Debates on U.S. Health Care Jennie Jacobs Kronenfeld, Wendy E. Parmet, Mark A. Zezza, 2012-09-06 This issues based reference work available in both print and electronic formats shines a spotlight on health care policy and practice in the United States

Impassioned debates about the best solutions to health care in America have perennially erupted among politicians scholars of public policy medical professionals and the general public

The fight over the Health Care Reform Act of 2010 brought to light a multitude of fears challenges obstacles and passions that often had the effect of complicating rather than clarifying the debate

The discourse has never been more heated

The complex issues that animate the health care debate have forced the American public to grapple with the exigencies of the present system with regard to economic fiscal and monetary policy especially as they relate to philosophical often ideologically driven approaches to the problem

Americans have also had to examine their ideas about the relationship of the individual to and interaction with the state and the varied social and cultural beliefs about what an American solution to the problem of health care looks like

In light of the need to keep students researchers and other interested readers informed and up to date on the issues surrounding health care in the U S this volume uses introductory essays followed by point counterpoint articles to explore prominent and perennially important debates providing readers with views on multiple sides of this complex issue

Features Benefits The volume is divided into three sections each with its own Section Editor

Quality of Care Debates Dr Jennie Kronenfeld

Economic Fiscal Debates Dr Mark Zezza and

Political Philosophical Legal Debates Prof Wendy Parmet

Sections open with a Preface by the Section Editor to introduce the broad theme at hand and provide historical underpinnings

Each Section holds 12 chapters addressing varied aspects of the broad theme of the section

Chapters open with an objective lead in piece or headnote followed by a point article and a counterpoint article

headnote point article counterpoint article are signed For each chapter students are referred to further readings data sources and other resources as a jumping off spot for further research and more in depth exploration Finally the volume concludes with a comprehensive index and the electronic version of the book includes search and browse features as well as the ability to link to further readings cited within chapters should they be available to the library in electronic format

Sociological Abstracts ,1991 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers

Wallace Stevens and the Actual World Alan Filreis,2014-07-14 The work of Wallace Stevens has been read most widely as poetry concerned with poetry and not with the world in which it was created deemed utterly singular it seems to resist being read as the record of a life and times In this critical biography Alan Filreis presents a detailed challenge to this exceptionalist view as he traces two major periods of Stevens s career from 1939 to 1955 the war years and the postwar years Portraying Stevens as someone whose alternation between cultural comprehension and ignorance was itself characteristically American Filreis examines the poet s impulse to disguise and compress the very fact of his debt to the actual world By actual world Stevens meant historical conditions often in order to impugn his own interest in such externalities as the last resort of a man whose famous interiority made him feel desperately irrelevant In light of events ranging from the U S entry into World War II to the Cold War Filreis shows how Stevens was driven to make a close approach to reality in an effort to reconcile his poetic language with a cultural language Wallace Stevens and the Actual World is not only an impressive feat of historical recovery and analysis but also a pleasure to read It will be useful to anyone interested in the relationship between American politics and literature during World War II and the Cold War Milton J Bates Marquette University Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Made From This Earth Vera Norwood,2014-07-01 The broad sweep of environmental and ecological history has until now been written and understood in predominantly male terms In Made From This Earth Vera Norwood explores the relationship of women to the natural environment through the work of writers illustrators landscape and garden designers ornithologists botanists biologists and conservationists Norwood begins by showing that the study and promotion of botany was an activity deemed appropriate for women in the early 1800s After highlighting the work of nineteenth century scientific illustrators and garden designers she focuses on nature s advocates such as Rachel Carson and Dian Fossey who differed strongly with men on both women s nature and the value of the natural world These women challenged the dominant male controlled ideologies often framing their critique with reference to values arising from the female experience Norwood concludes with an analysis of the utopian solutions posed by ecofeminists the most recent group of women to contest men over the meaning and value of nature 1st Afrika Special Edition Magazine Olujide Stephen Adesina, 1st Afrika magazine is evidence based reporting thoroughly researched work that is collected mostly through investigative journalism from season journalists and regular citizens with firsthand insider information and consists of various media such as photos videos news reports and official documents 1st Afrika Magazine is an international magazine published by Global Afrika Network Ist Afrika has gained a significantly large following both in Africa and amongst Africans abroad as no other African news agency could operate with the same level of transparency for fear of government action Word and Spirit Anselm K. Min, Christoph Schwöbel, 2014-04-01 Christology and Pneumatology face many challenges today Eight contributors four European and four Asian theologians respond to some of these challenges Christoph Schwöbel responds to the challenge of fundamentalism and spiritualism through the renewal of the Trinitarian theology of the Reformers Markus Mühling through a return to the concarnational Pneumatology of Thomas Erskine Hans Joachim Sander meets the challenge of suffering and powerlessness through the postmodern hermeneutics of heterotopia Foucault Lieven Boeve responds to that of skepticism and pluralism through the hermeneutics of interruption Lee Ki Sang and Kim Heup Young address the globalization of materialism and anthropocentrism through the respective retrieval of the apophaticism and Christology of Ryu Young Mo increasingly noted today for his original synthesis of Christianity Buddhism Confucianism and Daoism Finally Lai Pan Chiu and Anselm Min engage in an East West dialogue Lai by comparing the Christian idea of deification and the Neo Confucian idea of self cultivation Min the Trinity of Aquinas and the Triad of Zhu Xi This is a substantial timely and insightful contribution to Christology and Pneumatology in the context of the many issues raised by globalization especially the need for serious East West dialogue The Dissenting Voice Martin S. Stabb, 2014-05-23 Political social and aesthetic change marked Latin American society in the years between 1960 and 1985 In this book Martin Stabb explores how these changes made their way into the essayistic writings of twenty six Spanish American intellectuals Stabb posits that dissent against ideology against simplistic notions of technological progress against urban values and even against the direct linear expository style of the essay itself characterizes the work of these contemporary essayists He draws his examples from major canonical figures including Paz Vargas Llosa Fuentes and Cortázar and from lesser known writers who merit a wider readership such as Monterroso Zaid Edwards and Ibarraengoitia This exploration overturns many conventional assumptions about Latin American intellectuals and also highlights some of the other achievements of authors famous primarily for novels or short stories Medical and Health Care Books and Serials in Print, 1987 Barron's AP World History with CD-ROM John McCannon, 2008-02-01 This newly updated manual presents two full length model AP World History exams with answer keys plus detailed advice on answering the comparative
