaches to clay and be a catalyst for discovery and intrigue.

Nature Transformed Sean M. Ulmer, Janice Blackburn, Terry Martin, David Revere McFadden, 2004. This publication presents a selection of wood based works from the collection of Robert Bohlen, one of the finest and most thorough collectors of wood art. The artistic progress of the medium is analyzed by a wide array of essays Art for Wales David Moore, 2020-09-01 An invaluable reflection on the legacy of Derek Williams 1929 1984 a Cardiff surveyor whose generous bequest of his art collection and entire net estate coincided with a reappraisal of the role and workings of the National Museum of Wales and led to the formation of the Derek Williams Trust in 1992 Concise insightful chapters by writer and curator David Moore examine the quality and variety of artworks assembled by Derek Williams or supported by the activity of the Trust over a period of over 25 years ranging from painting to ceramics photography and digital media Illustrated with a wealth of artworks from the Trust's collection and related exhibitions

The Persistence of Craft Paul Greenhalgh, 2003 In The Persistence of Craft contributors discuss the development of not only six specific crafts glass ceramics jewelry wood textiles and metal but also the trends and movements that have helped shape their developments Includes 180 full color illustrations Contemporary British Ceramics and the Influence of Sculpture Laura Gray, 2018-01-02 This book investigates how British contemporary artists who work with clay have managed in the space of a single generation to take ceramics from niche interest craft to the pristine territories of the contemporary art gallery This development has been accompanied and perhaps propelled by the kind of critical discussion usually reserved for the higher discipline of sculpture Ceramics is now encountering and colliding with sculpture both formally and intellectually Laura Gray examines what this means for the old hierarchies between art and craft the identity of the potter and the character of a discipline tied to a specific material but wanting to participate in critical discussions that extend far beyond clay Crafting a Continuum Peter Held, Heather Sealy Lineberry, 2013-11-22 The Arizona State University Art Museum is renowned for its extensive and notable craft collection and features international acquisitions in wood ceramic and fiber This book edited by the museum's curators uses the ASU collection to explore the idea of craft within a critical context as both idea and action Crafting a Continuum begins with the genesis of the craft collection and relates it to the historical development of craft in the United States and abroad exploring both anthropological and cultural concepts of the field Peter Held and Heather Sealy Lineberry present photographs of the museum's objects alongside essays by distinguished scholars to illuminate historical and contemporary trends Sidebars and essays by writers in the craft field offer a broad overview of the future of contemporary craft Edmund de Waal at Kettle's Yard, Mima and Elsewhere Jorunn

Veiteberg, 2007 Contemporary Clay and Museum Culture Christie Brown, Julian Stair, Clare Twomey, 2016-06-17 This groundbreaking book is the first to provide a critical overview of the relationship between contemporary ceramics and curatorial practice in museum culture Ceramic objects form a major part of museum collections with connections to anthropology archaeology and other disciplines that engage with the cultural and social history of humankind In recent years museums have provided the impetus for cutting edge artistic practice either as a response to particular collections or as part of exhibitions But the question of how museums have staged contemporary ceramics and how ceramic artists respond to museum collections has not been the subject of published research to date This book examines how ceramic artists have over the last decade begun to animate museum collections in new ways and reflects on the impact that these new initiatives have had in the broad context of visual culture

Ceramics in the Expanded Field is the culmination of a three year AHRC funded project and reflects its major findings It brings together leading international voices in the field of ceramics research undertaken throughout the project and papers delivered at the concluding conference By examining the benefits and constraints of interventions and the dialogue between ceramics and museological practice this book will bring focus to an area of museology that has not yet been theorized and will contribute to policy debates and art practice

The Potter's Way Florence St. George, 2023-04-27 An honest and redemptive story about the power of fun and creativity I've always said if it was mandatory to wear a smock once a week and get messy with clay adults would be happier

MIRANDA HART Sometimes the smallest things lead to the biggest changes When struggling with depression and feeling lost after the birth of her daughter Florence St George began experimenting with a lump of clay on her kitchen table Pot by pot bowl by bowl she traded Prozac for pottery finding solace and strength in the therapeutic touch of clay Pottery soon became a lifeline a way to rebuild her life and revive her creativity In just a few years Florence went from complete beginner to contestant on The Great Pottery Throw Down Along the way she found that clay has the power to restore balance and happiness and light a path through the darkest of times

The Potter's Way is an uplifting and courageous memoir that invites us all to experience the transformative power of creativity Warm honest and full of inspiring tips Florence's story shows us that pottery has the power to soothe the heart and heal the mind

JULIA SAMUEL I have found nothing outside myself that can truly fill the void but this book demonstrates that pottery is about as close as it gets

NICK LOVE This book is a journey with a map Like all maps it relays history from the first point of contact to pivotal moments along the way I like a map They help us to find our way

INDIA HICKS The Objects That Remain Laura Levitt, 2020-11-02 On a November evening in 1989 Laura Levitt was raped in her own bed Her landlord heard the assault taking place and called 911 but the police arrived too late to apprehend Laura's attacker When they left investigators took items with them a pair of sweatpants the bedclothes and a rape exam was performed at the hospital However this evidence was never processed

Decades later Laura returns to these objects viewing them not as clues that will lead to the identification of her assailant but rather as a means of engaging traumatic legacies writ large

The Objects That Remain is equal parts personal memoir and fascinating examination of the ways in which the material remains of violent crimes inform our experience of and thinking about trauma and loss

Considering artifacts in the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum and evidence in police storage facilities across the country Laura's story moves between intimate trauma the story of an unsolved rape and genocide Throughout she asks what it might mean to do justice to these violent pasts outside the juridical system or through historical empiricism which are the dominant ways in which we think about evidence from violent crimes and other highly traumatic events Over the course of her investigation the author reveals how these objects that remain and the stories that surround them enable forms of intimacy In this way she models for us a different kind of reckoning where justice is an animating process of telling and holding
