

The image features two arched windows set into a dark, possibly stone or concrete, wall. The window on the left is slightly smaller and shows a view of a grassy field with a low, light-colored building in the distance under a bright sky. The window on the right is larger and shows a dense forest of tall, thin trees. The foreground is dominated by a dark teal background with a diagonal line pattern. The text is overlaid on the bottom left of this pattern.

Poverty Alleviation The Role Of The Church And Organizations

Tom Nelson

Poverty Alleviation The Role Of The Church And Organizations:

Poverty Alleviation, the Role of the Church and Organizations Prince Joseph, 2014-11-21 Poverty is a disease ravaging so many people in the World today It is a sickness that must be cured and a problem that must be solved if all hands are on deck Do the church as an institution has a role to play in the fight against poverty What can the church and other groups and association do practically in poverty alleviation reduction and eradication in the world especially in the developing countries of the world If the answer is in the affirmative then what are those roles and how can it be achieved The Role of Faith-based Organizations in United States Programming in Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on Africa, Global Human Rights, and International Operations, 2006 International Organizations and Environmental Protection Wolfram Kaiser, Jan-Henrik Meyer, 2016-12-01 Pollution resource depletion habitat management and climate change are all issues that necessarily transcend national boundaries Accordingly they and other environmental concerns have been a particular focus for international organizations from before the First World War to the present day This volume is the first to comprehensively explore the environmental activities of professional communities NGOs regional bodies the United Nations and other international organizations during the twentieth century It follows their efforts to shape debates about environmental degradation develop binding intergovernmental commitments and following the seminal 1972 Conference on the Human Environment implement and enforce actual international policies Social-Ethical Challenges of Digitalization in a Developing Country Valentine Ihim, The study is the result of a theological research and is based on current discussions on digitalization in Christian Social Ethics The book answers questions such as How can the Church use digitalization to advance her mission in the modern world Since digitalization has redefined the landscape of evangelization and is now very much favoured by young people how can the Church use digitalization to engage the young people in her mandate to evangelize the world This work also examines how digitalization could be used to combat corruption especially in the Nigerian public and private sectors It suggests various measures by which internet fraud and corruption could be reduced using digital tools It stresses however that these measures can only have a positive outcome if the government and its institutions are sincere and resolute in their determination to curb such corruption Extractives and Equity: An Introductory Overview and Case Studies From Peru, Angola and Nigeria , Proceedings of the 2024 SSEME Workshop on Social Sciences and Education (SSEME-SSE 2024) Holger Mathias Briel, 2024-09-25 This is an open access book As an interdisciplinary academic conference SSEME showcases high quality keynote speeches oral and poster presentations of refereed papers It highlights in hot research fields in social sciences economics management and education and aims to foster the exchange of research advances addressing emerging challenges in the frontlines of scientific researches and practices SSEME warmly welcomes new insights from both industry and academia on both basic and applied researches 2024 the 2nd International Conference on Social Sciences Economics Management and Education SSEME 2024

A Different Way of Being David Kirwa Tarus, 2019-02-28 If my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways then I will hear from heaven and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land 2 Chronicles 7 14 Kenya is a diverse nation with many ethnic communities and cultural traditions However this diversity has led to deep divisions over the years resulting in entrenched ethno-political tension and conflict In this book Dr David Kirwa Tarus advocates for a Christian theological response to the nation's divisions by presenting various theological perspectives on anthropology society and politics including those of John Calvin and John Mbiti as well as other prominent Kenyan theologians This work traces the history of ethno-political conflict in Kenya and the church's response from 1895 to 2013 and thoroughly examines how a reformed theology can provide a pathway to social cohesion in Kenya David Tarus humbly yet boldly challenges Kenyans to pursue national unity and peace by interrogating their allegiances to their ethnic communities and political parties This book carefully argues why it is only a Christian identity commitment to humanity as bearing the divine image and the triune God himself that can heal the divisions in this land and in turn bring an end to other social evils such as corruption intolerance and violence Ethnopolitical conflict is not confined to one nation and this study will bear much fruit in other contexts where people yearn for social cohesion

Champions of the Poor Barend A. DeVries,1998-03-01 Barend A de Vries a distinguished international economist examines the economic roots of poverty the actions that can be taken to eradicate it and the ethical case for integrating the poor into the mainstream of society De Vries applies Judeo Christian ethics in particular the values of social justice and compassion for the poor to the problem of poverty in both the United States and in developing countries Bringing together the insights of economics and ethicists he considers both the economic feasibility of religious views regarding the eradication of poverty and the ethical aspects of economic programs He analyzes the poverty of women resulting from discrimination the impact of environmental degradation on the poor the allocation of funding to military rather than social programs and the implications of the enormous debts incurred by poor countries In addressing these conditions he demonstrates the pressing need for action on both economic and ethical grounds Champions of the Poor offers an unbiased presentation of the ethical positions taken by Jews Catholics mainline Protestants and Evangelicals and stresses the need for all social sectors religious and secular business labor and government to work together to eradicate poverty By reassessing poverty from these seemingly disparate approaches it seeks to bring us closer to solving this age old problem

Moving from the Millennium to the Sustainable Development Goals Sefa Awaworyi Churchill,2020-04-25 This book

presents a collection of chapters that examine various dimensions of development Between 2000 and 2015 the Millennium Development Goals MDGs remained the overarching development framework that governed the international development community After a decade and half of commitment to the MDGs the framework is widely considered a success although progress reported across countries has been uneven The new overarching international development framework may not be successful or present the best opportunities for the desired global change without a better understanding of factors that contributed the most or the least to the attainment of the MDGs The chapters presented in this book provide discussions and insights into understanding these factors better They represent a collection of scholarship that address some of the important questions in international development They adopt a wide range of research methods to provide insight into what works and what does not in promoting the stipulated development goals
